Sweet Obsession Callie Rose,2020 I saved his life. Now he's invaded mine. Two years ago, a split-second decision changed everything. I risked my life for a man I didn't even know and nearly died for it. I've tried to forget him. To forget that whole night. But he hasn't forgotten me. He's been watching. Obsessing. Craving. And when he crashes back into my life like a wrecking ball, accompanied by two dark shadows--men he calls his brothers--the life I've been trying to rebuild for myself shatters into a thousand sharp-edged pieces. He believes our souls are bound by blood, and he's come back to claim what's his. Two years ago, I saved Marcus Constantine's life. Now I wish I hadn't. This is the first book in the Ruthless Games series, a new adult reverse harem romance. It contains bully elements, sexual situations, violence, and dark subject matter.

Wicked Games We Play A. R. Rose,2022-10-20 Taunting him was a game I had become all too good at playing, although neither of us ended up being a winner when we played it. Our game was frustrating, heart-wrenching, and wicked, but one I couldn't force myself to walk away from. Noah Whitlock The one that got away and also the one I am hesitant to let back in. I fell hard and fast at seventeen, but circumstance kept us apart. Over the years, I caught glimpses of him around the city while he was patrolling on duty, looking impossibly gorgeous in his uniform. He'd ignore me and I'd ignore him until one of us caved and texted the other. It was always innocent... until it wasn't. I quickly learned that Noah was an easy man to rile up, and that I enjoyed the glint in his eye-the one that bordered on anger and lust. He was determined to play for keeps, and I was determined to just play. Wicked Games We Play is a standalone, second-chance romance and is book two in the Ridgewood Series. For the full experience, it's recommended to read Between the Flames prior to reading Wicked Games We Play.
