One of Us Is Next Karen M. McManus,2023-05-02 #1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • There's a new mystery to solve at Bayview High, and there's a whole new set of rules. The highly anticipated sequel to One of Us Is Lying! Come on, Bayview, you know you've missed this. A ton of copycat gossip apps have popped up since Simon died, but in the year since the Bayview four were cleared of his shocking death, no one's been able to fill the gossip void quite like he could. The problem is no one has the facts. Until now. This time it's not an app, though—it's a game. Truth or Dare. Phoebe's the first target. If you choose not to play, it's a truth. And hers is dark. Then comes Maeve and she should know better—always choose the dare. But by the time Knox is about to be tagged, things have gotten dangerous. The dares have become deadly, and if Maeve learned anything from Bronwyn last year, it's that they can't count on the police for help. Or protection. Simon's gone, but someone's determined to keep his legacy at Bayview High alive. And the rules have changed. Fans of the hit thriller that started it all can watch the secrets of the Bayview Four be revealed in the One of Us is Lying TV series now streaming on NBC's Peacock!

A Christian Worldview Primer for Twenty-First-Century Americans Stephen Heath, 2024-12-20 This primer begins by introducing the basic concepts of worldview. It then outlines Christianity's answers to the worldview questions of origins, purpose, and destiny. As a primer is wider than it is deep, this one sets forth only broadly those concepts that shape the Christian worldview. It seeks to provide a bird's eye view of the story of God's revelation for those who have begun their faith journey without necessarily having had the benefit of an in-depth instruction in the faith. It makes no claim to be a substitute for lifelong study and hopes, ultimately, to raise interest in and steer the reader toward that needed deeper understanding.

Toward that end, it sets forth that conceptually Christianity's answers to worldview questions are built on a recognition that Christianity is revealed religion. Its God reveals himself, not as one but as three in one. His revelation takes place at specific times and places through chosen individuals and groups. Christianity has a history with a unique focus on the life, ministry, death, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus Christ. The story of the events leading to that focus has been recorded for us in the Hebrew Scriptures, and the story of God's revelation continues to be spread through the New Testament church. The church is sustained by the Holy Spirit through worship and prayer. Believers live in a context of faith, love, and hope. Their mission is to serve others and to share with the world God's message of creation (and fall), judgment, and redemption. Christianity's understanding of the universe and life and law within it is unique, comprehensive, and coherent. In every age, the Christian worldview confronts a competing worldview which wrests authority from God and claims autonomy for humanity itself. At this time and place, the world on its own opposes the Christian worldview in many ways. These ways include matters of authority, truth, rights, sex, social justice, the relationship between religion and politics, and society's dependence on three basic independent institutions: the family, a religious institution, and a civic one. This primer seeks to make the believer aware of these relationships and the differences between Christianity's understandings of them and those of the world. It ends on a note of hope, remembering the words of our Lord, Be of good cheer, for I have overcome the world.

Happiness: a Choice Barbara A. McLeroy, 2020-12-20 We truly are the creators of our life, moment to moment, by the current story we are telling. Learning to notice the story, take responsibility as the teller and being willing to see differently when necessary is the key to happiness. The choice to see differently is always ours. It is the free will with which we are all gifted.
