BUT WHAT IF NOBODY READS IT?! Go From Self-Doubt to Writing And Self-Publishing a Book When You Have No Good Ideas And Feel Like a Fraud Fabian Markl, Are you struggling with self-doubt and fear as an aspiring author? You feel a strong desire to write your first or next book, but you haven't started yet. Or, you started, but then stopped, and now the unfinished book collects digital dust. Here's why you're not working on your book, even though you would love to: • You believe your book idea is bad and not in demand • You think you're not qualified to write about that topic • You are afraid that nobody will like your book • You don't want to get associated with what you write • You think working on the book is waste of time and money • You assume the publishing process is too costly and hard • You think you need a detailed outline before you can start • You are a slow writer and think what you write isn't that good • And, you might be afraid that nobody will ready your book So, what's the point of writing a book, when nobody is going to care about it anyway? If you feel like any of the above is true, this book is to help you overcome your obstacles and take the next step in your writing journey. This book is a personal account of the author's own journey, and how he overcame these common fears and doubts that many aspiring authors face. It also includes some practical advice and strategies for overcoming writer's block, writing and publishing your first or next book. However, it's not a typical "How-To Guide" about the self-publishing process. You've probably already read some of those. Yet, you're still stuck with your book. This a must-read for anyone that would love to finish and self-publish their first or next book, with ease and joy.
