Mornings with Saint Therese Patricia Treece, 2014-03-17 Mornings with Saint Therese is a compilation of short excerpts (no more than 1-3 pages) taken from the Little Flower's writings and also from those of her close family members and friends. This hardcover book is beautifully designed inside and out, making it a perfect gift for those you love, or as a daily tool for deepening your own spiritual life — all for just $12.95! The following passages have been carefully selected as examples of the countless pearls of wisdom to be found in this special book. On Mortification I resolved to lead a life of greater devoutness and mortification than ever before. When I speak of mortification, I don't mean the kind of penance practiced by the saints. There are great souls who practice every sort of mortification from childhood, but I am not like them. All I did was to break my self-will, check a hasty reply, and do little kindnesses without making a fuss about them — and lots of similar things. So, I prepared myself to become a bride of Jesus. Give, with No Thought of Results! On working with the Carmelite novices: I throw to the right and the left to my little birds the good seed that the good God puts in my little hand. And then, the seed does what it will! I don't concern myself about it. Sometimes the results are as if I had thrown nothing; other times, something good results. But the good God says to me, 'Give, give always without concerning yourself with results.' Keeping the Fire of Love Burning When I am feeling nothing, when I am incapable of praying, of practicing virtue, then is the moment for seeking opportunities, 'nothings' which please Jesus more than mastery of the world when suffered with generosity. For example, a smile, a friendly word, when I would want to say nothing, or put on a look of annoyance, etc. Infinite Love Oh! How beautiful is our religion; instead of contracting hearts (as the world believes), it raises them up and renders them capable of loving, or loving with a love almost infinite, since this love must continue after this mortal life which is given to us only for meriting the homeland of heaven, where we shall find again the dear ones whom we have loved on earth! Wanting Only to Die of Love How gentle and merciful God is...I no longer want anything except to love until I die of love. I am free and fear nothing. I am not even afraid — and it used to be my greatest fear — that my illness will drag out and make me a burden to the community. I do not refuse the struggle: 'The Lord is a rock upon which I stand; He teaches my hands to fight and my fingers to war. He is my protector and I have hoped in Him.'

The Way of Simple Love Gary Caster, 2019-10-07 "My way is one that is full of confidence and love." —St. Thérèse of Lisieux Through her autobiography and an extensive collection of letters, St. Thérèse helped people understand nothing was too little to give Jesus, and nothing done out of love for him was insignificant. Perhaps this is why so many lives still resonate with hers. It is easy to feel insignificant and unimportant. Yet, the clear and compelling language of her story and her letters remains the perfect antidote to such feelings. Fr. Gary Caster writes, "While the language she uses might be new to you, the insights she offers are as eternal as the God who loves us and longs for each of us to be united with him, in the Son, through the Holy Spirit, for all eternity." These inspiring words from her writings have been selected and arranged according to important themes of the spiritual life: confidence, holiness, humility, abandonment, obedience, the love of God, mercy, charity, and suffering. Her devotion to Jesus, Mary, and the Eucharist shine through all of her writings.

Through the Year with Saint Thérèse of Lisieux Constant Tonnelier, 1998 Finding a Christian role model for living each year to its spiritual fullness is a difficulty for Catholics today. Isn't it ironic that the perfect blueprint for such a journey can be found in the life of a saint who lived a century ago? A series of meditations & quotes arranged according to the liturgical year, Through the Year With Therese of Lisieux takes readers on a trek of spiritual enlightenment - offering ideas for daily reflection. Each day is represented by a scriptural quote, an excerpt from Therese's own writings or poetry, & a meditation that ties the two together.

The Loudest Quiet Girl Kathy Rodriques, 2019-08-26 Erin's sudden death at twenty-three did not silence her vibrant spirit. Her journals live on. Erin was genuinely beautiful, inside and out. She had the gift of listening well to people of all ages with empathy and compassion. Erin's quiet non-judgmental demeanor along with a terrific sense of humor lifted people up. Erin had her own anxieties and a little depression, as many of us have, but her strong faith, hope and love, as seen in her writings, managed to pull her through those rough patches. Let her excerpts gently guide you through your own life's valleys and hills, as well. May you feel Erin's presence, especially on your dark days. May her life be a beacon of light for you.

