Summary of The Four Agreements , Summary of The Four Agreements - every action we take is the result of agreements we have made, including agreements with God, other people, ourselves, and the universe. The agreements we establish with ourselves, though, are the most significant. We define who we are, how to act, and what is feasible and impractical for us in these agreements. A single agreement may not be a big deal, but we frequently make agreements out of fear that drain our strength and make us feel less valuable. It explores the root of self-limiting ideas that rob us of joy and cause unnecessarily pain. A strong rule of behavior based on the wisdom of the Toltecs, can quickly change our lives and forge a new sense of liberation, genuine happiness, and love.
