East Texas Nan's Favorite 1,000 Quotes on Inspiration, Wisdom, Humor, Texas & More Susan G. Davis, 2019-12-13 East

Texas Nan's Favorite 1,000 Quotes on Inspiration, Wisdom, Humor, Texas & More By: Susan G. Davis In 1995 Susan G. Davis (Nan is what Susan's 5 year old grandson called her) 5 year old grandson Clint gave her a journal for Christmas. He suggested "why don't you put all of those quotes you're collecting in that old notebook in this journal" So for 20 years Davis filled her journal. When Clint came home on leave from the Air Force and asked her about the journal, he was surprised that she had accumulated enough information to fill the entire journal! It was he who suggested she put together her collection and create this book for everyone to enjoy. Within the pages of East Texas Nan's Favorite 1,000 Quotes on Inspiration, Wisdom, Humor, Texas & More, Davis hopes that anyone can walk away with something that will enrich their daily lives. Whether it be a ray of optimism, an answered question, inspiration when they need to be uplifted or when they need their funny bone tickled or an animal anecdote to tug at their heart strings or some Texas tidbit. This little book has something for everyone and can be read over and over.

Quotes by Albert Camus Lilith Regan, 2020-04-11 The struggle itself towards the heights is enough to fill a man's heart. One must imagine Sisyphus happy. In the depth of winter, I finally learned that within me there lay an invincible summer. Men must live and create. Live to the point of tears. I rebel; therefore I exist. Freedom is nothing but a chance to be better. Man is the only creature that refuses to be what he is. Life is the sum of all your choices. There is no fate that cannot be surmounted by scorn. Autumn is a second spring when every leaf is a flower. Integrity has no need of rules.

Propaganda and the Ethics of Persuasion Randal Marlin,2002-08-02 This book aims to develop a sophisticated understanding of propaganda. It begins with a brief history of early Western propaganda, including Ancient Greek classical theories of rhetoric and the art of persuasion, and traces its development through the Christian era, the rise of the nation-state, World War I, Nazism, and Communism. The core of the book examines the ethical implications of various forms of persuasion, not only hate propaganda but also insidious elements of more generally acceptable communication such as advertising, public relations, and government information, setting these in the context of freedom of expression. Propaganda and the Ethics of Persuasion examines the art of persuasion but it also hopes to establish a self-defense resistance to propaganda. As Jacques Ellul warned in 1980, any new technology enters into an already existing class system and can be expected to develop in a way favourable to the dominant interests of that system. The merger of AOL and Time-Warner confirms the likelihood of corporate interests dominating the future of the Internet, but the Internet has also opened up new possibilities for a politically effective counter-culture, as was demonstrated at the meeting of the World Trade Organization in Seattle in late 1999 and numerous similar gatherings since.

Drama and Reality Ronald Gaskell,2025-08-01 First published in 1972, Drama and Reality is a lucid account of the forces that have shaped modern European theatre, and especially of the different conceptions of reality implied in different plays. Three major views are distinguished (the naturalistic, the subjective, the religious) and related to the choice between poetic and representational form in drama. In the second part of the book, Ronald Gaskell takes a number of plays which offer a distinctive vision—a personal modification of one of the views of the world already discussed—and shows how the form of each play expresses and defines this personal vision.
