Cars I Loved and Lost John Reddie,2011-09-12 John Reddie was just twelve years old when his mother bought him his first car. It was a 1935 Plymouth rumble-seat coupe and cost just $15. This was the beginning of his lifelong love of and fascination with vintage American cars. In this memoir, Reddie gives a glimpse of his life as he reflects on all of the cars he owned and all of the cars he could have owned. From the misadventures to the successes, Cars I Loved and Lost narrates a trip down memory lane from the first car that actually ran to the first car he actually drove. With a few repair tips included, Reddie's story recalls fond memories through the lens of the automobile. Apparently I am not alone in my fondness for these gems. People invest considerable time and money into these cars, and why? Well, maybe they share my appreciation for them, in other words; they too grew up with these automobiles. They remind us of a different time, back when we were younger and carefree, when our biggest worry was having enough gasoline to get around for a day or so, even though it cost twenty five cents a gallon.

LOVED AND LOST Collin R. Skocik,2019-12-25 He is a macho space fighter pilot with a Shakespeare obsession. She is an exotic alien from an incomprehensible hyperspatial world. Their love is forbidden. Their worlds stand on the brink of war. But they will allow nothing to stand between them, no matter the consequences-even the rending of time itself. Butch McCrae will sacrifice everything-his career, his freedom, his friendships, even his very existence-for the lovely Ophelia. And she will tear space and time apart and rearrange reality to save her beloved Butch. The galaxy will never be the same again...or will it?

Jan's Rainbow; Stories of Hope; How Those We Have Loved and Lost Stay in Touch Lindsay Collier,2002-06-05 It was just one day after Lindsay Collier's wife of forty years, Jan, lost her battle with ovarian cancer that a beautiful rainbow surrounded their home in upstate New York where family members were gathered to celebrate her life. Since that time there have been many amazing experiences that have provided some very compelling proof that Jan is not very far away. And Lindsay, a former engineer (engineers always need proof), is not one who is prone to fantasy which makes these occurrences all the more believable. He also tells about some other rather amazing experiences that he and his family have had following losses of other loved ones. These stories alone will make a believer out of you. But there is much more! Lindsay also found that, as he related these stories to friends and associates, he would often find that they would frequently offer their own stories about how lost loved ones had made contact with them. The stories were amazing and revolved around everything from dragonflies to birds to lights and clocks changing to things appearing out of nowhere. There are more than twenty-five of these included in the book, all of which will leave you feeling very good - and a little less lonely for those you have lost. Lindsay made a commitment to learn as much as he could from his loss and to help others to find ways to survive their loss. He has spoken to a number of bereavement groups about how to survive loss and shares these insights in Jan's Rainbow. His suggestions and ideas on dealing with loss come from true experience. Before taking early retirement, Lindsay was the Creative Thinking Guru for Kodak so his ideas tend to be different. As he says, Losing a loved one is a life-changing experience and it requires some very creative thinking to get through it. There are some wonderful, and very different, tips for dealing with loss included that will ease the journey through the bereavement process. Included are ways to re-frame your thinking, how to use positive humor in your healing, and the use of metaphors to expand your thinking or finding innovative ways to survive, and much, much more. This book is a must for anyone who has lost a loved one or knows of someone who has. It is the ultimate feel good book for helping people to deal with losing a loved one. You'll cry, you'll laugh, and you'll be lifted to a new level of hope. A substantial portion of the proceeds of this book will be donated to Gilda's Club of Rochester (New York), an organization built in memory of Gilda Radner which provides help to women with cancer.

Loved and Lost: A Deadly Secret Bertha M. Clay, "How on earth did you get up there?" And the speaker put his glass in his eye, and coolly surveyed the dainty figure perched on one of the branches of the huge elm, under which he was standing. "That is the last place I expected to find you." "I suppose so," she answered composedly; for Lady Gwendolyn was never flustered or ill at ease under the most trying circumstances. "The fact is, I have had an unpleasant adventure." "Indeed; I am very sorry. But hadn't you better let me help you down before we talk it over; unless you like your quarters so well that you are inclined to stay there, and, in that case, I will join you." "Nonsense, Colonel Dacre!" but she laughed, too. "What would Mrs. Grundy say to such an extraordinary tête-à-tête?" "She would say that it had the merit of novelty; and, considering how tired one is of everything that has happened, and how bored at the thought of prospective repetitions, I consider that any one who strikes out a new line for himself, and refuses to lag along in the old groove, deserves to be canonized." "Well, it is very nice when people will be a little original, certainly; but I am not sure that a woman dare get out of the old groove. Moreover, you men like pretty nonentities." "The deuce we do!" exclaimed Colonel Dacre. "Who told you that?" "Nobody. One does not need telling things when one has eyes and ears. I have seen you dance as often as four times in one evening with Mrs. O'Hara."
