El Infierno Tan Temido Juan Carlos Onetti, 1962

Onetti Elena M. Martínez, 1992-01-01 Onetti: estrategias textuales y operaciones del lector desmonta las estrategias de la narrativa del escritor uruguayo Juan Carlos Onetti desde la perspectiva de la teoría del lector. Investiga los procedimientos que sustentan sus textos: la construcción del personaje; la metaficción, la intertextualidad, la función del narrador y la articulación de la historia. La autora parte de la teoría de los críticos alemanes Hans Robert Jauss y Wolfgang Iser, cuyo enfoque se centra en el lector. El resultado es un libro útil, tanto para el crítico literario, como para el escritor.

Latin American Films, 1932-1994 Ronald Schwartz, 2015-09-17 In 1931 Antonio Moreno completed Santa, Mexico's first true sound film. In it he established one of the foremost genres of Latin American cinema--the popular melodrama--which continues to this day. Latin American filmmakers came to the fore in the fifties and sixties and, as 1992's Como agua para chocolate (Like Water for Chocolate) showed, Latin American films continue to be a major part of the international film scene. In this work over 300 of the most significant films from Argentina, Brazil, Cuba, Mexico, Bolivia, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru and other Latin American countries are covered. Each entry includes the English title, director, year of release, running time, language, country and a detailed plot synopsis. Notes about the production and the filmmakers are also provided for many entries.

Teaching the Latin American Boom Lucille Kerr, Alejandro Herrero-Olaizola, 2015-09-01 In the decade from the early 1960s to the early 1970s, Latin American authors found themselves writing for a new audience in both Latin America and Spain and in an ideologically charged climate as the Cold War found another focus in the Cuban Revolution. The writers who emerged in this energized cultural moment--among others, Julio Cortázar (Argentina), Guillermo Cabrera Infante (Cuba), José Donoso (Chile), Carlos Fuentes (Mexico), Gabriel García Márquez (Colombia), Manuel Puig (Argentina), and Mario Varas Llosa (Peru)--experimented with narrative forms that sometimes bore a vexed relation to the changing political situations of Latin America. This volume provides a wide range of options for teaching the complexities of the Boom, explores the influence of Boom works and authors, presents different frameworks for thinking about the Boom, proposes ways to approach it in the classroom, and provides resources for selecting materials for courses.

La nariz de Gógol Leda Rendón,2022-01-04 Quienes se sienten más orgullosos de los libros que han leído que de los libros que han escrito reflejan sin duda una herencia que Jorge Luis Borges, por poner un ejemplo, nos dejó a todos y al mismo tiempo reafirman que la lectura es un acto creativo. Leda Rendón reúne en este libro, La nariz de Gógol, 55 textos a los que llama híbridos y con sobrada razón, pues parten de la experiencia de la autora con la lectura de obras fundamentales de la literatura universal y transitan, a veces de inmediato, a la ficción plena. Tal vez la mayor dificultad que conlleva el ejercicio de la crítica literaria sea distinguir entre un juicio de valor, que es una manera de generalizar, y la expresión de una mera experiencia personal. En los textos del presente volumen, encontramos que esa dificultad no es tal para Leda Rendón, quien se basa en un ejercicio crítico para desbordar su imaginación y la de sus lectores.

Concise Encyclopedia of Latin American Literature Verity Smith,2014-01-14 The Concise Encyclopedia includes: all entries on topics and countries, cited by many reviewers as being among the best entries in the book; entries on the 50 leading writers in Latin America from colonial times to the present; and detailed articles on some 50 important works in this literature-those who read and studied in the English-speaking world.

Three Authors of Alienation M. Ian Adams,2014-01-09 As a philosophical and social concept, alienation covers a broad range of mental states, both normal and abnormal. Correspondingly, a wide range of literary forms has been employed to deal with this important theme. In Three Authors of Alienation, an exploration of the literary expression of alienation, M. Ian Adams discusses the works of three contemporary Latin American authors. The fiction of María Luisa Bombal, Juan Carlos Onetti, and Alejo Carpentier reflects alienation, disgust with life, and a feeling of nothingness arising from the conditions of modern society. However, each author treats the theme differently. In La última niebla, María Luisa Bombal uses poetic imagery to create the emotional life of the protagonist. Juan Carlos Onetti portrays the schizoid extreme of alienation with a complex of symbols based on changes of vision caused by the mental states of his characters. In Los pasos perdidos, Alejo Carpentier presents the problem of the modern alienated artist who attempts to rid himself of his social alienation by changing times and cultures. In his close analysis of the works discussed, Adams considers each literary element in its context and also in terms of its relation to the larger artistic vision of the author. In addition, he places the works of the three authors in the greater perspective of modern social problems by discussing the concepts of social alienation proposed by Erich Fromm and Erich Kahler. His conclusion is that, although disgust with life and feelings of meaninglessness are at the heart of the experiences of the characters of all three authors, only in Alejo Carpentier's Los pasos perdidos are social conditions the major cause of alienation. In the works of Bombal and Onetti, alienation is a result not of social conditions, but of factors unique to the characters' personalities and circumstances. Three Authors of Alienation is a solid contribution to criticism of contemporary Latin American narrative. Adams's projection of a social problem into the realm of aesthetic experience yields intriguing interpretations of both the problem and the literature.