Story of a Soul Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, 1996 Two and a half years before her death in 1897 at the age of 24, as Thérèse Martin began writing down her childhood memories at the request of her blood sisters in the Lisieux Carmel, few could have guessed the eventual outcome. Yet this story of my soul, first published in 1898 in a highly edited version, quickly became a modern spiritual classic, read by millions and translated into dozens of languages around the world. Decades later, in response to growing requests from scholars and devotees of the Saint, a facsimile edition of the manuscripts appeared, along with more popular French editions of what the Saint had actually written. Here, expressed with all of Thérèse's original spontaneity and fervor, we rediscover the great themes of her spirituality: confidence and love, the little way, abandonment to God's merciful love, and her mission in the church and world today. Father John Clarke's acclaimed translation, first published in 1975 and now accepted as the standard throughout the English-speaking world, is a faithful and unaffected rendering of Thérèse's own words, from the original manuscripts. This new edition, prepared for the centenary of the Saint's death, includes a select bibliography of recent works in English on Thérèse, along with a new referencing system now widely used in studies of her doctrine. Includes general and biblical index, with 8 pages of photos.

In the Shadow of God's Wings I Rejoice! John Q.H. Dang, 2015-08-17 The truth is that life is short and death is real, eternal and sorrowful if man does not have hope in the eternal God. But life is everlasting and death becomes celebratory and rejoicing if man has learned to trade in his whole being and his life for God's mercy and compassion for eternal life... By virtue of the unfathomable mercy and compassion of the eternal Father, the eternal Son has acquired our whole being through His own blood; therefore, our soul, body, and nothingness belong to Jesus Christ, and we no longer have a say on our existence and life anymore, nor do we own our sickness and pain, or affliction and death any longer, nor are we held responsible for our weaknesses and sins again. After we have been sold to the Lord and have become His assets, our whole being is undergoing spiritual restructuring, and our personal problems will soon be fixed. When our real name is ready for public listing in His Kingdom, and when our authentic being is ready to be enlightened and revealed, we will see God face to face. Our Authentic Existence will reflect the glory of God and will be glorified by all the angels in heaven forever! On the judgment Day, you are invited to the largest ever and one-of-a-kind heavenly banquet in Heaven. No matter who you are provided • restless desire for the eternal life with hope; • fervent hope for it with patience; • enduring patience with what you believe in; • unwavering confidence in what you desire for, and • genuine living out your desire with love

The Story of a Soul: The Autobiography of St. Thérèse of Lisieux Thérèse Martin of Lisieux, Francis Alphonsus Bourne, 2023-11-23 This book is a memoir of Thérèse of Lisieux, a French Catholic Discalced Carmelite nun. Her blood sisters were also nuns and they insisted she should write a memoir two years before her death at the age of 24. The book contains her childhood memories from the tragedy of the loss of her mother and her childhood nervous fits to finding peace in the convent. To a large extent the book deals with her spiritual search and describes her thoughts, emotions and beliefs she developed during her service. In the last eighteen month of her life, Therese fell into a crisis of belief, when she was tormented by the doubts, which he had to overcome. Suffering a severe form of tuberculosis, Therese perceived this illness as a one of her last examinations of faith and transformed her pain and suffering into the feeling of happiness based on her faith in salvation. This memoir became a very influential book on spirituality, which made Therese famous beyond the borders of France and remains an important piece of spiritual literature today.

Can Christianity Cure Obsessive-Compulsive Disorder? Ian Osborn, MD,2008-04-01 Obsessive-compulsive disorder (OCD) is a relentless condition, the primary symptom being the occurrence of terrifying ideas, images, and urges that jump into a person's mind and return again and again, despite the individual's attempt to remove them. Christians who suffer from OCD may grapple with additional guilt, as the undesired thoughts are frequently of a spiritual nature. Yet people may be surprised to learn that some of the greatest leaders in Christian history also struggled with this malady. What did they experience? How did they cope? Were they able to overcome these tormenting, often violent, obsessions? Where did God fit into the picture? Ian Osborn shares the personal accounts of Martin Luther, John Bunyan, and Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, as well as his own story, in exploring how faith and science work together to address this complex issue.

