A Technique for Producing Ideas James Young, 2003-02-11 A step-by-step technique for sparking breakthrough creativity in advertising--or any field Since its publication in 1965, A Technique for Producing Ideas has helped thousands of advertising copywriters smash through internal barriers to unleash their creativity. Professionals from poets and painters to scientists and engineers have also used the techniques in this concise, powerful book to generate exciting ideas on demand, at any time, on any subject. Now let James Webb Young's unique insights help you look inside yourself to find that big, elusive idea--and once and for all lift the veil of mystery from the creative process. James Webb Young is in the tradition of some of our greatest thinkers when he describes the workings of the creative process. The results of many years in advertising have proved to him that the key element in communications success is the production of relevant and dramatic ideas. He not only makes this point vividly for us but shows us the road to that goal. --William Bernbach, Former Chairman and CEO, Doyle Dane Bernbach Inc.

A Technique for Producing Ideas James Young, 2016-07-20 James Webb Young was the first-ever chairman of The Advertising Council and he also served as the vice president of the J. Walter Thompson (JWT) Company. Beyond this, he had great influence over the development and evolution of the early days of the ad industry. In 1946, he was named Advertising Man of the Year. He was also recognized for his war-time impact on the ad industry, as he was named as the recipient of the Advertising Awards Gold Medal for Outstanding Achievements of a Lifetime. What the book covers: How It Started Mr. Young reveals what prompted him to create A Technique for Producing Ideas. The Formula of Experience He explains how he came to realize and identify the mind's operative technique for generating ideas as effectively and efficiently as an assembly line. The Pareto Theory Mr. Young discusses Italian sociologist Pareto, best known for his 80/20 theory. Pareto strongly believes there are two kinds of people in this world; the creatives and the squares. The creative types (called speculators by Pareto) are defined by a constant interest in the possibilities of new combinations. The other type, rentiers, are described as conservative, steady, habitual people. Pareto believes that the creatives manipulate the squares. Training The Mind The importance of training your mind in the art of producing ideas, using Method and Principles. Combining Old Elements An idea is nothing more, nor less, than a new combination of old elements. Mr. Young believes this is the most important principle in A Technique for Producing Ideas. He then reveals the second most important principle which allows one to make new combinations of old elements - and that is the ability to see relationships between disparate things. Ideas are New Combinations This chapter introduces you to the Method. The Method or Idea-Producing Technique is made up of 5 steps. Step 1 discusses gathering general and specific raw material. Specific raw material is information that centers on your idea. The product's specs, features, benefits, competition and marketability. General knowledge is important as it gives you more raw material to work with in seeing relationships and making new combinations. The Mental Digestive Process This chapter explores the second step of the technique. This involves mulching and digesting the raw material you have gathered. Young explains you must feel your way through each bit of knowledge. Turning it over and over in your mind, then extracting multiple meanings and significances. Like a jigsaw puzzle, you play with different bits of ideas to see how they fit together. You will need a notebook to transcribe your thoughts and half-ideas, as they come to you. Sleep is the third stage: letting go allows your unconscious mind to deal with it. Constantly Thinking About It The fourth step discusses how new ideas just appear, when you least expect them. Through the entire process of gathering data, mulling over your information, engaging in other activities, your mind will create new ideas without any warning. The Final Stage This final stage is your reality check time. You must test, edit, refine and polish your idea. This is the time to take your new idea and hold it up to the harsh light of reality. Some After Thoughts Mr. Young reveals his own personal experiences with these techniques and re-emphasizes how new knowledge and experience can lead to new ideas and profitable rewards. Why are some people capable of producing great, new ideas on demand? The book closes with examples and testimonials of past readers and how his method has worked for them. You will also receive information on recommended books to further your understanding of the idea-producing process.

Brand Storytelling Keith A. Quesenberry, Michael K. Coolsen, 2023-02-14 This innovative new text introduces students to the power of storytelling and outlines a process for creating effective brand stories in a digital-first integrated marketing communications plan. From the earliest works on storytelling to the latest research, this text explains why and how storytelling works, the forms storytelling takes, and how to develop an integrated advertising, PR, and strategic marketing communications campaign that leverages the power of story within the reality of today's digital-first media landscape. Keith A. Quesenberry and Michael K. Coolsen present a balance of research and theory with practical application and case studies within a classroom-friendly framework for undergraduate or graduate courses or for the marketing communications professional looking for a guide to integrate storytelling into their brand communications. Emphasizing digital and social media perspectives in the strategic planning and campaign process, Brand Storytelling also surveys TV, radio, outdoor, print opportunities as well as earned, shared, owned, and paid media. Features: Chapters introduce discipline foundations through key figures, main content sections explaining concepts with examples, templates and stats, a main case study, questions for consideration, and list of key concepts for review. Coverage of new technologies in Web3, such as NFTs, cryptocurrency, media streaming, CTV, and the metaverse, ChatGPT, and DALL-E 2. Key terms are bolded and defined throughout and featured in a glossary along with an index of key concepts, figures, companies, and cases for easy reference. Plan/campaign research addresses evaluation and optimization of IMC execution including descriptive, predictive, and prescriptive analytics. Instructor resources include chapter outlines, learning objectives, test banks, slides, forms, template worksheets, example assignments, and syllabi.

