

Our Lady Of Kibeho Messages

Narcisio Bagumisiriza

Our Lady of KIBEHO Immaculée Ilibagiza, 2008-11-28 “No matter what your race, religion, political affiliation, or personal belief system, you will be inspired by Our Lady of Kibeho—a true story of the power of faith and the great potential of forgiveness.”— John Fund, columnist for The Wall Street Journal Thirteen years before the bloody 1994 genocide that swept across Rwanda and left more than a million people dead, the Virgin Mary and Jesus Christ appeared to eight young people in the remote village of Kibeho. Through these visionaries, Mary and Jesus warned of the looming holocaust, which they assured could be averted if Rwandans opened their hearts to God and embraced His love. Much like what happened at similar sites such as Fátima and Lourdes, the messengers of Kibeho were at first mocked and disbelieved. But as miracle after miracle occurred in the tiny village, tens of thousands of Rwandans journeyed to Kibeho to behold the apparitions. For years, countless onlookers watched as the Mother and Son of God spoke through the eight seers about God’s love, sending messages that they insisted were meant not only for Rwandans, but for the entire world, to hear. Mary also sent messages to government and church leaders to instruct them how to end the ethnic hatred simmering in their country. She warned them that Rwanda would become “a river of blood” —a land of unspeakable carnage —if the hatred of the people was not quickly quelled by love. Some leaders listened, but very few believed: the prophetic and apocalyptic warnings tragically came true during 100 horrifying days of savage bloodletting and mass murder. After the genocide, and two decades of rigorous investigation, Our Lady of Kibeho became the first and only Vatican-approved Marian (that is, related to the Virgin Mary) site in all of Africa. But the story still remains largely unknown. Now, Immaculée Ilibagiza plans to change all that. She made many pilgrimages to Kibeho both before and after the holocaust, personally witnessed true miracles, and spoke with a number of the visionaries themselves. What she’s discovered will deeply touch your heart.

The African Lourdes Anna Garavitt, 2025-05-27 What if the Virgin Mary had a message just for you... whispered not in a grand cathedral, but on a quiet hill in Africa? In The African Lourdes: Our Lady of Kibeho and Her Messages to the World, Sister Anna Garavitt takes you into the heart of one of the most profound and lesser-known Marian apparitions of our time. Approved by the Catholic Church and still unfolding in the hearts of thousands, the story of Kibeho is a divine wake-up call—urgent, tender, and deeply personal. From 1981 to 1989, the Virgin Mary appeared to young students in a remote Rwandan village. She came barefoot, weeping for the world, warning of suffering, calling for prayer, penance, and a return to love.

Years later, her prophetic message would unfold with haunting accuracy in the Rwandan genocide. Yet her voice remains a beacon-not of fear, but of hope. This book is more than a historical account-it's a spiritual companion. With luminous storytelling, heartfelt prayers, and powerful testimonies, Sister Anna invites you to: Discover the true story behind the Church-approved apparitions of Kibeho Learn the Virgin's messages for the modern world Pray the Rosary of the Seven Sorrows with renewed meaning Find healing, peace, and a deeper intimacy with Mary Whether you are a lifelong devotee or just beginning to explore Marian spirituality, this book will stir your soul. It is for the brokenhearted, the searching, the believers and the doubters. It is for you. If heaven still speaks... will you take the time to listen?

Our Lady of Unity Romeo C. Deiparine, 2025-07-08 In the history of mankind, we are instinctively drawn to religion which is indicative of God's real presence in our lives. Thus, in every country and places on earth, all kinds of religion or faith are being practiced. In the place called the Holy Land, three prominent religions of Islam, Christianity and the Jewish faith became true witnesses of the real existence of God. It was God chosen people, the Jewish race that God revealed Himself, and they shared to us their God who created us all. The God of Noah, Abraham, Moses, Isaac and Jacob is the One and Only true God became the centerpiece of mankind's religion. Abraham of the Jewish descend, was chosen by God to become father of many nations of which the Islamic and the Christian faith came to existence. The great prophet of Israel, Moses, recorded the history of God with his writings on the Old Testament, the Five Books of Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy. The Jewish faithful revered the teachings of the Torah and we can see them doing their religious ritual at the Wailing Wall, their most revered sacred site in Jerusalem. Also, in Jerusalem, the Islamic faith had their famous shrine, the Dome of the Rock, while the Christian faith had many revered religious site where the Son of God and Man revealed and renewed religion to the fullness of the truth. The long awaited Messiah, the Savior of mankind became the central Figure of the New Testament where He showed us the way, the truth and the life. In Jerusalem, the holy city, millions of Christians made pilgrimage to the most revered most sacred site, The Church of Holy Sepulchre, the place where the Son of God and Man died, was buried and rose from the dead. Theologians who seriously studied the Old and New Testament and comparing one to each other can easily conclude that the Christian religion is far more superior than the Jewish and Moslem religion by simply comparing their founder or their spiritual leader. In the Jewish faith, the faithful are formed through the Mosaic Laws written by their spiritual leader, Moses, the great prophet of Israel. The Moslem religion was founded by their prophet Mohammed, but the Christian religion was founded by the Son of God and Man, Jesus Christ. Analytically, Moses and Mohammed though they were chosen to be prophets of God, could never saved their flock for the simple reason that they do not the way, the truth and the life. While the Son of God and Man was sent by God, the Father so to redeem and restore us back to Him. The book reveals that God sent His only Begotten Son not only to redeem and save us but most importantly, to established the Catholic Church as the new ark so mankind will be saved from eternal death. The central figure of this book is the Great Lady of God, the Great Lady of our race, a lowly creature like us chosen as the most worthy bride of God (Holy Spirit) which eternally sealed the union of God (Spirit) and mankind (flesh). Once the union was consummated by the birth of the Son of God and Man, mankind was made worthy to enter the kingdom of Heaven prepared by the Risen Lord. To conclude, without Mary's yes, mankind can never be saved. And as Mother of God, Mother of the Church, Mother of Salvation, this Great Lady of God will be the one who will unite all religion into her Son under the Patronage of Our Lady of Unity.

