European Perspectives on Innovation Management Rob Dekkers,Laure Morel,2023-12-30 This book covers European perspectives on innovation management, including new product and service development, due to the inherent variety of socio-economic perspectives and institutional settings in Europe. The numerous settings and differing perspectives explored in the chapters exemplify diversity, which ultimately leads to enhancing innovation. Understanding such unique approaches will enable companies, universities and other actors to more effectively create innovative products and services, and policy makers to effectively stimulate growth and innovation. The fragmented, distributed economies in Europe also put a strong focus on internationalisation, including innovation management, new product and service development, even within the internally open market of the European Economic Area. European Perspectives on Innovation Management will be of help to researchers, managers, entrepreneurs, practitioners and students working on innovation management and practices embedded in national and regional innovation systems, thus fostering a more innovative Europe.

Organisational Learning and Sustainability Mohammad Nabil Almunawar,Md Zahidul Islam,Patricia Ordóñez de Pablos,2025-11-04 Organisational Learning and Sustainability is a crucial resource that examines the development and significance of organisational learning. This edited volume features both theoretical and empirical chapters, along with case studies, offering a comprehensive analysis of how organisations can utilise learning to foster sustainable growth. By addressing the complexities and multifaceted aspects of sustainability challenges, the book introduces a new approach to managing organisational change and promoting collective learning. It presents a holistic perspective of organisational learning, from fundamental concepts to practical applications. The volume explores the connection between organisational learning and sustainability, providing insights into how organisations can embed economic, environmental, social and governance principles into their practices. Readers will benefit from detailed research, practical case studies and actionable guidance that illustrate the role of learning in navigating competitive pressures and technological advancements. This research volume also aligns with the United Nations Agenda 2030 Sustainable Development Goals, offering a framework for organisations to engage with these global objectives.

Business Strategies and Ethical Challenges in the Digital Ecosystem S. Asieh H. Tabaghdehi, Pantea Foroudi, 2024-11-18 Business Strategies and Ethical Challenges in the Digital Ecosystem acts as a forum for examining current and future trends related to management and technological adoption, from digital business strategy and industry 5.0, changing consumer behaviour and sustainability to marketing, ethics, data security, and much more.

The authors offer an authoritative approach on the fundamental concepts of management while recognizing the diverse needs of different operating environments. This edition features two new chapters - Managing Diversity and Career Development - and is kept up to current by material housed on the Web. Drawing from examples of successful leadership techniques from a variety of services - archives, information brokers, libraries, records managements and more, this book demonstrates the most effective ways to plan, delegate, make decisions, communicate, and lead a team. Equal emphasis is placed on personal, fiscal, and technological issues, as well as a look at what the future may hold for incoming managers. A practical, up-to-date introduction to library management, here is a text that will appeal to LIS educators, new and experienced libraries in management positions, students, and anyone wishing to acquire a sound knowledge of both the theory and practice of management within the changing information workforce.
