Nancy Kegan Smith, Mary C. Ryan

Wit and Wisdom of America's First Ladies Joslyn Pine, 2014-11-19 This lively collection features more than 350 amusing and thought-provoking remarks by White House wives, from Martha Washington to Michelle Obama, on subjects ranging from celebrity to domesticity.

First Ladies Betty Boyd Caroli, 2019 This expanded and updated fifth edition presents Caroli's keen political analysis and astute observation of recent developments in First Lady history. Caroli here contributes a new preface and updated chapters.

The Health of the First Ladies Ludwig M. Deppisch, M.D., 2015-01-28 This first comprehensive study of the medical histories of America's first ladies--from Martha Washington to Michelle Obama--discusses their illnesses, their treatments and their physicians in the context of their times. As the categories of illness afflicting Americans have changed through history so have the kinds of maladies affecting the first ladies. Infectious diseases and the consequences of poorly supervised pregnancies have been replaced by cerebrovascular accidents and malignancies. The secrecy with which the White House has traditionally handled inquiries about the health of the president's wife is explored in detail; however, several first ladies, notably Betty Ford, have been transparent about their illnesses in order to educate the public. The effects of a first lady's responsibilities on her health is examined. This book also seeks to discern how the well-being of the first lady influences presidential performance.

Pocket First Ladies Wisdom Hardie Grant, 2020-09 From Martha Washington to Jackie Kennedy, the First Ladies of the United States have often been as inspiring and influential as their husbands. They have been involved in political campaigns, championed social causes, been fashion role models and, undoubtedly, influenced many behind-closed-doors decisions. Including quotes from trailblazer Michelle Obama, pioneering Betty Ford, human rights activist Eleanor Roosevelt and many more, this is an inspirational collection of quotes from some of the world's most remarkable women.

First Ladies Catherine Breslin, 1987 In the 1980 presidential election neither candidate wins a majority in the Electoral College. While the selection of a chief executive is deadlocked in the House, Democratic vice-president Larry Devlin is sworn in as acting president. This novel is the account of two political wives, dragon lady Prilla Sterling, wife of the Republican contender, and recovering alcoholic, temporary first lady Robin Devlin. The women are perfect foils for each other, their stories played out against an interesting and authentic view of political life behind the scenes.

America in Quotations Bahman Dehgan, 2015-08-31 “America is a land of wonders, in which everything is in constant motion and every change seems an improvement.... No natural boundary seems to be set to the efforts of man; and in his eyes what is not yet done is only what he has not yet attempted to do”—Alexis de Tocqueville, Democracy in America (1835). “Americans will pay a big price for an invention that will help them save time they don’t know what to do with”—Anonymous. This collection of quotations—both serious and humorous—about America is divided into 19 main topics: The Nation, The American People, Places, Nature, Mind, The Individual, Human Relations, Social Life, Culture and Media, Literature and Language, Religion and Belief, Past and Future, History, War and the Military, International Relations, Politics and Government, Law and Order, Business and Economy, and Food. Each main topic is divided into subtopics; for example, “Culture and Media” has these: Architecture, Art, Charlie Chaplin, Dance, Fashion, Intellectuals, Marilyn Monroe, Movies, Music, Elvis Presley, and Television. The author attributes each quote to its speaker, author or composer, and wherever possible, provides the date of the quote and the name of the work in which it was published. In the case of uncertainty about the exact date of a quote, the author provides the birth and death dates of the person to whom the quote is attributed. Also included are a keyword and subject index and a speaker index.

First Ladies and the Fourth Estate Lisa M. Burns, 2008 Through press coverage, U.S. first ladies have become some of the most prominent and recognized figures in American politics. While the U.S. Constitution doesn't enumerate the responsibilities of the first lady, a succession of dynamic women, beginning with Martha Washington, have shaped this post into a highly visible public office. First ladies have performed a variety of public and private roles, from hostess, escort, and social advocate to advisor and policymaker. The gendered nature of the position, however, has always influenced first ladies' performance as they balanced their institutional duties with high expectations from the press and the public that they serve as role models for American women. In First Ladies and the Fourth Estate, Burns analyzes the coverage of presidents' wives in five leading newspapers and magazines--The New York Times, The Washington Post, Ladies' Home Journal, Good Housekeeping, and McCall's--to prove that the press has helped shape the first lady institution as well as influence the changing social and political roles of American women. By examining press portrayals of twentieth-century first ladies, Burns highlights the intersection of gender, publicity, and power at particular historical moments. Through the years, journalists have used both the gender ideals of the time and the collective memories of previous first ladies to assess the performance of the president's wife. The first lady has emerged as a celebrity, an advocate for humanitarian causes, and, in more recent years, a political activist. Burns argues that this evolution of the first lady institution--from the new woman of the early 1900s to the new traditionalist and superwoman of the 1990s, and from the domesticity of the Cold War to the activism of second wave feminism--spurred increasingly critical press coverage as the presidential wives expanded their sphere of influence from the personal to the political. The interdisciplinary approach of this study reveals the significance of the first lady institution not only to women's history and gender studies but also to the study of U.S. history, the American presidency, political communication, rhetorical criticism, and media history.

