The Thought of Mao Tse-Tung Stuart Reynolds Schram,1989-07-13 Professor Schram offers a fascinating and sure-footed analysis of Mao's intellectual itinerary.

Quotations from Chairman Mao Tse-tung Mao Tse-tung,2024-11-06 Quotations from Chairman Mao Tse-tung, also known as the Little Red Book, is a compilation of statements and sayings by Mao Tse-tung (Mao Zedong), the founding father of the People's Republic of China. Published in 1966, it was a key tool in the Cultural Revolution, a decade-long sociopolitical movement aimed at purging remnants of capitalist and traditional elements from Chinese society. The book's popularity stemmed from its concise and accessible language, making Mao's ideology accessible to a broad audience. It served as a source of inspiration and guidance for Red Guards and other supporters of the Cultural Revolution, promoting revolutionary zeal and encouraging them to follow Mao's path. The book contains various themes, such as class struggle, continuous revolution, self-reliance, and the importance of the masses. Mao's revolutionary spirit, his emphasis on the role of the people in shaping history, and his call for constant struggle against capitalist and revisionist forces resonated with a generation eager for change. However, the book's influence extended beyond China, inspiring revolutionary movements around the world. It became a symbol of communist ideology and a testament to the power of propaganda, demonstrating how a carefully curated collection of words could shape political discourse and influence social movements. While the Cultural Revolution has been widely criticized for its excesses and its impact on Chinese society, Quotations from Chairman Mao Tse-tung remains a significant historical artifact. It reflects the complex and often brutal political climate of China in the 1960s and 1970s and provides valuable insights into the dynamics of revolutionary movements, the power of ideology, and the relationship between a leader and their followers. Analyzing the book allows us to understand the complexities of Maoism, the cultural context of the Cultural Revolution, and the enduring impact of Mao Zedong's legacy on China and the world.

Selected Works of Mao Tse-Tung Mao Tse-Tung, 2001-08 Mao Tse-tung founded the People's Republic of China in 1949. He had also been one of the founders of the Chinese Communist party in 1921, and he is regarded, along with Karl Marx and V. I. Lenin, as one of the three great theorists of Marxian communism. Mao Tse-tung was born on Dec. 26, 1893, into a well-to-do peasant family in Shao-shan, Hunan province. As a Marxist thinker and the leader of a socialist state, Mao gave theoretical legitimacy to the continuation of class struggle in the socialist and communist stages of development. He stressed the importance of land redistribution for the benefit of the rural peasantry, and his theories have strongly influenced the nonindustrialized Third World. This book includes important articles Mao wrote in the different periods of the Chinese revolution. A number of editions of his articles have appeared in various places, but none of them had been gone over by the author; their arrangement is haphazard, there were errors in the text, and certain important writings were omitted. The contents of the present edition are arranged in chronological order and according to the main periods in the history of the Communist Party of China since its foundation in 1922. The present edition includes a number of important writings not included in the earlier editions. Mao has read all the articles, made certain verbal changes and, in isolated cases, revised the text. This book covers the periods of the First Revolutionary Civil War (1924-27) and of the Second Revolutionary Civil War (1927-37).
