

Acceptance Letter From Harvard

Dennis S. O'Leary MD

Admission Certificate and Letter of Acceptance to Harvard University for Harold Hyman Schivek Harold Hyman Schivek,1934 The collection consists of a certificate of admission for Shivek as a candidate for a bachelor's degree; the certificate is dated July 18, 1934, and signed by A. F. Whittem, Acting Chairman of Committee on Admission. The certificate is accompanied by a form letter for admitted students, dated July 16, 1934; the letter warns that financial aid is improbable and employment is hard to obtain and recommends that students defer registration if they do not have the means to pay the fixed charges. Both of the documents have been laminated; they are accompanied by the original envelope, which gives Schivek's address as Roxbury, Massachusetts.

Made to Count Bob Reccord,Randy Singer,2005-10-09 We all desperately want to leave a positive imprint on the world. We want to leave things and people better than we found them - to be remembered well. And so, we dread the idea that, in the end, our lives might not count for much. Made to Count drives straight to the heart of that fear of failure. It will help you discover your God-designed purpose - to find your life's true meaning and live your life's greatest passion. Using eight powerful biblical principles that are revolutionizing people's lives, as well as the fascinating stories of those changed by them, Reccord and Singer teach you how to hear God's call and discover His specific plan for you. These principles transcend time, cultures, and occupations. They are broadly universal and, yet, individually unique. This astonishing book can change your life . . . then you can change your world. Read it now and discover the potential you have to make a significant difference in the world - how you have been divinely made to count.

Calming America Dennis S. O'Leary MD, 2022-09-16 Pot Luck Spokesman? The information void in the hours following the shooting of US President Ronald Reagan late Monday afternoon, March 30, 1981, spawned many false rumors and misinformation, which White House political adviser Lyn Nofziger understood threatened the credibility of the White House. He therefore took the podium before the 200 plus assembled press in Ross Hall to tell them that he would be bringing with him a credible physician to brief them once the president was out of surgery. However, he didn't have many options to draw from for that credible physician. At the hospital, the surgeons tending the three shooting victims had first-hand information about the afternoon's events, but each surgeon knew only about his own injured patient. White House physician Dan Ruge meanwhile had been at the president's side throughout the afternoon and was a possible candidate, but his White House association made his credibility suspect according to White House aides. The job became the drafting of the most logical person to be spokesman. That would have been the seasoned physician CEO of the George Washington University Medical Center Ron Kaufman, but he was out of town. Next up was Dennis O'Leary, the physician dean for clinical affairs, as the preferred spokesman. To the White House, O'Leary was a total unknown, but a review of his credentials would hardly have been reassuring. He had originally been recruited to George Washington University as a blood specialist. Reticent by nature, he had minimal public-relations and public-speaking experience, save two years as a member of his hometown high school debate team. He had no surgical or trauma training or experience. But beggars can't be choosers, as the saying goes. Kindly stated, O'Leary was probably the least bad choice to serve as White House/hospital spokesman to inform the world of the status of the wounded President Reagan, special agent Tim McCarthy, and press secretary Jim Brady. Yet, with a little bit of luck, it might all work out. And it did.

The Headmaster's Darlings Katherine Clark, 2015-08-18 A debut novelist casts a satirical eye at southern society while celebrating the power of great teachers in this award-winning comedy of manners. Winner of the 2015 Willie Morris Award for Southern Fiction As an English teacher at an elite private school in Mountain Brook, Alabama, Norman Laney is as unorthodox as he is morbidly obese. A natural wonder from the blue-collar South, Laney has barged into the exclusive world of Mountain Brook with a mission to defeat "the barbarians," introduce true civilization in place of its thin veneer, and change his southern world for the better. Laney is adored by his students and by the society ladies who rely on him to lead their book clubs and charm their party guests. But there are others who think he is a larger-than-life menace to the status quo. When Laney is suddenly faced with an ultimatum and his imminent dismissal, he must outflank the principal at his own underhanded game, find out who said what about him and why, and launch his current crop of Alabama students into the wider world—or at least into Ivy League colleges.

Hit the Bid Nathaniel F. Herreshoff, 2013-09-15 A deliciously raw look inside one of the most exclusive derivatives desks on Wall Street, not only at the peak of the bubble, but also at the depths of the crisis. Mr. Herreshoff's self deprecating and often times hilarious anecdotes leave the reader with a radically different take on both Wall Street and the Financial Crisis. Magnificently written and marvelously entertaining.

Scholarly Papers From A Brooklyn College Columbia MBA Analyzing Selected Political & Business Issues Christopher A. Puello, 2008 Four of these essays originally appeared in the author's: Papers from a Harvard/Yale man: examples of college work. New York: iUniverse, c2007.

The Saga of Toi and Me -- A Memoir Merredith F. Perkins, Ph.D., 2017-02-14 The Saga of Toi and Me - A Memoir by Merredith F. Perkins, Ph. D. The Saga of Toi and Me — A Memoir is about our environment, family, and ancestry. It's about how the actions of love can be influential and powerful. Saga is about taking risks and learning something that is beneath the surface of our being that makes us fight for our productive lives. It's about being down, but getting up. It's about harnessing a power that we found in ourselves that propelled us forward. Power. This memoir is for "mothers, daughters, fathers and sons, and families" who use their interwoven strength to struggle through circumstances of loss and love. My story is for all to read about examples of how resilience, perseverance, and the strength in each of us propels us to develop a power in handling the matters that we can control and matters that we can't, self-power that is taught via a people support system. My survival has to be based on my power of determination to do so... and to have newly defined fun along the way. Toi has "unleashed" me to do just that. Looking back and laughing is cathartic, that is what The Saga of Toi and Me — A Memoir is all about.