The First Ladies Sol Barzman, 1970 Intimate biographical portraits of the Presidents' wives from Martha Washington to Pat Nixon.

The Smithsonian Book of First Ladies' Quotations US First Ladies, 2024-04-30 An inspiring collection of wisdom from the women of the White House, from Martha Washington to Jill Biden Great for research, reading, or inspiration The world of the future is in our making. Tomorrow is now. - Eleanor Roosevelt Each first lady has defined the unofficial but significant role based on her own interests and priorities. Barbara Bush promoted literacy, Edith Wilson took on chief executive responsibilities after her husband's stroke, and Betty Ford spoke frankly about taboo issues like her mental health and mastectomy. Smithsonian Book of First Ladies' Quotations collects their words of wisdom in a perfect gift or keepsake format with elegant features. Bound in environmentally friendly material with soft-touch coating Foil-stamped in gold Sturdy, quality hardcover printed in the USA An introduction by Lisa Kathleen Graddy, curator of political history at the Smithsonian's National Museum of American History, enriches the book with insightful observations about the value and judgement we place on first ladies. The beautifully designed Smithsonian Book of First Ladies' Quotations peers into the interiority and experiences of first ladies across time.

The Faith of America's First Ladies Jane Hampton Cook, 2006-02 Modern-day pressures for supermodel beauty, high-powered careers, and perfect families place a spotlight on a woman's achievements instead of her worth. This book, using stories from numerous First Ladies, shows how they triumphed while experiencing intense pressure. By using their stories, along with a Hebrew Proverb and biblical principles, Jane Cook explains that God is the true source of value and worth.

Lady Bird Johnson and the Environment Lewis L. Gould, 1988 Gould (American history, U. of Texas-Austin) has dusted off, updated, and thinned his 1988 Lady Bird Johnson and the Environment to kick off the new series on the wives of US presidents. He draws on Johnson's White House papers and interviews with her and her close associates to argue that she was one of the most politically active First Ladies though her concern with the environment was overshadowed by protests against the Vietnam War. Modern First Ladies Nancy Kegan Smith, Mary C. Ryan, 1989 This collection of essays about the Presidential wives of the 20th century through Nancy Reagan. An exploration of the records of first ladies will elicit diverse insights about the historical impact of these women in their times. Interpretive theories that explain modern first ladies are still tentative and exploratory. The contention in the essays, however, is that whatever direction historical writing on presidential wives may follow, there is little question that the future role of first ladies is more likely to expand than to recede to the days of relatively silent and passive helpmates. Following a foreword and an introduction, essays in the collection and their authors are, as follows: Meeting a New Century: The Papers of Four Twentieth-Century First Ladies (Mary M. Wolfskill); Not One to Stay at Home: The Papers of Lou Henry Hoover (Dale C. Mayer); 'I Want You to Write to Me': The Papers of Anna Eleanor Roosevelt (Frances M. Seeber); Harry's Silent Partner: The Papers of Bess Truman (Maurine H. Beasley); Ike Was Her Career: The Papers of Mamie Doud Eisenhower (Martin M. Teasley); An Enduring Fascination: The Papers of Jacqueline Kennedy (Mary Ann Watson); A Journey of the Heart: The Papers of Lady Bird Johnson (Nancy Kegan Smith); 'She Deserved So Much More': The Papers of Pat Nixon (Paul A. Schmidt); 'If There Was Anything You Forgot to Ask...': The Papers of Betty Ford (Karen M. Rohrer); 'These Are Precious Years': The Papers of Rosalynn Carter (Faye Lind Jensen); and 'She Saves Everything': The Papers of Nancy Davis Reagan (Carl Sferrazza Anthony). The collection concludes with an afterword and suggestions for further reading. (NKA)

Terminal Logic Jefferson Scott, 1997 In the year 2007, every GlobeNet user receives the following e-mail message: This is your God. I have become displeased with all my worlds. Things have become unmanageable. Therefore I will wipe out all participants and begin again. Prepare to be purged. When people begin dying in bizarre accidents, it is once again up to Christian programmer Ethan Hamilton to save users from high-tech destruction. Only this time, his adversary is a being whose emergence may signal the advent of the Apocalypse.
