Quotes of Many Colours Naomi Alatishe,2019-12-21 Quotes of Many Colours is a collection of verses, life philosophies and diverse taglines of different aspects of life. It also challenges readers to come up with the lessons they have learnt in life too by writing it down in the space provided (for paperback readers; and e-readers can put down their favourite quotes in the comment section or share their personal ones) at the end of the book. Our behaviours are largely influenced by a set of opinions (positives or negatives) we keep gathering through out our lifetime. These viewpoints are based on individual experiences, observations, repetitions, backgrounds, environment, culture, faith and personalities. If not reviewed or reevaluated constantly we are prone to repeat same results in our lives. These are the reasons for long-term habits, attracting same outcomes and personalities. This is what is popularly called Paradigm Shift and the journey to that is to come first to an awareness that we have such mindset then set out to do something about it by coming up with ours. The book can be read in a relaxed way or for more serious activity like a presentation or when you feel down and need a lift or indecisive about an issue, it can help readers see from a completely different perspective or accentuate your own. This book will help you embark on that journey. Give it as a gift to a friend to perhaps help them see life from a different and healthier school of thought.
