God You're Breaking My Heart Brian Grogan, 2016-05-07 Most of us puzzle all our lives over suffering. 'Why should this happen to me?' 'Why should that happen to someone whom I love?' 'Is God out to punish me?' 'What have I done to deserve this?' The problem of suffering and evil tortures the human mind. Each of us develops our little philosophy of suffering. 'I deserved it' 'God punishes those he loves' 'Darkness is the shadow of God's outstretched hand' etc.. From the beginning, we can presume, humankind puzzled over the things that went wrong - injury, death, famine... Only when we meet God face to face will our complaints and queries be fully set at rest. In the meantime, we can be comforted - and comfort others - by the glow of light that the Christian tradition offers. On a dark night, even a small candle is a help until the big light is switched on. Divine light shines in the darkness of suffering, which the darkness cannot overcome.

The Pursuit of Human Well-Being Richard J. Estes, M. Joseph Sirgy, 2017-01-09 This handbook informs the reader about how much progress we, the human race, have made in enhancing the quality of life on this planet. Many skeptics focus on how the quality of life has deteriorated over the course of human history, particularly given World War II and its aftermath. This handbook provides a positive perspective on the history of well-being. Quality of life, as documented by scientists worldwide, has significantly improved. Nevertheless, one sees more improvements in well-being in some regions of the world than in others. Why? This handbook documents the progress of well-being in the various world regions as well as the differences in those regions. The broad questions that the handbook addresses include: What does well-being mean? How do different philosophical and religious traditions interpret the concept of well-being within their own context? Has well-being remained the same over different historical epochs and for different regions and subregions of the world? In which areas of human development have we been most successful in advancing individual and collective well-being? In which sectors has the attainment of well-being proven most difficult? How does well-being differ within and between different populations groups that, for a variety of socially created reasons, have been the most disadvantaged (e.g., children, the aged, women, the poor, racial, ethnic, and sexual minorities)?

Cosmo Doogood's Urban Almanac Eric Utne, 2004 Pilgrimages to wild places such as Death Valley help us connect to nature, to be sure. But what would it take for us to reestablish that connection right where we live day-to-day ... in the city? Ben Franklin would be proud. In the spirit of his Poor Richard's Almanac, Eric Utne, founder of Utne Magazine, presents Cosmo Doogood's Urban Almanac: Celebrating Nature & Her Rhythms in the City. It's an inspirational way for 21st-century urbanites, who now number over half the U.S. population, to connect with nature, live more fully, and celebrate each day of the year. Cosmo Doogood's Urban Almanac can help you connect to Nature and Her Rhythms wherever you are!