How To Become An Advertising Man James Webb Young, 2025-09-02 How to Become an Advertising Man by James Webb Young is a practical and inspiring guide to one of the most dynamic professions of the 20th century. Written by a seasoned advertising executive at the height of Madison Avenue's golden era, the book distills a lifetime of experience into clear, candid advice for those seeking a career in the business of persuasion. Young frames advertising not simply as selling products, but as the art of understanding people—what they want, how they think, and how words and images can move them. He discusses the qualities that make for success in the field, from curiosity and imagination to discipline and persistence, and offers insights into the daily life of an advertising professional. With engaging anecdotes drawn from his own career, he explains how to develop ideas, communicate effectively, and build trust with clients. Though written in 1963, Young's advice remains surprisingly modern, emphasizing creativity, integrity, and adaptability as timeless qualities. The book captures both the excitement of working in an industry at its creative peak and the challenges of balancing artistic vision with commercial demands. How to Become an Advertising Man stands as both a career manual and a historical snapshot of advertising in its formative decades, offering readers a front-row seat to the era when modern marketing was being defined.

How to Get Ideas Jack Foster, 2007-05-01 This new expanded second edition shows you—no matter your age or skill, your job or training—how to come up with more ideas, faster and easier. Jack Foster's simple five-step technique for solving problems and getting ideas takes the mystery and anxiety out of the idea-generating process. It's a proven process that works. You'll learn to condition your mind to become "idea-prone," utilize your sense of humor, develop your curiosity, visualize your goals, rethink your thinking, and overcome your fear of rejection. This expanded edition of the inspiring and enlightening classic features new information on how to turn failures to your advantage and how to create a rich, idea-inducing environment. Dozens of new examples and real-life stories show that anyone can learn to get more and better ideas.

Just Doing It: A History of Advertising Pia Elliott, 2014-10-09 The purpose of the book is to provide an overall view of advertising in the twentieth century while filling in the gap of information that exists in Italy ? where just a few names are known. The book also provides a leading thread about those professionals who, in the second half of the 20th century, were the protagonists of the creative revolution and whose influence has been seminal on both American and English advertising. The book has no historical intentions nor aims at classifying people into schools or categories (as such an approach would be pretentious and inadequate in a profession so deeply entangled with economics and consumer attitudes). The content in brief: The book is made up of short biographies of famous and well known advertising people ? mainly art directors and copywriters ? interspersed with a few explanatory chapters that are simply summaries on certain subjects. For instance The Big Agencies outlines the origins of historical agencies, such as J.W. Thompson, BBDO, and Young & Rubicam. The State of Things explains what happened after the (so called) Creative Revolution. The Spot-Makers presents people like Howard Zieff, Joe Pytko, Rick Levine, and Bob Giraldi. Old School Ties and Colonels is about British advertising before Collett Dickinson and Pearce. La Grande Parade depicts the peculiarities of French advertising and Carosello and its Victims explains the unusual features of the Italian Carosello (an early TV format that hosted commercials), etc. Biographies are structured differently along the lines of individual stories and, generally, tend to highlight the meaningful events in one's career rather than their early life and experiences. This way of telling a story is, of course, somewhat influenced by the author's experiences and point of view and represents the original aspect of the book. Among the influentials, Americans and Britons outnumber French and Italians. A final section with Contributions by various authors and famous copywriters: Gossage, Della Femina, Abbott, Séguéla, Marcantonio, Pirella, etc. completes the book.

A Technique For Producing Ideas James Webb Young, 2019-11-20 A Technique For Producing Ideas: (A Technique For Getting Ideas) This book is a result of an effort made by us towards making a contribution to the preservation and repair of original classic literature. In an attempt to preserve, improve and recreate the original content, we have worked towards: 1. Type-setting & Reformatting: The complete work has been re-designed via professional layout, formatting and type-setting tools to re-create the same edition with rich typography, graphics, high quality images, and table elements, giving our readers the feel of holding a 'fresh and newly' reprinted and/or revised edition, as opposed to other scanned & printed (Optical Character Recognition - OCR) reproductions. 2. Correction of imperfections: As the work was re-created from the scratch, therefore, it was vetted to rectify certain conventional norms with regard to typographical mistakes, hyphenations, punctuations, blurred images, missing content/pages, and/or other related subject matters, upon our consideration. Every attempt was made to rectify the imperfections related to omitted constructs in the original edition via other references. However, a few of such imperfections which could not be rectified due to intentional/unintentional omission of content in the original edition, were inherited and preserved from the original work to maintain the authenticity and construct, relevant to the work. We believe that this work holds historical, cultural and/or intellectual importance in the literary works community, therefore despite the oddities, we accounted the work for print as a part of our continuing effort towards preservation of literary work and our contribution towards the development of the society as a whole, driven by our beliefs. We are grateful to our readers for putting their faith in us and accepting our imperfections with regard to preservation of the historical content. HAPPY READING!

Advertising Account Planning Larry D. Kelley, Donald W. Jugenheimer, 2010-10-14 Concise yet comprehensive, this practical guide covers the critical role of the account planner in advertising. Drawing on their extensive experience in the field, the authors follow the logical progression of the account-planning task from start to finish, including understanding the customer, defining the target market, defining the benefit, brand positioning, the creative brief, and measuring success. This edition includes expanded coverage of the role of advertising in the overall marketing process (segmentation, positioning, and brand personality). Its campaign-oriented approach provides new discussion of how to identify the big idea and tie it into campaign execution, and how account planning impacts the overall IMC campaign, including media, PR, and digital marketing.
