Famines and the Making of Heritage Marguéríte Corporaal,Ingrid de Zwarte,2024-06-05 Famines and the Making of Heritage is the first book to bring together groundbreaking research on the role of European famines in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in relation to heritage making, museology, commemoration, education, and monument creation. Featuring contributions from famine experts across Europe and North America, the volume adopts a pioneering transnational perspective, and discusses issues such as contestable and repressed heritage, materiality, dark tourism, education on famines, oral history, multidirectional memory, and visceral empathy. Questioning why educational curricula and practices in schools and on heritage sites are region- or nation-oriented or transnational, chapters also consider whether they emphasise conflict or mutual understanding. Contributions also consider how present issues of European concern – such as globalisation, commodification, human rights, poverty, and migration – intersect with the heritage and memory of modern European famines. Lastly, the book considers what role emigrant and diasporic communities within and outside Europe play in the development of famine heritage and educational practices – and whether famine heritage is accessible to them. Famines and the Making of Heritage provides a crucial resource for museum and heritage scholars, students and professionals working on or with difficult or dark heritages, as well as those interested in the study of famines and legacies of troubled pasts.

Los colegios de jesuitas y su tradición educativa (1868-1906) Manuel Revuelta González,1998-01-01 El presente libro aparece al cumplirse el cuarto centenario de la promulgación y aprobación definitiva de la Ratio Studiorum, que tuvo lugar el 8 de enero de 1599, por orden del P. General de la Compañía de Jesús, Claudio Aquaviva, después de varios años de experiencias pedagógicas colectivas. Los jesuitas aplicaron en todas partes con mucho fruto aquel sistema pedagógico, hasta la supresión de la Compañía de Jesús en 1773.

Economic crises in history teaching Council of Europe,2025-10-01 How can history education equip students to understand and confront the economic crises of yesterday and tomorrow? Since the beginning of the 21st century, the economic consequences of the debt crises of 2007 and 2008, of the Covid-19 pandemic and of Russia's war of aggression against Ukraine have continuously challenged the livelihood of many families in Europe and around the world. Understanding economic crises from a historical perspective enables students to better respond to present and future experiences of such crises. The mission of the Observatory on History Teaching in Europe (OHTE) is to provide a clear picture of the state of history teaching in its member states. This is done through OHTE general reports on the state of history teaching in Europe and OHTE thematic reports, which explore particular areas of interest and how they are treated in history lessons. The second thematic report of the OHTE investigates the extent and the ways in which learners are being prepared to understand and cope with such crises through history education in the public schooling systems of OHTE's 17 member states. It combines curriculum and textbook analysis with an explorative study of teachers' experiences and summarises its most significant conclusions into 10 key findings listed in the introductory chapter.