Aging in Spirit Karen Kaigler-Walker,2023-03-14 Does God expect women who've lived faithfully most or all our lives to continue to grow in Christ as we age into our later decades? Absolutely! Not only does God want us to keep on maturing, but God provides the path to spiritual growth. God hardwired us to blossom into a new realm of spirituality as we age. Aging in Spirit provides a blueprint for developing the type of greater love, compassion, understanding, and acceptance that Jesus taught as we move into our elder years so we can continue to be the hands and feet of God until the end of our lives.

The Autobiography of Saint Therese ,1987-11-17 Few spiritual figures have touched as many readers in the past century as Saint Therese of Lisieux, the saint popularly known as the Little Flower. Though she was only twenty-four years old when she died, her writings have had tremendous impact, making her one of the most popular spiritual writers in the twentieth century. Her autobiography, The Story of a Soul, has been a source of priceless inspiration ever since it was written, and has become the great spiritual bestseller of our time. A hundred years after her death in 1897, millions of copies have spread throughout the world and it has been translated into more than fifty languages. The reason for the continued success of her autobiography is, quite simply, that it is unlike any work of devotion and spiritual insight ever written. Once it is read, it cannot be forgotten. Its appeal across cultures and generations has been extensive, moving both peasants and popes, men and women, young and old—people of every kind of intelligence and education succumb to its spell. Yet is not a conventional work of religious devotion; instead, it is in many ways a supernatural book. In the words of Pope Pius XI, Saint Therese attained the knowledge of supernatural things in such abundant measure that she was able to point out the sure way of salvation to others, and it is especially in The Story of a Soul that she has pointed out this sure way to the generations that have followed her. As Therese herself said of this book just prior to her death, What I have written will do a lot of good. It will make the kindness of God better known.

The Story of a Soul (L'Histoire d'une Âme): The Autobiography of St. Thérèse of Lisieux De Lisieux Saint Thérèse, 2023-11-09 In The Story of a Soul (L'Histoire d'une Âme), St. Thérèse of Lisieux offers an intimate and profound exploration of her spiritual journey and the simplicity of her faith. Written in a candid and heartfelt style, this autobiography blends elements of devotional literature with the candidness of personal memoir. It serves as a testament to her 'Little Way,' a path to holiness characterized by love, humility, and trust in God. St. Thérèse's narrative reflects the broader context of late 19th-century Catholicism, where personal spirituality was emerging prominently, inviting readers into a world marked by mystical experiences and profound reflections on divine love. St. Thérèse of Lisieux, a cloistered nun who died at only 24, became one of the most beloved saints within the Catholic tradition. Her early life, marked by profound faith trials and a deep longing for spiritual fulfillment, informed her writings. Drawing from her own experiences within the confines of her convent and her reflections on suffering, she crafted an enduring legacy that resonates with countless believers seeking a personal relationship with God. This book is highly recommended for anyone yearning for inspiration in their spiritual life. Whether you are a seeker of faith or a scholar of spirituality, St. Thérèse's profound insights and relatable journey offer a remarkable glimpse into the possibilities of holiness amid everyday life.

Story of a Soul (L'Histoire d'une Ame): The Autobiography of St. Therese of Lisieux ,2019

Story of a Soul: The Autobiography of Saint Therese of Lisieux Saint Therese of Lisieux, Aeterna Press, 2015-06-22 As we become acquainted with the histories of those in whom, in long succession, God has been pleased to show forth examples of holiness of life, it seems as if every phase of human existence had in the history of the Church received its consecration as a power to bring men nearer to their Maker. But there is no limit to the types of sanctity which the Creator is pleased to unfold before His Creatures. To many, on reading for the first time the story of Sister Teresa of the Child Jesus and of the Holy Face, it came almost as a shock to find a very youthful member of an austere Order, strictly retired from the world, engaged in hidden prayer and mortification, appearing before us to reveal to the whole world the wonders of the close intimacy of friendship to which her Divine Spouse had been pleased to call her. Certainly the way by which Soeur Thérèse was led is not the normal life of Carmel, nor hers the manner whereby most Carmelites are called to accomplish the wondrous apostolate of intercession to which their lives are given. But no less certain is it that, in her particular case, her work for God and her apostolate were not to be confined between the walls of her religious home, or to be limited by her few years on earth.
