Best I Never Had Jeannie Choe, 2022-06-23 Senior year of high school seems like an entire lifetime ago when you're an adult adjusting to real-life responsibilities and real-life heartbreak. When Hayden Marshall and Natalia Marquez run into each other on the busy streets of New York City, hundreds of miles away from their hometown and years after their high school graduation, it seems kismet is more common than either one of them thought. While Natalia is going through the ups and downs of a post-breakup slump, Hayden has his own set of personal woes that bring the two to one single-minded conclusion: they are lonely. But when they strike up a deal to ease those bouts of loneliness, old feelings start to resurface. Feelings that were kept hidden during the small moments in a crowded classroom and glimpses in school hallways. Feelings that start to burst at the seams when all of the tricky emotions begin to intertwine within their complicated lives and rekindled friendship. But when they slowly learn what's at stake, neither Natalia or Hayden knows if it's worth the risk. To lose a friendship they didn't realize they couldn't live without or to take a chance on something great.

Best I Never Had Jeannie Choe, 2025-02-04 Sometimes, the one who got away is closer than you think. Natalia Marquez thought she'd left her high school memories behind-awkward lab partners, football jocks, and the lingering sting of unspoken feelings. Eight years later, she's navigating life in New York City, mending a broken heart and trying to find purpose in a job she doesn't love. The last thing she expects is to run into Hayden Marshall, the boy who made AP Biology unexpectedly thrilling. Once the school's star athlete, Hayden has traded touchdowns for chef whites, carving out a life in the culinary world. But his move to the city isn't just about career aspirations-it's about starting over. When fate reunites Natalia and Hayden, the connection they once shared sparks anew. As their friendship deepens, so do the unspoken truths they left behind. Can they reconcile who they were with who they've become? And will revisiting the past risk their fragile present-or unlock a future that could be the best they've ever had?

No Place Like You JEANNIE. CHOE, 2025-04 Falling for him once was a risk. Falling for him again might break her. Lucy Marquez has always done what's expected-steady jobs, quiet sacrifices, and a selfless smile. But when an internship at a prestigious New York photography agency offers her a chance to pursue her dreams, she takes the leap, keeping one small secret: her family has no idea she's in the city. Dexter Greer is comfortable in his Brooklyn bubble-a stable life, low-key nights, and an apartment he's finally settled into. But when Lucy, the woman who walked out of his life three years ago, turns up in his orbit, it's anything but simple. Thrown together in the city that never sleeps, their chemistry reignites, blurring the lines between unfinished business and undeniable attraction. But with Lucy hiding her true purpose and Dexter guarding his heart, they'll have to decide if love is worth the risk-especially when there's no place like them.
