Kamesha Spates

What Don't Kill Us Makes Us Stronger Kamesha Spates, 2015-12-03 A close look at black women's physical, mental, and social circumstances reveals harmful social disparities. Yet, for decades, black women's suicide rates have remained virtually nonexistent compared to the rest of the American population, baffling social scientists. In this book, black women speak for themselves about their life struggles and their notions of suicide. Within a framework that explores racial and gender inequalities, Spates uses interviews to uncover reasons for the racial suicide paradox. Her analysis offers a deeper understanding of the positive life strategies, including family and faith, that underlie black women's resilience. -Provides insights into the impact of a variety of racial and gender inequalities -Vivid use of qualitative approaches to shed light on a statistical paradox -Highlights a positive image of black women and their resilience

Death Rites and Rights Belinda Brooks-Gordon, 2007-11-12 This volume considers the diverse social, legal and medical aspects of one of the main areas in which medicine and the law intersect; death.

Book 1. «Life without Death» Oris Oris, 1997-01-01 Who are you? How and why did you come to this cruel and alien world? Where will you go and how will you live after your loved ones have said good-bye to you on this earth? And will you really exist after that? These are constant questions. But they have answers. The secret of life and death irresistibly draws man to the realization of what he has long known, but what has remained a mystery and unknown. If you need answers to these eternal questions, if you can no longer live without understanding them, then this source of knowledge is for you.

A Textbook of Christian Ethics Robin Gill, 2014-01-16 Robin Gill's A Textbook of Christian Ethics continues to be popular with students and lecturers - it is difficult to find another textbook in the field that combines primary texts with extensive analysis and commentary. This 4th edition has been extensively revised and it incorporates up-to-date developments in the field of Christian ethics. Gill retains all the popular features of the previous editions, including its layout and structure, and in this new edition he also focuses on current debates, including such topics as global Christianity, global economics, euthanasia and global justice and the environment.

Discipleship Book Two - for individuals, home groups and churches Ian Traill M.Th., 2010 A Christian who does not study the Word of God will not be able to live to the fullness of what God has promised to him or her. The enemy is trying to steal away our peace, and finally destroy us, hoping we will turn away from God. 2Timothy 2:15 Do your best to present yourself to God as an approved worker who has nothing to be ashamed of, handling the word of truth with precision. (ISV) Here we see we are to study His Word, to be approved workers, which is right, but let us look at the second part of this statement. handling the word of truth with precision. The word precision has an implication of importance and we need to know how to handle it in our defence against the enemy. We need to understand the Word of God clearly, so that we can extinguish the fiery arrows of the enemy.
