Textual Awareness Dirk Van Hulle, 2009-12-14 Aware of the act of writing as a temporal process, many modernist authors preserved numerous manuscripts of their works, which themselves thematized time. Textual Awareness analyzes the writing processes in James Joyce's Finnegans Wake, Marcel Proust's À la recherche du temps perdu, and Thomas Mann's Doktor Faustus and relates these to Anglo-American, French, and German theories of text. By relating theory to practice, this comparative study reveals the links between literary and textual criticism. A key issue in both textual criticism and the so-called crisis of the novel is the tension between the finished and the unfinished. After a theoretical examination of the relationship between genetic and textual criticism, Dirk Van Hulle uses the three case studies to show how?at each stage in the writing process?the text still had the potential of becoming something entirely different; how and why these geneses proceeded the way they did; how Joyce, Proust, and Mann allowed contingencies to shape their work; how these authors recycled the words of their critics in order to inoculate their works against them; how they shaped an intertextual dimension through the processing of source texts and reading notes; and how text continually generated more text. Van Hulle's exploration of process sheds new light on the remarkable fact that so many modernist authors protected their manuscripts, implying both the authors' urge to grasp everything and their awareness of the dangers of their encyclopedic projects. Textual Awareness offers new insights into the artificiality of the artifact?the novel?that are relevant to the study of literary modernism in general and the study of James Joyce, Marcel Proust, and Thomas Mann in particular. Dirk Van Hulle is Assistant Professor of English and German Literature, University of Antwerp.

A Comparative History of the Literary Draft in Europe Olga Beloborodova, Dirk Van Hulle, 2024-11-15 Literary drafts are a constant in literatures of all ages and linguistic areas, and yet their role in writing processes in various traditions has seldom been the subject of systematic comparative scrutiny. In 38 chapters written by leading experts in many different fields, this book charts a comparative history of the literary draft in Europe and beyond. It is organised according to eight categories of comparison distributed over the volume's two parts, devoted respectively to 'Text' (i.e. the textual aspects of creative processes) and 'Beyond Text' (i.e. aspects of creative processes that are not necessarily textual). Across geographical, temporal, linguistic, generic and media boundaries, to name but a few, this book uncovers idiosyncrasies and parallels in the surviving traces of human creativity while drawing the reader's attention to the materiality of literary drafts and the ephemerality of the writing process they capture.

Ulrike Draesner Karen Jane Leeder, Lyn Marven, 2022-12-19 Ulrike Draesner is a prize-winning writer of novels, short stories, critical essays and poetry, and one of the foremost authors in Germany today. While a number of volumes have been published in German on her work, the current Companion offers the first volume on Draesner in English, capitalising on the interest in her work in Germany and further afield. Introducing Draesner's major novels and short stories, poetry collections and essays, as well as giving an overview of existing research focusing on migration, memory, science, gender and bodily experience, chapters by international scholars in this volume also break new ground by focussing on visual culture, poetology, nature, the posthuman and Draesner's reception of English literature and medieval culture. A comprehensive bibliography, commissioned interview and original writing by Draesner make the volume a valuable research tool for scholars and students. This will become essential reading for all those interested in Draesner, women's writing, literature and history, and contemporary German prose and poetry.

In the Beginning Was the Image David H. Price, 2020-11-20 A visual transformation of the Bible took place in the Renaissance and Reformation. Initially, this occurred as a result of technological advances, for the printing press proliferated biblical texts and images on a previously unimaginable scale. Equally important, Reformation theology, though also a threat to art, served as a catalyst for the creation of innovative biblical iconography. In the Beginning Was the Image demonstrates the pivotal role that the defining artists of the Northern Renaissance--Albrecht Dürer, Lucas Cranach, and Hans Holbein--played in the reformation of the Bible and the biblical transformation of Protestant art.

Die Inschriften des Landkreises Göppingen Harald Drös, 1996 Der Band umfasst 501 Katalognummern mit über 700 Inschriften von der zweiten Hälfte des 7. Jahrhunderts bis zum Jahr 1650. Erfasst sind sowohl die im Original erhaltenen Inschriften als auch die nur mehr abschriftlich überlieferten Texte, deren Anteil mit 45 % beträchtlich ist. Ein Drittel der Inschriften wird hier erstmals veröffentlicht. Die wichtigsten Inschriftenstandorte sind die Städte Goppingen und Geislingen sowie der Ritterschaftsort Donzdorf, dessen Pfarrkirche den Herren von Rechberg über Jahrhunderte als Grablege diente. Aus den Heilbadern in Goppingen, Jebenhausen und Überkingen sind die Inschriften von über 200 Wappentafeln überliefert, die die Badegäste zur Erinnerung an ihren Kuraufenthalt gestiftet haben. Die Inschriften auf Grabmalern machen fast die Hälfte des Gesamtbestandes aus; weitere Inschriftenträger sind Glocken, Wandmalereien, kirchliche Ausstattungsstücke und liturgische Geräte. Unter den Bau- und Weiheinschriften verdient die älteste nach der christlichen Aeren-Rechnung datierte Bauinschrift Deutschlands von 984 in der Gingenener Pfarrkirche besonders hervorgehoben zu werden. Die konfessionellen Auseinandersetzungen des 16. und 17. Jahrhunderts drücken sich in vielen der Inschriftentexte aus. Der chronologisch angeordnete Katalogteil ist durch zahlreiche Abbildungen, eine ausführliche Einleitung und zehn Register erschlossen.
