Edwin Yip

Miscellanea Derek Payne,2023-12 A few poems and prose, with some exploring the futility of war. Imaginary talks with characters that have made their mark. Some fantasy, some humour and some horror stories to tickle the spine at Halloween - and let's not forget Christmas. And why not try to explain ghosts! There are also a few whodunits for the budding detective. When engrossed in a book, I find punctuation and style disappear and only the story matters. Everything else seems irrelevant. My mind only absorbs what it thinks is the most important For this reason I have written some of the work with a subtle difference in style, to see if it spoils the enjoyment. My bet is - you won't mind.

Love: Driven by Emotions Malka Yagudayev,2012-03-06 There is so much to say about this four letter word. So many different emotions, scenarios, thoughts. But the truth is when you think of love, you have a certain picture in your mind. Everyone recalls a different thought. That is the beauty of this word. Everyone has some kind of story that pertains to this four letter word. Love has the potential to move mountains, make you the happiest you can ever be, as well as break your heart, bring depressing thoughts, and make you sad. But in every relationship and every chance at love, the power lies in your hands. You have the power to make yourself happy or sad. Be wise with whom you choose to share your heart with. Remember, love is driven by emotions. But it is up to you to decide which emotion to follow and which one to rule out.

For the Love of It Derek Payne,2014-11-03 A few poems and short stories exploring the futility of war. Imaginary talks with characters that made their mark. Some fantasy, some humour and some horror too tickle the spine on Halloween-and let's not forget Christmas. There's also a couple of who dunnits for the budding detective.

Glorifying God Edwin Yip,2024-11-26 Through poetry people can express their deepest emotions. Through devotion believers aim to draw closer to their LORD. This book is a collection of poems with accompanying devotions to help you explore what it means to glorify God. It is Christ-centered and in step with the Holy Spirit. Each week, it covers a different-yet-overlapping concept: worship, time, repentance, offering, trust, growth, and obedience. It is structured seven by seven, ending with the fiftieth poem to parallel the year of the Jubilee.

A Gift Inside of Me Regina Jenkins,2020-06-03 A Gift Inside of Me is exactly what it sounds like. Its words that God has place in my heart that I decided to put them on paper. These are encouraging, testimonial poems that will lift your spirit and soothe your soul. I wrote this book to help anyone who feels down, discourage or incomplete and to help people understand that: Our Father in heaven will do for you the exact same thing that he has done for me because he's just good like that!

Lessons From The Vault Saber Fatnassi, 2015-12-21 For a good while you have been asking yourself: •What's holding me back? •What's the real cost of waiting for the right time? •How do I shift my circumstances to create my reality and master my life? •Where do I even begin? •What does truly matter? What would you do if you knew the answers? Maximus, in this inspirational and suspenseful novel, guarantees you the answers. His character gives you the opportunity to reflect, learn, laugh, cry and begin thriving today. "Distance is not what keeps you from your destiny. It is your first step toward it" Maximus says. He learns, from the oracle, success principles that make him a prosperous and influencer coach; until he embarks on a new journey for which he has not planned. He applies his wisdom, his powerful coaching techniques, his life experience and the help of everyone he knows to get to the root of these serious challenges and claim victory. If he fails his life journey, his commitment, his achievements and life purpose are at stake. Imagine you have a success coach who empowers you to step into your glorious path today. Imagine you are holding the blue print to your destiny right now. Well, you are. Look inside.

Queen Menopause Alison Daddo, 2022-05-03 A friendly, frank, compassionate and comprehensive companion for any woman experiencing menopause, or anyone wondering what to expect. We live in a world where women are still mostly seen as second class, where our beauty is our currency and our aging bodies render us somewhat invisible. Women are powerful, especially as we get older, when we begin to care less about the external. We forget the society standard and turn our back on the beauty stamp of approval . . . Now that I've crossed that invisible line into menopause, into the second half of my life, I look around me in wonder . . . and sometimes despair. It's a challenge to not see yourself the way your culture sees you. Every woman will eventually go through menopause - that's half the population of the planet! And yet it's something that is still not fully explored. It's held in shame by some women and ignored by others. It can be devastating to some and a call to freedom for others. After going through her own 'change', Ali Daddo wanted to explore all the feelings around menopause and especially the post-menopausal years that so many women talk about as being 'the best years of their life'. Through sharing her own experience in a very real way, Ali hopes that women won't feel so alone in what can be a very lonely time. Alongside stories from some very well known Australian women, including Georgie Parker, Anita Heiss and Rhonda Burchmore, Queen Menopause is the book Ali wishes she'd had when she was approaching menopause - so she could have been better prepared for what was coming, embraced the process and felt supported. This is for all women.

