On The Z Bar 3 Jack Swenson,2010-05-06 Dallas rode the buttes and ravines of the Z bar 3 Ranch that had been handed down through the family for over a hundred years. It was his turn to lead the Ziglar Empire and he had failed. The drought, prairie fires and the low cattle prices all made it impossible to pay off the big mortgage hanging over his head. Storytime and Beyond Kathy Barco,Melanie Borski-Howard,2018-10-10 Join the world of balloons, pancakes, and musical instruments—just a few items to help improve early literacy in the library, the classroom, and at home. Literacy-builders covered range from music and instruments to magnetic letters, alphabet beads, and food. Literacy is a popular topic of discussion among librarians. Especially important is early literacy, what children know about reading and writing before they can actually read and write. In this book, experienced librarians Kathy Barco and Melanie Borski-Howard share hands-on techniques that they have used to successfully promote early literacy and encourage family involvement. Storytime and Beyond teaches readers how to use literacy doodads—inexpensive props that add excitement to storytimes and can be used outside the library or classroom—to enhance the basic components of any early literacy program: talking, singing, reading, writing, and playing. Many of the doodads can be created as family do-it-yourself projects, and some can be adapted to work with non-readers of any age. Instruments can also be a great way to get children's attention and teach literacy skills, whether it's a drum to beat while reading a story or a maraca for children to shake during a song, and lesson plans for musical storytimes address how to use rhythm, singing, and dancing to make early literacy fun.
