Techniques of Illusion Katharina Rein,2023-05-03 This book explores stage conjuring during its “golden age,” from about 1860 to 1910. This study provides close readings highlighting four paradigmatic illusions of the time that stand in for different kinds of illusions typical of stage magic in the “golden age” and analyses them within their cultural and media-historical context: “Pepper’s Ghost,” the archetypal mirror illusion; “The Vanishing Lady,” staging a teleportation in a time of a dizzying acceleration of transport; “the levitation,” simulating weightlessness with the help of an extended steel machinery; and “The Second Sight,” a mind-reading illusion using up-to-date communication technologies. These close readings are completed by writings focusing on visual media and expanding the scope backwards and forwards in time, roughly to 1800 and to 2000. This exploration will be of great interest to students and scholars in theatre and performance studies.

Katherine's Quest Grace Templeton, 2009-11-23 Katherine Carrier's usual life suddenly becomes unusual when she discovers she is a wizard. She is put into the Academy for Wizards-In-Training, an academy beyond belief. There she meets her long-lost brother and many other friends, including the immortal Sebastian. Katherine, who once believed she was an orphan, discovers by a mysterious Phantom and Mr. Smith's will that she has a father, which is a celebration, but not when he's trapped in the Jotori Cave! Soon she is thrown into a Quest for all kinds of things; facing evil loninons, beautiful unicorns, and Dark Wizards in the dungeon. Katherine also discovered a mysterious it called The Beast. Desperate to discover who . . . or what this Beast is, she asks around, but no one will even tolerate his name. Deep down, Katherine knows all of these are connected in some way. She won't rest till she finds out what is going on in the Land of Drockoni. And now, within a sit on a chair and an opening of a book, you can find out, too!

Human Development and Faith Felicity B. Kelcourse, 2004-11-01 This book brings together the best available understandings of human development from a multidisciplinary perspective. Uniquely inclusive of the moral and faith dimensions of context and life-cycle development, Human Development and Faith examines the interplay of mind, body, family, community, and soul at every stage of development. Its goal is to address two central questions: What are the good-enough conditions of parenting, family, and community in each phase of life, from birth to death, that support growth and development? What gives life adequate meaning as development proceeds? If human development describes the normative and hoped-for passages of life, then faith provides the necessary component of meaning. Throughout the various perspectives offered in this volume is the premise that faith is that quality of living that makes it possible to fully live.

Come a Little Bit Closer Ian Wilson, 2013-03-01 Ian 'Peewee' Wilson has been singing bass doo-wop with iconic vocal group The Delltones since the 1950s and the First Wave of Australian pop. In this breezy and brilliant memoir, Peewee recalls the highs and inimitable lows of life fronting Australia's longest-performing vocal group. Beyond the stage door he reveals the secret to his longevity: a larrikin spirit honed in his beach-bumming youth, and a wide-eyed curiosity that led him to dabble in hallucinogenic substances and chase Playboy Bunnies (not at the same time). It's all part of Peewee's never-ending search for the underlying meaning of it all. Come a little bit closer to the Beanpole of Bop.

Collecting Ladies Penny Olsen,2013 Around 1870, Ferdinand von Mueller, the greatest Australian botanist of the nineteenth century, began to advertise in several newspapers across Australia for 'lady' plant collectors. This was at a time when women typically had little recourse to science, or contact with men outside their circle of friends, making Mueller's network of ladies quite extraordinary. Collecting Ladies profiles 14 of Mueller's coterie of women collectors. Included are Fanny Charsley, Louisa Atkinson, Annie Walker and Ellis Rowan for whom Mueller made time to assist in pursuit of their own passions. He identified the plants they painted and provided letters of introduction to publishers and scientists. Together, these ladies produced some of the most beautiful books and botanical art to come out of Australia in the nineteenth century, covering all the Australian colonies.