Rebecca, Not Becky Christine Platt, Catherine Wigginton Greene, 2023-12-05 In the vein of Such a Fun Age, a whip-smart, compulsively readable novel about two upper-class stay-at-home mothers—one white, one Black—living in a perfect suburb that explores motherhood, friendship, and the true meaning of sisterhood amidst the backdrop of America's all-too-familiar racial reckoning. De'Andrea Whitman, her husband Malik, and their five-year-old daughter, Nina, are new to the upper-crust white suburb of Rolling Hills, Virginia—a move motivated by circumstance rather than choice. De'Andrea is heartbroken to leave her comfortable life in the Black oasis of Atlanta, and between her mother-in-law's Alzheimer's diagnosis, her daughter starting kindergarten, and the overwhelming whiteness of Rolling Hills, she finds herself struggling to adjust to her new community. To ease the transition, her therapist proposes a challenge: make a white girlfriend. When Rebecca Myland learns about her new neighbors, the Whitmans, she's thrilled. As chair of the Parent Diversity Committee at her daughters' school, she's championed racial diversity in the community—and what could be better than a brand-new Black family? It's serendipitous when her daughter, Isabella, and Nina become best friends on the first day of kindergarten. Now, Rebecca can put everything she's learned about antiracism into practice—especially those oh-so-informative social media posts. And finally, the Parent Diversity Committee will have some... well, diversity. Following her therapist's suggestion, De'Andrea reluctantly joins Rebecca's committee. The painfully earnest white woman is so overly eager it makes De'Andrea wonder if Rebecca's therapist told her to make a Black friend! But when Rolling Hill's rising racial sentiments bring the two women together in common cause, they find it isn't the only thing they have in common. . . .

Improving Preceptor Self-efficacy Using an On-line Educational Program Rachelle Parsons, 2006

Barefoot Boy with Shoes on Edwin Sánchez, 2000 Trapped in horrendous and cramped living conditions with his father and grandfather, Rosario Cortez battles to break his family's cycle of poverty and remove his son from the violence and squalor of the urban ghetto. Few playwrights are persuasive enough to make an audience root for a young man who batters his girlfriend and considers kidnapping and murder to get what he wants. But from the moment we meet Rosario Cortez, singing to his infant son and promising him a better future with a passion that burns white-hot, we like him. After we see his living conditions - sharing a cramped room with his father and grandfather, who spend their days watching porno films - we know that extreme measures are necessary. That doesn't mean that we approve of Rosario's means or the ways in which he expresses his anger. But we understand his motives, share his dreams and admire his tenacity. It is not surprising that the writer who's created Rosario and his world of longings is Edwin Sánchez, who also wrote TRAFFICKING IN BROKEN HEARTS. That haunting play centered on a love triangle involving a street hustler, an abused teenager and a yuppie lawyer, all yearning for something more in their lives. Sánchez knows how to capture the world of dreamers ... play ... moves gracefully ... carried along by beautiful writing ... -Aileen Jacobson, Newsday ... a touching drama that's worthy of attention ... -David Kaufman, Daily News Edwin Sanchez's tough, twisty, surprising new plays shows his usual flair for dealing with predictable subjects unpredictably ... [and with] sparky verbal flights ... -Michael Feingold, Village Voice

Everything and a Kite Ray Romano,1998 In a books that is at once laugh-out-loud funny and all-too-true to life, comedy-talent-turned-television-star Ray Romano goes home again, revealing that the source of his inspiration is heritage, hearth and family. As did his stand-up comedy and his present, top-rated CBS-TV program, Romano draws on his real-life experience as a husband, a father, a father of twins, a son with parents living very very close, and a brother, to make readers laugh and laugh harder.

Mirror Journals Jenson Gay,2005 A daughter battling cancer and the father who loves her kept journals during the daughter's health crisis-their thoughts, fears, faith, and hope are knit together in this touching, inspirational book.

Preconceived Notions Robyn Williams,1999-08 What happens when a beautiful fiery black woman and a strong black man fall in love. In her incredibly provocative first novel, Robyn Williams powerfully explores these passions, desires and fears that erupt. She makes explosive passion, greed, violence and pain into a dynamic electrifying and climatic entanglement. Love with a twist.

A Love So Big Sheila Walsh,2002 Live out a faith kids crave. Every day, our children are bombarded with advertisements crafted to make them hunger after the latest toys, food, games, and fashions. But there are no slick TV commercials for faith. Virtually everything our children learn about God comes from us-day by day, on the home front. And our most powerful advertisements are not our words, but our lives. In A Love So Big, you'll encounter again, as if for the first time, several of the most irresistible aspects of God's heart. You will begin to grasp his character more fully and experience afresh his profound love. Best of all, you'll discover how to lead your precious children into the greatest, most irresistible love they will ever know.
