I’m Listening When No One Is: A Heartfelt Conversation with an Introvert Who Has a Lot to Say Iris Justice, 2025-01-31 Loneliness has the audacity to strike us at the most sincere and unexpected moments, leaving us feeling weak and lifeless from within. It’s not merely the lack of companionship or connection that evokes such feelings; it’s something deeply rooted in the core of our souls. Amidst the swirling mix of emotions and feelings, we often find ourselves

numb and incapable: incapable of talking, listening, or simply living. In desperation, we may seek to end the pain through the most unexpected means. However, logically speaking, these are not solutions to alleviate the suffering. That's where I come in to help you amidst the hardships that life throws your way. I am the friend you need when no one else is around. Through the melancholy of my words, I listen and embrace you, offering unwavering support and understanding. I am here for you, to help you breathe and exist through every challenge you face. Let my presence be a reminder that you are not alone, and together, we can navigate the depths of loneliness and emerge stronger, more hopeful, and ready to embrace the beauty that life has to offer.

A Second Chance to Live III Freddie L. Sirmans, Sr.,2003-05-12 A SECOND CHANCE TO LIVE III... Marion Harris, alias Loco believes human beings are some kind of super, super advanced computers. Rufus Thomas, a very conservative middle age restaurant owner, felt it was his duty to prevent teenagers from using his parking lot to deal drugs. Bruce Allen and Boom Boom, the leaders of the Young Vipers Gang, felt otherwise, they felt Rufus Thomas' restaurant parking lot was an ideal location to deal drugs. So they set out to drive Mr. Thomas off of his own property. Judge Fred Smith, a hard, tough no nonsense juvenile judge, sentenced Bruce Allen and Boom Boom to four months at boot camp. What Bruce Allen thought was the worst thing that could happen to him, gave him a second chance to live. BOOK #2 THE COUNT DOWN HAS BEGUN, CAN WE SURVIVE...

The Matchmaker Loses by a Nose Michael Gellis MD,2025-06-25 This book is a collection of 39 short stories and essays that will enlighten you about the author's personal life, his family's past, and other hilarious adventures. The contents of the book are divided into seven sections with the first section containing short stories about his father, David Gellis, an immigrant European tailor. The second section describes various stages of his sister Barbara's life, who somehow inherited the 'wild' gene and constantly got herself into trouble. The section about the author's past covers his chaotic life as a child living in a small house behind the family dry cleaning establishment, his years of medical school and residency, and unusual events during his private practice of plastic surgery. Farcical times with his young friends are recreated. Later in life, even while practicing medicine, Dr. Gellis would substitute teach in the public school system, creating hilarious stories. Narratives, describing his Brooklyn, New York, beginnings including family and friends, are brought to light in the fourth chapter that showcase his grandfather, a Kosher butcher, and the author's mother, Rose, a very defiant 4-year-old. Within the fifth section are stories of events in Flint, Michigan, especially an unusual encounter with the Detroit Mafia's The Purple Gang in the 1930's. Very interesting chance meetings the author had with famous athletes, Muhammad Ali and Tiger Woods, are covered in the sixth section. Finally, on an academic level, the author discusses his favorite sayings and idioms with their origins, along with a poem/prayer called "Family." There is obviously something for everyone in this entertaining collection of short stories.
