More Precious Than Silver reveals surpassing wealth in the subtle things we overlook as we chase life's golden glitter. This year's worth of wise, insightful devotions will show you why nothing can compare to the riches of a heart that's known the silver touch of God's Word. Includes photos and illustrations by Joni.

The Tree of Faces Jack Bearce, 2018-03-14 Barkerton, Massachusetts, 1650, three children and a woman went missing, and the inhabitants of Barkerton were in panic. Was it a witch, a friend, or some kind of monster that had taken them? Even more disappearance had happened several times in the past, but no one had wanted to talk about it until now. This time, it was the Barker family, and this town had been settled by them nearly thirty years ago. A search party was sent out into the forest to find them, but there were no bodies to be found, only a hideous man with an evil disposition. There would be a trial. In present day, the Carrier family-Jonathan, Sarah, and their two boys-move into their new country home, where they begin seeing visions of a ghost, a singing chandelier, and a strange man who is trying to lure the boys into the woods. The boys eventually go missing, and Jonathan must get them back safely. The older of the two boys, Thomas, shocked his parents when his face is seen in the bark of the mysterious sycamore tree. In 1616, in the village of Wampanoag Indians, terrible times have cursed the village with yellow fever, drought, and famine. Nitchicke, the village spiritual adviser (taupaw), is tasked to find a solution. He and twelve other taupaw search the forest for a place to convene with the spirits. On the night of the full moon, a silver tear is shed by the moon, and it lands in Nitchicke's lap. He must carry this moonstone to the ancient burial ground, where it will capture the spirits of the dead and remove the curse on his village. The journey costs him his life. He was buried beneath a sycamore tree. It was said that his face could be seen in the bark.

Words For Worship Arlene M. Mark, 1996-01-12 This collection is a ready resource for pastors and leaders to enrich and deepen worship together. Certain emphases, while churchwide in nature, clearly represent Anabaptist heritage: community, peace and justice, reconciliation, service and obedience, along with themes of adoration, atonement, and assurance. Responsive readings come from all ages of the church—our common Christian legacy. Some focus on specific times of the church year; others are for general use. All can serve to build up the faithful Christian community. As God speaks through these words, the Spirit changes and energizes worshipers.

Musings on Doctrine John C' de Baca, 2014-03 Have you ever wondered about the security of salvation--your own or perhaps that of someone you know? Do you sometimes worry about not going to hell? and what about babies? Do they get a free pass to Heaven? and where did evil come from, anyway? Why? Is Eve really to blame for all the world's troubles? Do the Ten Commandments apply to everyone? In marriage, do wives really have to be in subjection to their husbands? and are you concerned about how this world is headed? What does the Bible really say about events like the rapture, the great tribulation, the mark of the beast, the abomination of desolation, and those other scary things? There's no need to wonder any longer. Here are the answers and more from God's Word, easy to understand but profound and right on target. But be aware that some of your long-held beliefs will be thrown rudely to the ground. the author tells it like it is, not like what you thought it was. If you are sincere about finding the truth, it will help you find it. If you can't handle the truth, it may anger and frustrate you. Either way, you won't ever be the same.

web mar 26 2022 so laser machining is a thermal material removal process that uses a coherent beam of light to machine the workpiece very precisely in the laser machining process mrr material removal rate depends on the wavelength used because it will decide the amount of energy impinged on it
