The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture, encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved, making the translator more 'visible'. Concentrating on major writers and works, it covers translations out of many languages, from Greek to Hungarian, Korean to Turkish. For some works (e.g. Virgil's Aeneid) which have been much translated, the discussion is historical and critical, showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions. Elsewhere, with less familiar literatures, the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available.

Thinking Arabic Translation James Dickins, Sándor G. J. Hervey, Ian Higgins, 2002 This title is a comprehensive and practical 20-week course in translation method offering a challenging approach to the acquisition of translation skills.

Speech and Computer Albert Ali Salah, Alexey Karpov, Rodmonga Potapova, 2019-08-09 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 21st International Conference on Speech and Computer, SPECOM 2019, held in Istanbul, Turkey, in August 2019. The 57 papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 86 submissions. The papers present current research in the area of computer speech processing including audio signal processing, automatic speech recognition, speaker recognition, computational paralinguistics, speech synthesis, sign language and multimodal processing, and speech and language resources.

In The Shoes of the Other Samia Mehrez, 2019-12-10 In the Shoes of the Other Interdisciplinary Essays in Translation Studies from Cairo "This anthology continues a tradition that is intended to give impetus to the development of Egyptian and Arab discourses on translation both within and beyond the American University in Cairo. It is a welcome and important contribution to raising the profile of translation, in all its forms, and of translators in the region." Mona Baker, University of Manchester "Since its founding, the Center for Translation Studies has hosted an astonishing number of academic events that are among the most intellectually serious and internationally prominent of AUC's activities in the humanities; this has been noted by universities across the world. Indeed, the "In Translation" lecture series is, without any exaggeration, the most impressive public lecture series of its kind anywhere, and far beyond anything comparable in Africa or the Middle East." Adam Talib, Durham University "AUC's Center for Translation Studies has proved itself a vital interpreter of texts and events generated by Egypt's turbulent political history and fervent artistic culture. I know of no other group of scholars with equal competence in these matters and with an equivalent respect in the field." Anthony Cordingley, Université Paris VIII
