Take It Personally Paul Chappell, 2016-05-23 When Jesus gave the Great Commission?to go to the world with the gospel?He didn't give it as a theoretical possibility for anyone who might be interested. He gave it as a direct command?a personal commission to those He would leave to carry the gospel message as He ascended to Heaven. This Great Commission is not only God's plan to reach the world, but it is His command to every Christian to personally share the gospel with the lost. Indeed, most Christians want to share their faith, but many wonder how. How do you initiate a gospel conversation? How do you share the gospel itself? How do you lead someone to a decision to trust Christ? And how do you explain baptism to a new Christian or lead them toward spiritual maturity?In this practical manual, learn how to share the gospel, how to follow up on new Christians, how to cultivate relationships with people not yet saved, and how to involve young Christians in growth and gospel witness.Take It Personally will encourage and equip you to own the Great Commission as your personal responsibility and to obey it as you share the life-changing message of the gospel.

Out of Commission Paul Chappell, 2014-05-27 Is Christ's last command your first priority? Out of Commission is a call for every Christian to reengage in reaching the lost through focused soulwinning and fervent discipleship. You'd be hard pressed to meet a dedicated Christian who doesn't say the greatest work on Earth is evangelization. But, while all of us give lip service to evangelizing and discipling, the effect of our labor seems woefully behind. Somewhere there is a disconnect between the priorities we claim and the actions we practice. Something is broken--or maybe just out of commission. This book is an invitation to look under the hood--to examine why we don't witness for Christ as we should, why our local churches are neglecting soulwinning and discipleship, and how we can get back to making Christ's last command our first priority. Written for every Christian who desires to obey the Great Commission of Christ, this comprehensive volume is motivational and practical, diagnostic and corrective. Whether you are new to evangelism or an experienced soulwinner, Out of Commission will challenge and equip you to share your faith and more effectively reach your community for Christ.

The Road Ahead Paul Chappell, 2013-06-10 The ministry is a journey. A journey of faith. A journey of grace. A journey of balance. But too often it has been marked by carnal divisions, unbalanced practices, and graceless relationships. How do we get back on track? What are the steps to authentic ministry that exalts Christ, fulfills the Great Commission, and is directed by servant leaders? Written for independent Baptists who are intent on pressing toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus, The Road Ahead lays out ten steps to authentic ministry--ministry directed by faith, grace, and truth. If you are a biblical Baptist who cherishes truth, cares about revival, and is concerned for the testimony of Christ, this book is for you. Although we serve in challenging days, the road ahead will be blessed if we make Jesus our target, seek God's face, and are willing to make mid-course adjustments on the journey.
