The Twins of Kalmar C L. Hughey,2013-04 Many centuries ago, when the world was predominantly pagan, a legend was born—the legend of a family known as Abakr. The family was said to have originated with the birth of twin sons, at a time when it was believed by the people of the land that a twin birth was an evil omen. Parents, in their ignorance, would destroy one of the twins to protect the other. These Abakr twins, however, were so fair that the parents could not bring themselves to destroy either child. Not knowing they were the princes of Alakbar, Garren and Taron lived a normal life as circus entertainers. But that all changes on their eighteenth birthday when their mother reveals to them their true identity as they prepare to entertain the same man responsible for their father's death. Join the Twins of Kalmar on this adventure as they disguise themselves, avenge their father's death, discover new lands, and even fall in love. With a little bit of courage, the help of friends, and the belief in themselves, these seemingly circus boys face incredible odds to overcome a horrible evil that was once done to their family, and rightfully take back what their heir.
