Muslim and Christian Beliefs: A Comparison Bruce McDowell, Anees Zaka, 2000-01-01 It is crucial that followers of Jesus and followers of Allah understand the similarities and differences of their respective systems of belief. This compendium has been derived largely from the authors' book Muslims and Christians at the Table. We heartily recommend this 325-page book, designed to promote biblical understanding among Muslims.

From Jesus to Muhammad Elena Trenccevska, Timurlenk Chekovikj, 2019 the book presented is written to answer many important reader questions, both classical and modern. It is, not a surprise, that many previous books on comparison between the Islam and Christianity were written from the Christian position; even in scholarly research Islam has been seen through the lens of Christian religion and in the pattern of Christian belief. In contrast, the book by Elena Trenccevska & Timurlenk Cekovikj From Jesus to Muhammed presents another point of view. It is written not to refute some other religions, but, first of all, to present the truth of early religious history. At the beginning of the book, the authors present a background of early Christianity and tries to reconstruct the true teaching of Jesus. Nowadays, due to apocrypha and availability of other early writings, one may see many other stories of Christianity, which are so far from „canonical, knowing that many religious groups pretended to be the real followers of Jesus. Many parts of the book are dedicated to the personality of Jesus and development of his image in both Christianity and Islam. Today, when we compare the Quranic view of Jesus to the early Christian sources, we may see many similar stories (for example, the Quranic narration about God's creation of birds made of clay through Jesus). This represents that Jesus (for example, his early life) is a great mystery of history; but since we have a very small account about this in the Quran and in the Bible, no one has a real proof to speculate about this. And this is why this book calls us not to start some polemics, but to consider the sacred text which gives the most authoritative stories to the believers.

Common Ground Paul L. Heck, 2009-09-04 Christian-Muslim interaction is a reality today in all corners of the globe, but while many celebrate the commonality of these traditions, significant differences remain. If these religions cannot be easily reconciled, can we perhaps view them through a single albeit refractive lens? This is the approach Paul Heck takes in Common Ground: To undertake a study of religious pluralism as a theological and social reality, and to approach the two religions in tandem as part of a broader discussion on the nature of the good society. Rather than compare Christianity and Islam as two species of faith, religious pluralism offers a prism through which a society as a whole—secular and religious alike—can consider its core beliefs and values. Christianity and Islam are not merely identities that designate particular communities, but reference points that all can comprehend and discuss knowledgeably. This analysis of how Islam and Christianity understand theology, ethics, and politics—specifically democracy and human rights—offers a way for that discussion to move forward.

Christianity and Islam According to the Bible and the Qur'an Naser Al-Moghamis, 2002 Since the Bible is the basis for the teachings of Christianity, and the Qur'an is the main source of Islamic Religion and Law, this book compares Islam and Christianity according to a comparative study of the Bible and the Qur'an. This approach ensures that the comparison is based on facts and not on prejudice or misunderstanding.

Jesus and Muhammad Mark A. Gabriel, 2004 This volume explores the surprising similarities and differences between two of the most important religious leaders of all time--Jesus and Muhammad. Born into a Muslim family in Egypt, Gabriel is a converted Christian and former professor of Islamic history at Al Azhar University in Cairo.

Islam and Christianity Hüseyin Hilmi Işık, Islam that abrogated celestial religions of Judaism and Christianity along with their validity is explained first. That Qur'an-ı Karîm is word of Allah; miracles of Muhammad ﷺ, his virtues, moral practices and habits; how to be a true Muslim; a comparison of Islam and Christianity; that Muslims are scientifically powerful; are explained next.

Islam and Christianity John Renard, 2011-03-08 In light of the widespread public perception of incompatibility between Islam and Christianity, this book provides a much-needed straightforward comparison of these two great faith traditions from a broad theological perspective. Award-winning scholar John Renard illuminates the similarities as well as the differences between Islam and Christianity through a clear exploration of four major dimensions—historical, creedal, institutional, and ethical and spiritual. Throughout, the book features comparisons between concrete elements such as creedal statements, prayer texts, and writings from major theologians and mystics. It also includes a glossary of technical theological terms. For western readers in particular, this balanced, authoritative work overturns some common stereotypes about Islam, especially those that have emerged in the decade since September 11, 2001.

Islam and Christianity Are the Same But... Most Senior Apostle F. O. Oluwunmi, 2009-12 'Islam & Christianity are the same BUT...' was written under the direction of the Holy Spirit, after the author has been guided to read the Holy Quran. The book brings out the numerous similarities between Islam and Christianity; it also highlights what a person needs to do (as contained in the Holy Quran and the Holy Bible) if he/she is to go to Paradise.

Christianity, Islam, and Orisa-Religion J.D.Y. Peel, 2015-11-27 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos, University of California Press's open access publishing program for monographs. Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more. The Yoruba of southwestern Nigeria are exceptional for the copresence among them of three religious traditions: Islam, Christianity, and the indigenous orisa religion. In this comparative study, at once historical and anthropological, Peel explores the intertwined character of the three religions and the dense imbrication of religion in all aspects of Yoruba history up to the present. For over 400 years, the Yoruba have straddled two geocultural spheres: one reaching north over the Sahara to the world of Islam, the other linking them to the Euro-American world via the Atlantic. These two external spheres were the source of contrasting cultural influences, notably those emanating from the world religions. However, the Yoruba not only imported Islam and Christianity but also exported their own orisa religion to the New World. Before the voluntary modern diaspora that has brought many Yoruba to Europe and the Americas, tens of thousands were sold as slaves in the New World, bringing with them the worship of the orisa. Peel offers deep insight into important contemporary themes such as religious conversion, new religious movements, relations between world religions, the conditions of religious violence, the transnational flows of contemporary religion, and the interplay between tradition and the demands of an ever-changing present. In the process, he makes a major theoretical contribution to the anthropology of world religions.

