Plinio Corrêa de Oliveira

Plinio Corrêa de Oliveira Roberto de Mattei, 2019-03-14 The thought and spirituality of Plinio Corrêa de Oliveira, founder of the Brazilian Society for the Defense of Tradition, Family and Property (TFP) and affiliated associations in other countries. Divided into four parts: I. The Philosophical System; II. The Spiritual School; III. Theology of History; IV. The Prophetic Mission.

Plinio Corrêa de Oliveira , 2017-05-13 A summary of the five-volume collection, published by Libreria Editrice Vaticana, entitled The Gift of Wisdom in the Mind, Life and Work of Plinio Corrêa de Oliveira, by the founder of the Heralds of the Gospel, Msgr. João Scognamiglio Clá Dias, EP.

The Crusader of the 20th Century Roberto De Mattei, 1998

Brazil, Land of the Past: The Ideological Roots of the New Right Georg Wink, 2021-12-01 Brazil, Land of the Past scrutinizes the ideological roots of the so-called New Right in Brazil. The book traces the continuity and resilience of a system of thought based on the idea of a God-given hierarchical order to be defended against any social contract and modernizing relativization. It explains in detail how today a diverse movement — which includes actors ranging from the authoritarian Bolsonaro wing to economic liberals to the military to both Catholic and evangelical religious conservatives — assumes unanimously the ideas of this tradition as underlying premises of their political action. Though not always explicitly, this drives the self-declared “liberal-conservative” but rather anti-modernist reaction which claims to liberate an imaginary authentic “Brazil” from an aberrant “State” — and in so doing intends to preserve inherited privilege in an extremely unequal society.

Plinio Andrea F. Phillips, 2010-10-01 Plinio is the faith-filled and action-packed life of Professor Plinio Correa de Oliveira (1908-1995), a Catholic leader who dedicated his life to counter the liberal, atheistic, egalitarian and secularist culture of the twentieth century. While still a young boy, gifted with a brilliant mind and a rare gift of discernment, Professor Correa de Oliveira fell in love with the remnants of Christian civilization and pledged his life to defend it. With a determination rare in men, and supported by a tender devotion to the Mother of God, he confronted the errors of his times with great sagacity and wisdom, taking every opportunity to force the Church's enemies to retreat. Among his many accomplishments, Professor Correa de Oliveira is the founder of the Brazilian Society for the Defense of Tradition, Family and Property (TFP), and inspirer of autonomous sister organizations in 25 countries around the world.

Abuse in the Latin American Church Véronique Lecaros, Ana Lourdes Suárez, 2024-04-01 This book addresses the crisis of sexual abuse in the Roman Catholic Church in Latin America, the region of the world with the highest percentage of Catholics. Bringing together research from across the continent, it demonstrates that abuse within the Church is indeed a global phenomenon, though abuses have taken different forms according to varying sociocultural contexts. With attention to abuses committed against children, women and vulnerable adults – by both men and women – within the settings of parishes, new religious movements and international religious organizations, it also raises questions of justice, asking how to assess the suffering of victims, how to deal with abusers and how to prevent abuses. It will therefore be of interest to scholars of religious studies, sociology, Latin American studies, criminology, theology, and religious leaders with interests in the abuses and scandals that have been revealed in the worldwide Church.

Social, Political, and Religious Movements in the Modern Americas Pablo A. Baisotti, 2021-12-30 This volume explores several notable themes related to social, political, and religious movements in Latin America and offers insightful historical perspectives to understand national, regional, and global issues from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day. This volume's collected chapters focus on the Latin American society and are divided into three sections. The first section, Social, presents some cultural, demographic, and urban changes that have occurred with increasing frequency in Latin America from the early twentieth century onward. The second section, Political, shows migratory, political, and identity movements that in recent decades have re-emerged with force. Finally, the third section, Religious, analyzes various Latin American religious visions with their particular characteristics. From the religious hegemony of Catholicism, a change in the religious panorama in the last decades can be seen intermingled with politics, history, and society.

Moral Majorities across the Americas Benjamin A. Cowan, 2021-04-06 This new history of the Christian right does not stop at national or religious boundaries. Benjamin A. Cowan chronicles the advent of a hemispheric religious movement whose current power and influence make headlines and generate no small amount of shock in Brazil and the United States. These two countries, Cowan argues, played host to the principal activists and institutions who collaboratively fashioned the ascendant religious conservatism of the late twentieth century. Cowan not only unearths the deep historical connections between Brazilian and U.S. religious conservatives but also proves just how essential Brazilian thinkers, activists, and institutions were to engendering right-wing political power in the Americas. Cowan shows that both Protestant and Catholic religious warriors began to commune in the 1930s around a passionate aversion to mainstream ecumenicalism and moderate political ideas. Brazilian intellectuals, politicians, religious leaders, and captains of industry worked with partners at home and in the United States to build a united right. Together, activists engaged in a series of reactionary theological discussions. Their transnational, transdenominational platform fostered a sense of common cause and allowed them to develop a series of strategies that pushed once marginal ideas to the center of public discourse, reshaped religious demographics, and effected a rightward shift in politics across two continents.

Contrasts and contests about philosophy Mogobe Ramose, 2018-04-19 The sheer variety of socio-political events and technological advancements which affect modern society, and the speed and intensity at which these events occur around the world, delivers change known as epistemic and social transformation. Within this context, the question of justice for all is a poignant one. It is a cognitive revolution challenging humankind to consider whether or not the already contested meaning of philosophy can remain unchanged. The contributions to Contrasts and contests about philosophy address this challenge from a variety of different, and even contending, perspectives. This book was originally published as a special issue of the South African Journal of Philosophy.

Miguel Pro Marisol López-Menéndez, 2016-05-20 Miguel Pro: Martyrdom and Politics in Twentieth-Century Mexico examines the complex relationship of modern martyrdom as preserved by memory and factual truth, and as retold through stories intended to impel political and religious aims. Martyr narratives depend on institutional affiliation to remain in the public memory, and are altered in order to maintain their ability to mobilize followers within changing social and political contexts. In order to examine the evolution of lasting martyr narratives, López-Menéndez scrutinizes the various renditions of the 1927 execution of Miguel Pro, a Jesuit priest caught in the bloody conflict between Catholics and the post-revolutionary state.
