Sparkles: Selected Quotes from the Founders Talk Rev. Fr. J.E. Arul Raj, 2024-08-18 Collins Dictionary describes 'Sparkles' as “small points of light caused by light reflecting off a clear bright surface.” Call them sparks, flashes or glitters; they reflect the light of a bright body. This book titled 'Sparkles' comes with flashes of thoughts from the talks of Rev. Dr. Fr. J.E. Arul Raj, the founder of DMI, MMI and AMI. They are carved out from his talks and framed as one-liners. These selected quotes from his talks serve the purpose of getting to know the mind of the Founder on a wide variety of topics. They are of course, not exhaustive or comprehensive but very much reflective of his spirit and vision. The effort was to reproduce the words of the founder verbatim and to be faithful to his mind. Hence, faithfulness to the original delivery of thought has taken precedence over fineness of language. In this book, there are two sections: one containing all the quotations in the alphabetical order; and another containing various topics, and under them, the quotations relevant to each topic. It is believed that this handy book would serve as a ready reckoner for all, especially the DMI sisters and MMI fathers to put them to use in their talks and writings; and more importantly for personal reflection and profitable implementation in their life and mission.

Modern Loss Rebecca Soffer,Gabrielle Birkner,2018-01-23 Inspired by the website that the New York Times hailed as redefining mourning, this book is a fresh and irreverent examination into navigating grief and resilience in the age of social media, offering comfort and community for coping with the mess of loss through candid original essays from a variety of voices, accompanied by gorgeous two-color illustrations and wry infographics. At a time when we mourn public figures and national tragedies with hashtags, where intimate posts about loss go viral and we receive automated birthday reminders for dead friends, it's clear we are navigating new terrain without a road map. Let's face it: most of us have always had a difficult time talking about death and sharing our grief. We're awkward and uncertain; we avoid, ignore, or even deny feelings of sadness; we offer platitudes; we send sympathy bouquets whittled out of fruit. Enter Rebecca Soffer and Gabrielle Birkner, who can help us do better. Each having lost parents as young adults, they co-founded Modern Loss, responding to a need to change the dialogue around the messy experience of grief. Now, in this wise and often funny book, they offer the insights of the Modern Loss community to help us cry, laugh, grieve, identify, and—above all—empathize. Soffer and Birkner, along with forty guest contributors including Lucy Kalanithi, singer Amanda Palmer, and CNN's Brian Stelter, reveal their own stories on a wide range of topics including triggers, sex, secrets, and inheritance. Accompanied by beautiful hand-drawn illustrations and witty how to cartoons, each contribution provides a unique perspective on loss as well as a remarkable life-affirming message. Brutally honest and inspiring, Modern Loss invites us to talk intimately and humorously about grief, helping us confront the humanity (and mortality) we all share. Beginners welcome.

Fathers and Sons in Baseball Broadcasting Tony Silvia,2009-07-15 In this work, first-hand accounts and original interviews illuminate how the father-son relationship thrives because of baseball, and, sometimes, in spite of it. Each of these men bears a legendary name in baseball broadcasting--Caray, Brennaman, Buck and Kalas--and some can count four generations of men whose voices defined a team. All of the sons relate how their fathers' names opened doors for them but concurrently raised expectations of how they should perform, and all relate how they learned from their fathers' (and grandfathers') triumphs and mistakes. Includes a foreword by Chip Caray, speeches by Joe Buck about his father Jack, and articles by Skip Caray, Chip Caray and Marty Brennaman.
