Big Data Marketing Strategies for Superior Customer Experience Saura, Jose Ramon,2023-04-17 The rapid growth of technological developments on the internet has led many companies to adapt their businesses to the digital ecosystem and implement new methods and techniques to improve the users' experiences and their analytical strategies. Moreover, in the past few years, the digital ecosystem has been chosen as the main channel used by consumers for the purchase of goods and services. As a result, digital marketing and online advertising have become the main strategies used by companies in their marketing actions. Advertising can be designed and shown considering users' interests based on what they visit or where they go. That implies that the user experience is improved as long as they receive personalized adverts focused on what they were curious or concerned about. Thus, techniques such as artificial intelligence (AI), data mining, or business intelligence have allowed companies to act accordingly in real-time without user perception. Big Data Marketing Strategies for Superior Customer Experience compiles and studies the major practices and case studies of big data marketing in recent years. In this digital era, this book can be used as a sourcebook on study cases focused on digital marketing strategies as well as the identification of new technologies that will help the development of initiatives and practices focused on marketing and data sciences. Covering topics such as customer satisfaction, collective intelligence, and sentiment analysis, this premier reference source is an essential resource for students and educators of higher education, marketers, innovators, business leaders and managers, entrepreneurs, librarians, researchers, and academicians.

Translating and Interpreting Conflict, 2007-01-01 The relationship between translation and conflict is highly relevant in today's globalised and fragmented world, and this is attracting increased academic interest. This collection of essays was inspired by the first international conference to directly address the translator and interpreter's involvement in situations of military and ideological conflict, and its representation in fiction. The collection adopts an interdisciplinary approach, and the contributors to the volume bring to bear a variety of perspectives informed by media studies, historiography, literary scholarship and self-reflective interpreting and translation practice. The reader is presented with compelling case studies of the 'embeddedness' of translators and interpreters, either on the ground or as portrayed in fiction, and of their roles in mediating, memorizing or rewriting conflict. The theoretical reflection which the essays generate regarding mediation and neutrality, ethical involvement and responsibility, and the implications for translator and interpreter training, will be of interest to researchers in translation, interpreting, media, intercultural and postcolonial studies.

Desde la trinchera Eduard Farran Teixidó, 2017-04-15 Parir ideas. Esta es la esencia de la publicidad. Ideas que seduzcan y que funcionen. Da igual si hablamos de publicidad de toda la vida, la nueva publicidad o de publicidad en línea o en redes sociales. Pero ¿de dónde vienen las ideas? ¿Todo el mundo puede ser creativo? ¿Qué podemos hacer para estimular el nacimiento de las ideas? ¿Cuál es la buena? ¿Cómo se lo montan los profesionales? ¿Cómo se vende una idea? ¿Cómo se defiende? ¿Qué y quién hay en el día a día de una agenciade publicidad? ¿Cómo trabajan los creativos? ¿Está cambiando tanto la publicidad? Detrás de la creatividad publicitaria hay muchas preguntas y unas cuantas más que no he escrito. Yo he intentado contestarlas una a una de la única manera que creo convincente: desde la experiencia. Desde el día a día de quien trabaja en el sector y ha probado diferentes mercados: internacionales, nacionales y locales. Desde el fuego cruzado diario, que es lo que verdaderamente atrae a quien empieza en esta profesión. La adrenalina de tener una idea, defenderla, venderla y llevarla a buen puerto. O sea, desde la trinchera.

La magia del planning. Cómo utilizar la planificación estratégica para potenciar la eficacia de la comunicación Álvarez Ruiz, Antón, 2019-04-24 Este libro explica cómo es el planning y cómo aplicar sus técnicas, que permiten traducir los datos del mercado a ideas estratégicas. Y también dotar a la comunicación de un nivel de profundidad antes desconocido, cultivando una relación emocional con el consumidor. El autor aprovecha su dilatada experiencia en el mundo de la publicidad, su temprana relación con las técnicas del planning y su trabajo como profesor de esta materia, para ofrecer una obra accesible, completa y rigurosa. Todos los temas van acompañados de ejemplos y casos prácticos. Y se incluye un capítulo específico que explica cómo trabajar con los insights. Esta nueva versión, actualizada y ampliada, incorpora tres capítulos adicionales escritos por planners reconocidos. Enormemente útil para publicitarios, especialistas en comunicación y profesionales del marketing, este libro ha sido elegido en la Universidad Complutense y en escuelas de negocio y universidades de varios países como texto de referencia para la asignatura “Planificación Estratégica”.

La recepción de los discursos José Antonio Hernández Guerrero, 2003 En esta obra se incluyen los trabajos presentados y debatidos en la tercera edición del Seminario Emilio Castelar, en cuyo propósito se encontraba un acercamiento a las respuestas que sus discursos obtuvieron por parte de sus correligionarios, de sus adversarios políticos y de sus oyentes en general. Como podrá suponer, en los análisis de los textos se han aplicado los presupuestos, los principios y los criterios de la Teoría Literaria y de la Retórica actuales.
