Peter Fingesten

Buddhism Vs Hinduism Dharam Vir Mangla,2010 This book informs us about the basic essence of Buddhism in comparison to Hinduism. It is essential to start with the first chapter to understand the correct meaning of the basic spiritual terms used in this book. In most of the books spiritual terms may have been used differently. Many people think and propagate that all religions basically teach the same, and have same objectives, but may have different paths. But in fact, there are basic philosophical contradictions. Unless we understand these differences properly and try to remove them, the unity of all the religions may not be achieved. The aim of this book is understand the essence of Buddhism and its differences with Hinduism, if any. Why and how it spread in most of the countries? Why and how in India Buddhists adopt to Hinduism later? Basically Buddhism evolved from Hindu Dharma as Buddha was a Hindu. But he discarded God, soul, Scriptures and Brahmanism. More or less it was a contrast to Hinduism. Buddha has been controversial and misunderstood by many. Many people think that Buddha was an incarnation of Lord Vishnu and his enlightenment was "Self-realization or God-realization". But this does not seem to be correct. Is it not ridiculous to call some one as an Avatara of God, if he doesn't believe in God? The book clarifies the difference between 'Moksha & Nirvana' and 'Buddhist and Hindus meditations', which in fact differ in many respects. Author has also compared two more religions Jainism & Islam with Buddhism and Hinduism. But the comparison has been limited only up to philosophical level and not about traditional differences. Author has due respect to all the religions.

Oriental Theories of Human Development Robert Murray Thomas, 1988 Oriental Theories of Human Development is organized in two parts. Part I is intended to answer the question: What beliefs about human development are found in the literature and traditions of Hinduism, Buddhism, Confucianism, Shinto, and Islam? Part II, entitled «Segments of Theory in Popular Belief», contains the results of interviews with around 100 or more adherents of each of the five religions treated in Part I. The purpose of the interviews was to learn the extent to which followers of a religion subscribed to certain key concepts about development that were embedded in their own religious traditions. The Hindus were interviewed in India, Buddhists in Thailand, Confucianists in Taiwan, Shintoists in Japan, and Muslims in the Sudan.