The Fatima Prophecies Thomas W. Petrisko, 2011-05-28 I was . . . overwhelmed and reinvigorated by this fantastic journal and the emerging revelations about our Heavenly Father. With this historical book, Mary's armies now have a most timely and powerful weapon for evangelization as the Triumph of her Immaculate Heart approaches. -- Bud MacFarlane Sr., M.I., World-renowned expert on apparitions and mystical phenomena, Afterglow, NJ Once more Thomas Petrisko presents us with an array of prophecies that indicate the tumult of our time and the hidden role of the Virgin. -- Michael Brown, author, The Final Hour and The Last Secret, Latham, NY Panoramic in scope and profound in content, this work shows how all the major Marian apparitions point like compass needles to Fatima as their goal and crown. -- Fr. Richard Foley, S.J., author and EWTN commentator, London, England

Mary, Mary?...Quite Contrary! Pastor Jeffrey Daly, 2025-11-02 This was written to honor Real Mary. After Yeshua, our first love, Real Mary is part of the inspiration for this book. She is depicted in several shadow types in scripture as Miriam, the sister of the Deliverer; Mary the virgin, the mother of the Messiah; Mary of Bethany, the friend to the Friend that sticks closer than a brother; and Mary Magdalene, a type and shadow of the bride of Christ. Real Mary-she is a sister, a mother, a friend, a betrothed, and along with the remaining living stones of the final-century church, she is the future bride of Christ. Thank you Mary, the Real Mary. Get her for me, for she pleaseth Me well. -Judges 14:3b (JPS Tanakh version)

Our Lady of Emmitsburg, Visionary Culture, and Catholic Identity Jill Krebs, 2015-12-30 This ethnography explores the community of believers in a series of Marian apparitions in rural Emmitsburg, Maryland, asking what it means to call oneself a Catholic and child of Our Lady in this context, what it means to believe in an apparition, and what it means to communicate with divine presence on earth. Believers fashion themselves as devotees of Our Lady in several ways. Through autobiography, they look backward in time to see their lives as leading up to their participation in the prayer group or in some cases moving to Emmitsburg. By observing and telling miracle stories, they adopt an enchanted worldview in which the miraculous becomes everyday. Through relationships with Our Lady, their lives are enriched and even transformed. When they negotiate institutional loyalty and individual autonomy, they affirm their own authority and Catholic identity. Finally, through social media, they expand their devotional networks in ways that shift authority structures and empower individuals. Individuals engage beliefs, practices, and attitudes both arising from and resisting elements of modernity, religious pluralism and religious decline, empowerment and perceived disempowerment, tradition and innovation, and institutional loyalty and perceived disloyalty to reveal one way of understanding Catholic identity amidst the shifts and flows of modern change.

America's Mary Marge Steinhage Fenelon, 2022-05-16 Our Lady's appearances to young Bernadette Soubirous in Lourdes, France, in 1858 are well known and well documented. Just one year later, a lesser-known but still important Marian apparition took place in an American frontier settlement. Based on historical documents, testimonies, personal interviews, and expert analysis, America's Mary: The Story of Our Lady of Good Help chronicles for the first time the United States' only Church-approved Marian apparition. In 1859 on the Door County Peninsula of northeast Wisconsin, Mary appeared three times to a young Belgian woman named Adele Brise. She identified herself as the Queen of Heaven and gave Adele instructions to teach the children their catechism, pray, do penance, sacrifice, and receive the sacraments frequently. Adele was initially met with skepticism, and during her lifetime she experienced many trials, including persecution. Still, she maintained that she was telling the truth and courageously carried on the mission the Blessed Mother had given to her. Although the local community accepted Adele's story as real, and popular piety built up around Mary's appearances and messages, it was more than 100 years before the Church conducted a thorough investigation. In 2010, the apparition was approved. Since then, thousands of pilgrims each year have visited the National Shrine of Our Lady of Good Help in Champion, WI, seeking the Queen of Heaven's intercession for peace, healing, and help.

