On Being Happy and a Successful Writer at the Same Time Russell Nohelty, 2026-11-14 What if success didn't have to cost your sanity? For years, USA Today bestselling author Russell Nohelty chased the "dream" of massive book sales, bestseller lists, and unlimited creative freedom... ..but achieving it came at the cost of his health, his happiness, and even his love for writing. Now, he's on a mission to make sure nobody else has to make the same devil's bargain ever again. In On Being Happy and a Successful Writer at the Same Time, Nohelty draws from hundreds of books on happiness, years of business experience, and the lived reality of chronic illness to lay out a practical, holistic framework that helps writers align their creative work with joy, abundance, and their natural tendencies. This brutally honest, refreshingly hopeful guide offers a path forward for authors who want to thrive—not just survive. Inside, you'll learn how to: Rebuild your mindset to measure success on your own terms Connect with the right audience without selling your soul Prioritize like a pro, even when time and energy are scarce Generate income that fuels your creative freedom, not drains it Stop feeling broken, and start building a sustainable author business that actually feels good Whether you're just starting out or hitting burnout after years in the trenches, this book will help you realign with what truly matters, so you can stop chasing success and start living it.

Novel Writing Prep Monica Leonelle, 2018-08-29 For creative fiction writers who are writing their next novel, Novel Writing Prep by USAT bestselling author Monica Leonelle takes you step-by-step through planning your novel over the course of 30 days. You may be wondering, is it possible to write 50,000 words in 30 days without it being a crap draft? Yes! You can write 50,000 good words on your novel in as little as a month, as long as you prepare yourself. After helping thousands of authors develop the skills to hit huge word counts in a short period of time, I've found one thing in common across all authors, at all skill levels, from those who have never written a novel to those who publish professionally... This one thing not only helps writers get their book to make sense (and read well!) on paper, but also helps them write it faster in the first place... And it's simple: You must know what you are going to write before you write it. That's it! The results? Most writers can at least double their writing speed (some can triple it), meaning they can do twice as many words in the same time period as they were doing before. Additionally, these writers encounter fewer bouts of writer's block and are more likely to see their book in print down the line. Novel Writing Prep takes you through a simple, flexible, easy-to-implement outlining process that will give you a skeleton of ideas for completing a marathon writing month. And best of all—you can go through all 30 planning prompts in just a few minutes a day over 30 days, or you can complete a pizza-and-netflix-and-writing binge over a weekend. Doesn't matter your skill level, your writing experience, or how you prefer to write a first draft. For plotters, pantsers, newbies, veterans, and everyone in between—let Novel Writing Prep help you plan your novel before writing it, so you can write an awesome book faster. Are you ready to go all in and say “yes!” to a fun-filled, exciting, productive adventure in writing? The world needs your book! Grab Novel Writing Prep today and make it happen.

Mortality in the novel "The Fault in Our Stars" by John Green. An exploration of the theme with reference to the cancer patients Hazel Grace and Augustus Waters Rahul Gautam, 2016-08-23 Essay from the year 2015 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies - Literature, , course: IB English, language: English, abstract: “The Fault In Our Stars” is a tragic love story that deals with the sufferings and deaths of cancer patients. John Green borrows the title of the story from Shakespeare’s Julius Caesar, wherein Cassius says, “The fault dear Brutus is not in our stars but in ourselves that we are underlings.” But contrary to what Cassius says, this story establishes the conundrum that we are helpless before our destiny. In Green’s novel, Hazel and Augustus are lovers, not unlike “Antony and Cleopatra”, and “Romeo and Juliet.” But what separates them from the legendary lovers is the fact that they are born with cancer in their cells. Their story, although of great love and compassion, will not be written in the pages of history.
