Performance and Portfolio Assessment for Language Minority Students Lorraine Valdez Pierce,J. Michael O'Malley,1992

Language Arts Mildred R. Donoghue,2008-08-05 A clear introduction for the teaching of language and communication.

Pathways to Literacy Trevor Cairney,1995-11-02 This text recognizes that there is no simple way to develop literacy. It begins with the central premise that literacy is not simply a cognitive process, but a set of social practices used in socio-cultural contexts, and argues that literacy learners come to school with unique social histories that need to be recognised in the programmes devised to facilitate learning. Cairney claims that literacy is not a unitary social practice and suggests that there are many forms of literacy, each with specific purposes and contexts in which they are used. The author provides a look at the many practical classroom strategies and practices that are necessary to recognize multiple pathways to literacy.

Writing Instruction and Assessment for English Language Learners K-8 Susan Lenski,Frances Verbruggen,2010-04-22 A 'must read' for all teachers of ELLs in mainstream and ESL classrooms...The book presents step-by-step ways to implement innovative methods and activities, emphasizing the importance of carefully planning instruction and creating a culture of collaboration in a school. I found the cross-cultural information about writing very important for understanding the interaction of native language and writing development in English.-Carla Paciotto, EdD, Western Illinois University --

A Nuts-and-Bolts Approach to Teaching Nursing Jeanne Novotny,Mary T. Quinn Griffin,2006-06-12 This revised and updated edition of this down-to-earth survival manual is for those who are new to teaching, and for those who need a quick refresher course. Brimming with practical pointers and dozens of timesaving tables and checklists, this volume includes strategies you will need to make clinical assignments, select the right textbooks, construct and analyze student tests, facilitate student learning of technology, prepare and present lectures, and much more. - Publisher.

Classroom Assessment for Teachers Jo D. Gallagher,1998 For courses in classroom assessment where the focus is on how to write, construct, and use assessments as a teacher in the classroom. Also includes coverage of basic measurement theory. This book is designed to bridge the gap between research and K-12 practice in the area of student assessment by presenting practical procedures and guidelines teachers can realistically implement in their busy classrooms. The text focuses on the nuts and bolts of how to write, construct, and use assessments in the classroom, but it also covers and applies the basics of reliability and validity.

Teaching Reading in Today's Middle Schools Betty D. Roe, Sandy H. Smith, 2004-10 This text combines a research-based approach to reading instruction with the theories, issues, and strategies most relevant to prospective middle-school teachers. The authors promote a balanced approach to literacy instruction that includes active learning, cooperative learning, and critical-thinking strategies. These strategies and their applications empower teachers to become key decision makers in their students' literacy programs.

Classroom Assessment for Students in Special and General Education Cathleen G. Spinelli, 2006 For courses in Assessment in Special Education. Written for future teachers and experienced educators, Classroom Assessment for Students in Special and General Education, second edition provides the skills needed to effectively use assessment, particularly informal assessment, in understanding the needs of the whole student. The primary text on classroom assessment procedures is now revised with the latest in authentic, curriculum and performance-based assessment measures with direct connections to instruction, IEP development, and reporting to parents. The focus is on providing teachers with a variety of assessment procedures, the why, what and how of testing, directions on how to construct, administer, score, interpret, graph, monitor, write, and report assessment results.