Apparitions of Kibeho Gilbert Biziyaremye, 2021-02-24 The Blessed Virgin Mary appeared at Kibeho in Rwanda from 28 November 1981 to 28 November 1989. In her message, she pointed out the ill-state of the world in rebellion against God. As such, humanity was heading towards its self-destruction. It was on the verge of falling into an abyss, and dragged by the Evil one, it was heading into continuous disobedience against God's commands. As a remedy for that wretchedness of the world, she made an urgent appeal to an unwavering faith, repentance, conversion and prayer. This book briefly recounts the events of the apparitions of Kibeho, their message and their functions in the Church today. It answers questions such as: Why did Our Lady appear at Kibeho? What did she say? What did she expect from people? How did the Church receive her appeal? And what is the relevance of her message for our daily Christian life? At the end of her apparitions, she declared: My children, I am going to leave you. I love you. I love you. I love you so much. But woe to those who will be indifferent to the love I expressed to you and promise you! Would you not positively respond to such a motherly pleading love?

Genocide in Rwanda Carol Rittner,John K. Roth,Wendy Whitworth,2004-08-23 In 1994, genocide put Rwanda on the map for most of the world. It also exposed one of the most shameful scandals of the Rwandan churches-the complicity of the Christian churches in the genocide. Rwanda is the most Christian country in Africa. More than 90% of its people are baptized Christians, with the Roman Catholic and Anglican Churches having the greatest number of adherents. According to Archbishop Desmond Tutu: The story of Rwanda shows both sides of our humanity. The churches were sometimes quite superb in what they did in the face of intimidation and at great cost to themselves. But there were other times when 'they' failed dismally and seemed to be implicated in ways that have left many disillusioned, disgruntled and angry. Genocide In Rwanda provides a variety of perspectives through which to assess the complex questions and issues surrounding the topic, and, even raise some new questions that could provide some new insight into this historical event. They are questions we must ask - otherwise, how can the Church begin to make moral restitution, change structures and behaviors, and once again reveal the human face of God in our fragile world?

Medjugorje Day by Day Richard J. Beyer,1996 For the millions of people who have visited Medjugorje or have found inspiration in the events there, Medjugorje Day by Day offers a unique and beautiful experience-a program of daily meditations on the messages of Our Lady and the words of sacred scripture. This faith-filled year of inspiring reflections and Bible passages provides the perfect way to put Our Lady's words into practice.

If Only We Had Listened Immaculée Ilibagiza,2009

Was Mary There? Marc De Souza,1998

The Boy Who Met Jesus Immaculée Ilibagiza,2012-11-28 It's the greatest story never told: that of a boy who met Jesus and dared to ask Him all the questions that have consumed mankind since the dawn of time. His name was Segatashya. He was a shepherd born into a penniless and illiterate pagan family in the most remote region of Rwanda. He never attended school, never saw a bible, and never set foot in a church. Then one summer day in 1982 while the 15-year-old was resting beneath a shade tree, Jesus Christ paid him a visit. Jesus asked the startled young man if he'd be willing to go on a mission to remind mankind how to live a life that leads to heaven. Segatashya accepted the assignment on one condition: that Jesus answer all his questions-and all the questions of those he met on his travels-about faith, religion, the purpose of life, and the nature of heaven and hell. Jesus agreed to the boy's terms, and Segatashya set off on what would become one of the most miraculous journeys in modern history. Although he was often accused of being a charlatan and beaten as a result, Segatashya's innocent heart and powerful spiritual wisdom quickly won over even the most cynical of critics. Soon, this teenage boy who had never learned to read or write was discussing theology with leading biblical scholars and advising pastors and priests of all denominations. He became so famous in Rwanda that the Catholic Church investigated his story. The doctors and psychiatrists who examined Segatashya all agreed that they were witnessing a miracle. His words and simple truths converted thousands of hearts and souls wherever he went. Before his death during the 1994 Rwandan genocide, Segatashya continued his travels and conversations with Jesus for eight years, asking Him what we all want to know: · Why were we created? · Why must we suffer? · Why do bad things happen to good people? · When will the world end? · Is there life after death? · How do we get to Heaven? The answers to these and many other momentous, life-changing questions are revealed in this riveting book, which is the first full account of Segatashya's remarkable life story. Written with grace, passion, and loving humor by Immaculée Ilibagiza, Segatashya's close friend and a survivor of the Rwandan holocaust herself, this truly inspirational work is certain to move you in profound ways. No matter what your faith or religious beliefs, Segatashya's words will bring you comfort and joy, and prepare your heart for this life . . . and for life everlasting.
