

Marina Abramovic Rhythm

Sherri Irvin

Modern Art Pam Meecham, Julie Sheldon, 2005 Revised and restructured, this second edition of Modern Art traces the historical and contemporary contexts for understanding modern art movements, and the theories that influenced and attempted to explain them. Its radical approach foregoes the chronological approach to art movements in favour of looking at the ways in which art has been understood. The editors investigate the main developments in art interpretation and draw examples from a wide range of genres including painting, sculpture, photography, installation and performance art. This second edition has been fully updated to include many more examples of recent art practice, as well as an expanded glossary and comprehensive marginal notes providing definitions of key terms. Extensively illustrated with a wide range of visual examples, Modern Art is the essential textbook for students of art history.

The Routledge International Handbook of Art Therapy Practice Margaret Hills de Zárate, Diane Waller, Claire Louise Vaculik, 2025-12-26 This book offers a snapshot of the international state of the art in art therapy. The range of work included does not come from one school, theoretical approach, or one type of creative practice, but instead shows the inherent ability of the art therapist to see what is present and to adapt, flexibly and creatively, to meet the unique needs of people and contexts. The chapters are organised under five broad-ranging themes—art therapy across the life cycle, theoretical frameworks, areas of practice, new developments, and policies—and are written by a diverse range of newer voices from countries where art therapy is starting to gain ground as well as a variety of internationally renowned practitioners and academics. The handbook speaks to the breadth and richness in contemporary art therapy practice around the world. The case studies and examples demonstrate the ways in which art therapists are managing the challenges and opportunities in their socio-political context, drawing links to existing art traditions and supportive practices in their culture, and working to address contemporary challenges. This book is essential for students and professionals of art therapy, drama, dance movement, and music therapy.

Performing Endurance Lara Shalson, 2018-10-18 In Performing Endurance, Lara Shalson offers a new way of understanding acts of endurance in art and political contexts. Examining a range of performances from the 1960s to the present, including influential performance art works by Marina Abramović, Chris Burden, Tehching Hsieh, Linda Montano, Yoko Ono, and others, as well as protest actions from the lunch counter sit-ins of the US civil rights movement to protest camps in the twenty-first century, this book provides a formal account of endurance and illuminates its ethical and political significance. Endurance, Shalson argues, raises vital questions about what it means to exist as a body that both acts and is acted upon, from ethical questions about how we respond to the bodies of others to political questions about how we live in relation to institutions that shape life in fundamental ways. In addition, Performing Endurance rethinks how performance itself endures over time.

Marina Abramović Mary Elizabeth Richards, 2010 Marina Abramovic's legendary performances have earned her the title of 'The Grandmother of Performance Art'. Her extreme and challenging pieces focus on the relationship between the performer and their audience, and the role of the body and the mind in performance art.

"I am Jugoslovenka!" Jasmina Tumbas, 2022-02-22 "I am Jugoslovenka" argues that queer-feminist artistic and political resistance were paradoxically enabled by socialist Yugoslavia's unique history of patriarchy and women's emancipation. Spanning performance and conceptual art, video works, film and pop music, lesbian activism and press photos of female snipers in the Yugoslav wars, the book analyses feminist resistance in a range of performative actions that manifest the radical embodiment of Yugoslavia's anti-fascist, transnational and feminist legacies. It covers celebrated and lesser-known artists from the 1970s to today, including Marina Abramovic, Sanja Ivekovic, Vlasta Delimar, Tanja Ostojic, Selma Selman and Helena Janecic, along with music legends Lepa Brena and Ema Redžepova. "I am Jugoslovenka" tells a unique story of women's resistance through the intersection of feminism, socialism and nationalism in East European visual culture.

Immaterial Sherri Irvin, 2022 Contemporary art can seem chaotic: sometimes it made of weird things, sometimes it just comprises ideas. Sherri Irvin shows that, despite these unruly appearances, making rules is a key part of what many contemporary artists do: they use rules to create distinctive meanings and to provide powerful immersive experiences.

