A world that Kirsten Raymonde barely remembers, when twenty years later, she walks with the Traveling Symphony, performing Shakespeare for the few survivors they encounter in scattered, tiny settlements. Her routine is harsh but rewarding, keeping art alive together with her fellow musicians and actors. But when they return for their friends at St. Deborah on the Water, they realize that they have fled what was once a lively little town. It is now the territory of the Prophet, who does not take kindly to oppositions to his preaching.
