Summary of Hannah Hurnard's Hinds' Feet on High Places Everest Media,2022-07-24T22:59:00Z Please note: This is a companion version & not the original book. Sample Book Insights: #1 The interview with the Chief Shepherd went on for a long time, and when they finally did leave her, it was already late in the evening. She was terrified of being kidnapped and forced to marry her cousin Craven. The Shepherd offered to take her to the High Places, where no Fears could live. #2 The Shepherd told Much-Afraid that she would have to be changed before she could live on the High Places, but that he would help her develop hinds' feet. He also told her that she would have to receive a new name if she wanted to live in the Kingdom of Love, because no one was allowed to dwell there unless they had the flower of Love blooming in their hearts. #3 The Shepherd gave Much-Afraid the seed of Love, which was shaped like a long, sharply-pointed thorn. She was still afraid of pain, and she did not dare to love unless she were sure of being loved in return. #4 When the seed of Love in your heart is ready to bloom, you will be loved in return. However, you must remember that as soon as you reach the slopes of the mountains, there is a wonderful system of communication from end to end of the Kingdom of Love.

One Minute Hannah Hurnard, Hinds' Feet on High Places is one of the most successful works of Christian fiction. It is the story of a young woman named Much-Afraid and her journey away from her Fearing family into the High Places of the Shepherd. It is an allegory of the Christian life from salvation through maturity. It doesn't actually describe life in Heaven, but shows how the Christian is transformed from unbeliever to immature believer to mature believer, who walks daily with his/her Lord as easily on the High Places of Joy in the spirit as in the daily life of the mundane and often-times humiliating trials that tempt us to lose perspective of who we now are in Christ.

Re-Collecting My Shattered Heart Char Brademeyer, 2025-10-14 When Char held her youngest child, a son, Andrew Wesley, as a brand-new baby in the hospital, she never dreamed one day she would hold him in his death in a funeral home too. And so began her journey into the valley of deepest darkness as a mother, joining the club of child loss she never wanted to join and having to carry such a deep grief. This is her telling of that journey, having to walk this darkest road of loss she never wanted to walk. The road of grief. She shares her raw days of early grief, sinking yet clinging to her faith in God, believing with desperate hope that He is with her, and He loves her, which He has shown in Jesus, and His love would come and help her to breathe on and rise and walk on, even with the intense pain of a broken heart. This is a story of God helping her to find her way out of the collapse of grief, and to recollect the pieces of her shattered heart and life, though different, and see new life bloom out from death, and God breathe life again to be able to fully live on and love on and have joy even in the sorrow. In this fifth year, the raw pain of the early days of grief is behind her, but the realization is, she will carry grief all her days as she walks on, carrying the loss of her son, and she will always need the hope of God to travel on this road of loss. The hope that God is with her and His goodness and love will help her to walk on, and He will see her through whatever life may bring ahead until the day He makes all things new and wipes every tear from her eyes and death will be no more; neither will there be sorrow or anguish or crying or pain ever again. So, she walks on to that day when her faith becomes sight. Page | 2