New Makers of Modern Culture Wintle Justin, 2013-05-13 New Makers of Modern Culture is the successor to the classic reference works Makers of Modern Culture and Makers of Nineteenth-Century Culture, published by Routledge in the early 1980s. The set was extremely successful and continues to be used to this day, due to the high quality of the writing, the distinguished contributors, and the cultural sensitivity shown in the selection of those individuals included. New Makers of Modern Culture takes into full account the rise and fall of reputation and influence over the last twenty-five years and the epochal changes that have occurred: the demise of Marxism and the collapse of the Soviet Union; the rise and fall of postmodernism; the eruption of Islamic fundamentalism; the triumph of the Internet. Containing over eight hundred essay-style entries, and covering the period from 1850 to the present, New Makers includes artists, writers, dramatists, architects, philosophers, anthropologists, scientists, sociologists, major political figures, composers, film-makers and many other culturally significant individuals and is thoroughly international in its purview. Next to Karl Marx is Bob Marley, next to John Ruskin is Salman Rushdie, alongside Darwin is Luigi Dallapiccola, Deng Xiaoping runs shoulders with Jacques Derrida, Julia Kristeva with Kropotkin. Once again, Wintle has enlisted the services of many distinguished writers and leading academics, such as Sam Beer, Bernard Crick, Edward Seidensticker and Paul Preston. In a few cases, for example Michael Holroyd and Philip Larkin, contributors are themselves the subject of entries. With its global reach, New Makers of Modern Culture provides a multi-voiced witness of the contemporary thinking world. The entries carry short bibliographies and there is thorough cross-referencing. There is an index of names and key terms.

Marina Abramović Marina Abramović, Germano Celant, 2001 Marina Abramovic's entire artistic philosophy revolves around energy.

New Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2016-04-22 New Makers of Modern Culture will be widely acquired by both higher education and public libraries. Bibliographies are attached to entries and there is thorough cross-referencing.

7 Easy Pieces Marina Abramović, 2007 Interview by Nancy Spector. Text by Marina Abramovic, Erika Fischer-Lichte, Sandra Umathum.

The 'Do-it-Yourself' Artwork Anna Deuze, 2010-08-15 Viewers of contemporary art are often invited to involve themselves actively in artworks, by entering installations, touching objects, performing instructions or clicking on interactive websites. Why have artists sought to engage spectators in these new forms of participation? In what ways does active participation affect the viewer's experience and the status of the artwork? Spanning a range of practices including kinetic art, happenings, environments, performance, installations, relational and new media art from the 1950s to the present, this critical anthology sheds light on the history and specificity of artworks that only come to life when you -- the viewer -- are invited to do it yourself. Rather than a specialist topic in the history of twentieth- and twenty-first century art, the do-it-yourself artwork raises broader issues concerning the role of the viewer in art, the status of the artwork, and the socio-political relations between art and its contexts.

Marina Abramovic. Performing body. Ediz. italiana e inglese Marina Abramovic, Dobrila Denegri, Studio Stefania Miscetti (Rome, Italy), 1998 Questo libro documenta il ritorno dell'artista a Roma nel 1997 dopo vent'anni di assenza. Marina Abramovic, nata a Belgrado, ha insegnato alla Hochschule di Berlino e all'Accademia di Parigi, ha partecipato a Documenta di Kassel, alla Biennale di Venezia e a mostre ed eventi in musei di tutto il mondo. Attualmente vive tra Parigi e Amsterdam. Il perfetto dominio che ha su di sé l'ha portata a farsi vedere avvolta da pitoni e in cammino per mesi sulla Grande Muraglia cinese. Da questa grande forza interiore scaturisce uno dei messaggi di maggior integrità, crudezza ed insieme energia di trasformazione.

Speaking of Art William Furlong, 2010-03-31 Begun in 1973, Audio Arts is a one-of-a-kind venture: an audio magazine of new interviews with the world's most important contemporary artists. Distributed in cassette format until 2002 and on CD from 2003-07, the interviews in Audio Arts have never before been published. Speaking of Art collects the 50 best interviews from the Audio Arts archive. These range from towering figures in art history (Joseph Beuys, Frank Stella, John Cage) to the current stars of the contemporary scene (Wolfgang Tillmans, Thomas Demand, Mike Nelson). At a future date all 350 interview transcripts from the Audio Arts archive will be unveiled on the Phaidon web site, creating an unparalleled online resource that will be a trove for artists, students, researchers and art fans everywhere.

Ulay/Abramović Ulay, 1997 Book surveying the performance works that Ulay and Abramović made together including the seminal pieces 'Rest Energy' and 'The Lovers Great Wall Walk'. The book clearly lays out directions for each piece together with details of duration, installations, dates and locations opposite images of the two artists performing the work. An interview and opening statement by the artists gives their views on how their performances should be documented on video. A clear and beautifully designed publication that acts as an important reference for performance art in general.

Subjective Realities Refco Group, Adam Brooks, 2003 Edited by Adam Brooks. Essays by Lynne Cooke, Dave Hickey, A.M. Homes, David Rimanelli and Katy Siegel. Introduction by Judith Russi Kirshner.

Veiled Histories Anna Novakov, 1997 As public space becomes saturated by corporate culture, a new generation of artists is emerging. While much interest has been generated by the recent politicization of public art, until now no single book has looked at how artists committed to reclaiming art for the public have addressed the role of the body. This book, which presents projects by seven artists, is an important document on the changing perception of the body in contemporary public art.
