Best Recipes of the Maritime Provinces , 2012-09-25 Maritime cooking starts with great local produce--lobster, scallops, oysters, blueberries, apples, cranberries, maple syrup, and more. There are treasured traditional dishes--hodge podge, baked beans, gingerbread, blueberry grunt--as well as the simple but delicious lobster boil. Leading chefs like Craig Flinn of Halifax's Chives restaurant, Michael Howell of The Tempest in Wolfville, and many others have come up with wonderful new ways of cooking with fresh, local ingredients. Best Recipes of the Maritime Provinces brings the traditional and the contemporary together in one great collection. During her many years as Canadian Living magazine's food editor, Elizabeth Baird was a great fan of Maritime cooking. She has visited every corner of the region to research and write about great local producers and cooks and their recipes. To prepare this collection, she started with well over 1,000 recipes published in cookbooks over the past three decades. From those, she has selected 400+ recipes by over fifty of the region's leading chefs, including Elaine Elliot and Virginia Lee, whose bestselling Maritime Flavours has sold more than 30,000 copies. Also included are tasty recipes from healthy eating champions Maureen Tilley and Sandra Nowlan. This is the book that every Maritime cook will want--and that visitors will take home so they can explore the region's rich culinary traditions.

The Vegan Planet, Revised Edition Robin Robertson, 2014-01-14 When it first appeared in 2003, Vegan Planet revolutionized animal-free cooking. Robin Robertson's pioneering book played a leading role in the passage of veganism from subculture to mainstream culinary lifestyle. Its breadth and variety of fantastically flavorful food not only gave vegans what they craved, it gave them food they could serve up happily to their non-vegan family members and friends. One decade and more than 100,000 copies later, this important classic is back in a thoroughly revised edition. Vegan cookbooks are big sellers today, but in a thicket of topical and niche titles there's a need for an everyday cooking bible on which vegan cooks can rely. The new Vegan Planet meets that need handsomely. Robertson's extensive updates cover such things as: the newly expanded range of whole grains that are available; super greens, such as kale and chard, that are rising in popularity; new facts concerning which cooking oils are healthiest and most earth-friendly; and new saucing and flavoring ideas from the global pantry. Throughout, there's the spirit of adventure and of culinary creativity that has cemented Robertson's reputation at the top of the vegan pantheon.

Preserving and Pickling ,1976 Fruits and vegetables are hardly ever more appealing than when they come right to the table fresh from the garden or local market, at the peak of flavor and ripeness. But because they are seasonal, they can be enjoyed only at certain times of the year. One way of making sure that they are always on your table is to can them; of all the ways of putting food by, preserving is certainly among the most popular. Preserves confer status on the cook who produces them, draw accolades from family members and proud speeches from spouses, and save quite a lot of money over the cost of fine commercial products. Perhaps best of all, you can take every advantage of ripe fruits and vegetables from your garden, the produce counter, and the gardens of friends who have invariably overextended themselves in their planting. Preserves are fun to make, and easy. They can be (indeed should be) prepared only in small batches. You can make a few jars in an evening or whenever you have some spare moments, and you need little more equipment than your kitchen probably already has. Here is a wide-ranging, home-tested collection of recipes for jellies, jams, marmalades, conserves, fruit preserves, butters, relishes, and pickles. Many come from friends, many from our own family files. They will provide you, we trust, with a splendid assortment of unusual and appetite-teasing adornments for your table.--Foreword.