Muhammad and Jesus William E. Phipps, 1996 Here is a thoroughly researched and provocative study of the two most influential figures in Western history. The book begins with a comprehensive biographical investigation of the early lives of the Meccan and the Nazarene, and a thoughtful assessment of their later contributions as statesman and reformer. Phipps then debunks many of the invidious myths about Jesus and Muhammad during the course of a careful exploration of the ways in which they interpreted Hebrew scripture, their prescriptions for moral conduct, and their attitudes toward rewards and punishment on earth and in the afterlife.

Comparing the Qur'an and the Bible Rick Richter, 2011-11-01 Engagement with the Muslim world and Muslim people is inevitable for Christians. After all, Islam is the fastest-growing religion in the United States. But what does the Qur'an really say about things like Jesus, war, and non-Muslims? What does the Bible say on these matters? If Christians are to engage in informed, loving conversation with their Muslim neighbors, they need to be equipped with more than the often-specious talking points they glean from the news or email forwards. Comparing the Qur'an and the Bible offers readers an unprecedented collection of Scriptures and doctrines of both faiths presented side by side for easy study and comparison, covering such key issues as Jesus Abraham creation angels/jinn jihad the fall of humankind predestination ransom for sin/sacrifice grace rebirth God/Allah women marriage and divorce homosexuality suicide resurrection judgment Paradise prayer A brief explanation of each passage in the Qur'an and the Bible is given, as well as biblical answers to Islamic teaching. The book also motivates readers to have hearts for Muslims and seek to bring them to Christ, offering door openers to sharing the Good News. This indispensable collection will be treasured by anyone seeking to understand and engage their Muslim neighbors.

Jesus and Muhammad Daniel Hummel, 2017-07-01 Jesus and Muhammad lived in different times and in different contexts. An absolute comparison of the careers of these two men is not a satisfactory method in understanding the similarities and differences between their teachings. This book approaches this topic from a different perspective. The time that Muhammad preached in Mecca is compared to the time Jesus spent preaching throughout Palestine. This improves the similarities in contexts between them and makes a comparison more valid. The number of similarities outweighs the number of differences when looking at the four books of the Gospel and the chapters of the Qur'an revealed in Mecca. On issues related to prayer, the Oneness of God, charity, the Hereafter and forgiveness the teachings in these two books are practically the same. A number of core theological issues surfaced in the Book of John do clash with Qur'anic teachings about the person of Jesus. These differences and the possible reasons for them are explored in this book. The conclusion of this book is that Muslims and Christians have more shared values and even theological similarities than differences. It is recommended that Muslims and Christians should spend more time understanding these commonalities.

Muslims and Christians Face to Face Kate Zebiri, 2014-10-01 From the Crusades to the present day, the interrelationship between Islam and Christianity has been fraught with conflict, both theological and military. Yet events in 20th-century history, particularly the communications revolution, have meant that, after centuries of living in isolation from each other, Christians and Muslims find themselves participating in the same intellectual culture, and are having to review their assumptions about each other. In this work, Zebiri analyzes modern Muslim writings on Christianity and Christian writings on Islam to explore the issues central to Muslim-Christian relations. The literature surveyed is diverse - both popular and scholarly, varying in function, authorship and intended audience. Through its juxtaposition of the mutual perceptions of Muslims and Christians, the book provides an overview of the more important contrasts and similarities between the two religions.

Similarities Between Islam and Christianity and Judaism Faisal Fahim, 2016-12-31 Similarities between Islam and Christianity and Judaism: 5 of the 10 commandments Exod. 20 [1] And God spake all these words, saying, [2] I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. [3] Thou shalt have no other gods before me. [4] Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: [5] Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me.[Surah al-Baqarah 2: 255] Al-Quran: Allah! There is no god but He - the Living, The Self-subsisting, Eternal. No slumber can seize Him Nor Sleep. His are all things In the heavens and on earth. Who is there can intercede In His presence except As he permitteth? He knoweth What (appeareth to His creatures As) Before or After or Behind them. Nor shall they encompass Aught of his knowledge Except as He willeth. His throne doth extend Over the heavens And on earth, and He feeleth No fatigue in guarding And preserving them. For He is the Most High. The Supreme (in glory).

Understanding and Freedom Daniel Shayesteh, 2016-07-13 Understanding and Freedom helps Muslims unchain themselves from Islam by learning about other religions and worldviews. It shares insights into the basic doctrines of Islam and contrasts these with key aspects of the Christian faith so Muslims can evaluate Islam's claim to be the perfect belief system. Some of the questions considered are: How can we tell the difference between the one true God and a false god? What is the difference between the God of Islam and the God of Christianity? Can the God of Islam be a good guide? Do you have peace with God through Islam? Is Islam really perfect final religion? Is the Quran the Word of the true God? Is it Jesus or Muhammad who can be a good leader for you? Does humanity need enemies or friends? Is there salvation outside of Jesus?
