The Sun Never Sets Asif Ahmed Srabon,2023-09-18 Prepare to be transported through time and across continents with Asif Ahmed Srabon's The Sun Never Sets: A History of British Global Influence. This richly detailed narrative immerses you in the epic saga of the British Empire, from its modest origins to the pinnacle of power, weaving a captivating tale of triumphs, challenges, and the indelible legacy that shaped our world.

Where the Sun Never Sets Cecilie Lambert,2025-10-20 It reeks. The odour of consanguine secretions, of blood and sweat, it won't come off, it's already seeped through the mattress and into the bedframe where it will always remain, forever staining its soul. To most it's an inconceivable thought. It was to Aris, too, yet in the absence of parents, the sixteen-year-old has already filled every role he could for this twin sister, Ania. She is his second half; half his soul, half his heart. Was there really ever a chance it'd turn out differently? Fate isn't fair to them, nor to their older sister, Rea, who tried to take up the mantle after their mother died ten years ago—an event no one seems to have recollection of. Yet its nightmares follow, and the horrible feeling of being somehow responsible. As their father retreats into grief and neglect, she follows, chasing his ever-elusive phantom image, his shadow, and only when she looks down are her feet already covered in darkness, and her hands dripping with blood; she has become a shadow herself. A shadow cannot be outrun; it follows every step, always there. The shadow of past sins, of buried secrets; it reeks as it follows, the pervasive stench of death and incest. This stomach-churning psychological drama explores the worst of love and attachment through the lens of neglect, festering trauma and cyclical abuse. It's about inner conflict, the ebb and flow of chasing an ever-distant and elusive hope, hope for an escape, a future; and the pull of the darkness that never seems to escape you, the shadow that follows and threatens to swallow you. To crave what you don't want, what you can't want; to love what hurts you and hurt what loves you.
