Mike Thacker, Sebastian Bianchi

Cuentos latinoamericanos ,1999

A Companion to Latin American Literature Stephen M. Hart, 2007 The evolution of Latin American literature. A Companion to Latin American Literature offers a lively and informative introduction to the most significant literary works produced in Latin America from the fifteenth century until the present day. It shows how the press, and its product the printed word, functioned as the common denominator binding together, in different ways over time, the complex and variable relationship between the writer, the reader and the state. The meandering story of the evolution of Latin American literature - from the letters of discovery written by Christopher Columbus and Vaz de Caminha, via the Republican era at the end of the nineteenth century when writers in Rio de Janeiro as much as in Buenos Aires were beginning to live off their pens as journalists and serial novelists, until the 1960s when writers of the quality of Clarice Lispector in Brazil and García Márquez in Colombia suddenly burst onto the world stage- is traced chronologically in six chapters which introduce the main writers in the main genres of poetry, prose, the novel, drama, and the essay. A final chapter evaluates the post-boom novel, testimonio, Latino and Brazyuca literature, gay, Afro-Hispanic and Afro-Brazilian literature, along with the Novel of the New Millennium. This study also offers suggestions for further reading. STEPHEN M. HART is Professor of Hispanic Studies, University College London, and Profesor Honorario, Universidad de San Marcos, Lima.

Mexican Literature David William Foster, 1994-01-01 Mexico has a rich literary heritage that extends back over centuries to the Aztec and Mayan civilizations. This major new reference work surveys more than five hundred years of Mexican literature from a sociocultural perspective. More than merely a catalog of names and titles, it examines in detail the literary phenomena that constitute Mexico's most significant and original contributions to literature. Recognizing that no one scholar can authoritatively cover so much territory, David William Foster has assembled a group of specialists, some of them younger scholars who write from the most current and emerging trends in Latin American and Mexican literary scholarship. The topics they discuss include pre-Columbian indigenous writing (Joanna O'Connell), Colonial literature (Lee H. Dowling), Romanticism (Margarita Vargas), nineteenth-century prose fiction (Mario Martin Flores), Modernism (Bart L. Lewis), major twentieth-century genres (narrative, Lanin A. Gyurko; poetry, Adriana Garcia; theater, Kirsten F. Nigro), the essay (Martin S. Stabb), literary criticism (Daniel Altamiranda), and literary journals (Luis Pena). Each essay offers detailed analysis of significant issues and major texts and includes an annotated bibliography of important critical sources and reference works.

La ficción de la memoria Federico Campbell, 2003 Antología que recoge investigaciones, ensayos, testimonios y entrevistas sobre la obra literaria de Juan Rulfo. El orden de su secuencia es cronológico porque quiere hacer ver cuál ha sido la evolución crítica a lo largo de los años, desde los primeros trabajos de Carlos Blanco Aguinaga (1955), Mariana Frenk (1961), hasta los de Juan Villoro (2000) y Jorge Aguilar Mora (2001): las diferentes lecturas de una generación a otra. Asimismo los testimonios se presentan -de Gabriel García Márquez (1980) y Jorge Luis Borges (1985) a Juan José Arreola (1994) y Jorge Volpi (2000)- según se fueron dando en el tiempo a partir del momento en que aparecieron {El llano en llamas}, en 1953, y {Pedro Páramo}, la única, magistral novela de Rulfo.

The Craft of Translation John Biguenet, Rainer Schulte, 1989-08-15 These essays offer insights into the understanding and craft of translation. The contributors not only describe the complexity of translating literature but also suggest the implications of the act of translation for critics, scholars, teachers, and students. The demands of translation, according to these writers, require both comprehensive scholarship in preparing to translate a text and broad creativity in recreating the text in a new language. Translation, thus, becomes a model for the most exacting reading and the most serious scholarship. Some of the contributors lay bare the rigorous methods of literary translation in comparisons of various translations of the same piece some discuss the problems of translating a specific passage others speak about the lessons learned over the course of a career in translation. As these essays make clear, translators work in the space between languages and, in so doing, provide insights into the ways in which a culture makes the world verbal. --From publisher's description.

Los nombres en El Llano en llamas. Primeras menciones y otros recursos onomásticos Alberto Vital, 2025-01-23

El estudio de los nombres propios en textos creativos sigue siendo un campo de amplísimas posibilidades, apenas exploradas entre nosotros. El volumen Manual de onomástica de la literatura, aparecido en 2017 en prensas de la Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México, ofrece una primera introducción en lengua española al asunto de las diversas implicaciones del uso de un determinado apelativo para un espacio geográfico (toponimia) y para una persona (antroponimia) en cuentos, novelas, piezas teatrales, poemas e incluso cine y televisión y otros ámbitos donde la ficción encuentre curso.

Acculturating Age: Approaches to Cultural Gerontology Brian J. Worsfold, 2011 Acculturating refers to the interchange of patterns of behaviour, perceptions and ideas between groups of individuals who have different cultural backgrounds. This book, which is the result of collaboration between specialists from different disciplines from around the world, allows the comparison of systems of dependency, mediation skills, empathy and social understanding and cultural attitudes towards people who experience the stages of aging.

Literatura Hispanoamericana David W. Foster, 2014-05-22 This Spanish-language anthology contains selections by 45 Latin-American authors. It is intended as a text for upper division Latin American literature survey courses. The anthology presumes a high level of linguistic command of Spanish, and it contains footnotes to allusions and cultural references, as well as words and phrases not found in standard bilingual dictionaries used in the US. Emphasis is on major 20th-century writers, while important works from colonial and 19th-century literature are also included. The diverse selections of Literatura Hispanoamericana will enable students to have a more sustained exposure to major voices of Latin American literature than possible in anthologies built around fragments. By focusing on fewer authors but more significant selections from their writings, students will have a greater grasp of major canonical figures as well as emergent voices.

Juan Rulfo Luis Leal, 1983 Juan Rulfo has published only three slender volumes of fiction, yet his name has become well known throughout the literary world. The fact that his works capture the very essence of Mexico, its geography, its people, may explain his popularity. My purpose here is to present as complete a study of Rulfo's life and works as possible.
