Dermot A. Lane

Texting Faith, Hope, and Love JoAnn Willoughby Hays, 2023-05-22 I started writing down favorite scriptures, quotes, and sayings in fifth or sixth grade. I taught children's Bible classes for 42 years and public school classes for 29 years and I always found a way to use many of the quotes and sayings in all my classes. I still get excited when I see a great quote in a book or magazine, or even on a T-shirt. I have four grandchildren I adore, and I don't get to see them as often as I did when they were children, or during the pandemic. Cale is a graduate of Oklahoma Christian University and is busy with his career. Mackenzie will be a senior at the University of Oklahoma. Tate is a newlywed and is attending the Oklahoma State University's Fire Academy to become a firefighter, and our youngest, Danny, is a 6'4 basketball player who will be a junior at Edmond Memorial High School. I found a quote a few years ago from the gymnast, Gabby Douglas. She said, By now, you've probably caught on to something: my mother is always standing by with just the right scripture or inspirational saying to get me through any tough situation. I was so blessed to have my grandchildren living in the same town when they were growing up and all four of them were in my sixth grade Sunday school class. I think all of us who are grandmothers want to be like Timothy's grandmother, Lois. I read Gabby's quote and realized how important that was to her. I can't stand by my grandchildren, but I thought I can text scriptures and quotes to them. Also, Corrie ten Boom's book, The Hiding Place came out when my girls were babies. I read it during their nap times. I also watched as many of her interviews as I could. She and her family were Christians in Holland and hid hundreds of Jews being smuggled to safety in a secret hiding place in their combination home and watch and clock repair store. Her entire family was caught by the Nazis and sent to concentration camps. They weren't allowed Bibles, so they taught people using the scriptures they had memorized. I heard her tell a story of finding a broken piece of pencil and writing scriptures down on little scraps of paper and giving them to people to give them hope. That inspired me to memorize more scriptures, so I could always have a Bible close to me. I started texting scriptures and different quotes to my grandkids group once or twice a week. I prayed that this would keep them in the Word and remind them their words and actions need to glorify God. One night I needed to send a new text and it took me about thirty minutes to write one and send it. I remember thinking I wish I could go online or go to Mardel's store to find a book that had the type of devotionals I wanted. My next thought was why don't I write one. I'm retired and I already have over thirty devotionals finished. I could just add about a hundred more and I would have a book of devotionals. I said a prayer and started compiling my devotion lesson plan book the next day.

Mountain Top Life Daily Devotional 2023 Dr. D. K. Olukoya, Life-changing encounter with the God that answers by fire through a daily devotional. Its enriching and edifying. Start your day right with God.

Church Growth Our Father God'S Way Velma Davies, 2017-09-26 These are fifty personal letters to Christian pastors and all Holy Bible teachers and fifty prophetic messages from our heavenly Father God. Father God says that if they will preach one sermon a week using one of these prophetic messages for reference for fifty weeks, in one year, their church attendance will double, and their church income will double. It is based on the leaders souls growth in God. As the leaders souls grow in God, their sermons will improve, and people will be fed more of Jesus and more of the Bible. As spiritually hungry people are well-fed, they will return for more and bring their families and friends.

Faith in the Crisis Rev. Dr. Adrian Smith, 2023-12-21 Faith in the Crisis by Rev. Dr. Adrian R. Smith artfully navigates the tumult of global calamities, grounding its roots firmly in the throes of the COVID-19 pandemic. An emblem of spiritual resilience, this work brilliantly unfolds the essence of unwavering faith in divine providence amidst life's uncertainties. It is not merely a book but a companionship that guides believers through the shadows of adversity into the light of hope and trust in God's enduring love and grace. Rev. Smith orchestrates a symphony of biblical narratives, intertwined with contemporary struggles, cultivating a garden where faith blossoms amidst the crisis. He encourages believers to adorn the masks of hope, social distance themselves from despair, and lockdown fear, illuminating paths towards spiritual triumph and divine trust. Faith in the Crisis is more than a spiritual guide; it is a beacon of hope, resonating with wisdom, encouraging believers to emerge resiliently from the abyss of life's tribulations, fortified with an enriched and unwavering faith.

Nature Praising God Dermot A. Lane, 2023-03-15 During the lockdown caused by the Covid-19 crisis, streets were emptied, churches closed, and a relationship with nature developed in which questions to be asked again in light of the crisis arose: Is God present in nature? Is communion with God in nature possible? Is there a relationship between the God of creation, the God of history, and the God we worship in Sunday liturgies? In Nature Praising God, Dermot Lane explores these questions by returning to the Bible. The Christian tradition shows that nature is understood as a living community, is graced by God, and has a sacramental character. He suggests that readers change their perception of how nature is traditionally regarded as a resource for human needs—and embrace a new way of praising God through an appreciation of and care for the myriad life forms on earth. The result of these explorations is the outline of a new theology of nature praising God, with lessons for the way we worship God in our churches today.

Africa Bible Commentary, Second Edition Zondervan, 2025-10-28 The first edition of Africa Bible Commentary was a ground-breaking publishing event--the first one-volume Bible commentary produced in Africa by African theologians to meet the needs of African pastors, students, and lay leaders. Interpreting and applying the Bible in the light of African cultures and realities today. Now, this revised and updated second edition, almost twenty years after the release of the first, continues to bring powerful and relevant insights into the biblical text. Bringing together over 100 gifted scholars from across the continent, and interacting with recent scholarship and issues that face African Christians today, this new edition raises the benchmark set by its predecessor all those years ago. Ideal for students of the Bible and preachers both in Africa and around the world, this updated edition has over 40% new and extensively revised commentaries across the Old and New Testament. Deepening the contextual relevance of the commentary, this second edition boasts seventy-five new articles, resulting in 122 articles that provide insight into the most pertinent issues facing the church in Africa today. Key features: Produced by African biblical scholars, in Africa, for Africa--and for the world Section-by-section interpretive commentary and application More than 70 special articles dealing with topics of key importance for ministry in Africa today, but that have global implications 70 African contributors from both English- and French-speaking countries Transcends the African context with insights into the biblical text and the Christian faith for readers worldwide
