A COMPENDIUM OF CLASSIC AND POSTMODERN NOVEL SUMMARIES Vivian Siahaan,2019-08-03 This book is comprised of a compendium of summaries from all novels that I have read for almost twelve years. Obviously, the summaries have been documented on my blog since 2016, and seemingly, in my opinion, it is better bundled in a book form since the statistic views show that the classic fictions are those among most read, so I rose to comply with that demand. The purpose for which I devote myself to compose 85 summaries is to provide quick reading for novel readers and students. Numerous genres are presented because I am quite conscious those will bequeath you an imaginative horizon. As a work of art, many of them transcend their expiatory aspects. And still more important to us than scientific significance and literary worth is the inspirational impact those novels have on serious readers. Finally, happy reading and I hope you will find this book useful.

Sycamore Row by John Grisham, one of the best novelists and storytellers, is a highly acclaimed book which is in fact a sequel to A Time To Kill. Gray Mountain: by John Grisham | Summary & Analysis Elite Summaries, Published in 2014, Gray Mountain is a legal thriller focusing on strip mining for coal. It is set in Appalachia, a town in eastern America. This story centers around a lawyer named Donovan Gray who is a big character in such a small town and certainly to Samantha Kofer. Samantha is new to the area from New York, and having previously worked in the capital's biggest law firm is feeling decidedly out of place. Set in the times after the Great Recession, we see third-year graduate Samantha learning on her feet in a small town that plays by its own rules. After the economy taking a nose dive, Samantha finds herself far from her former dreams of earning huge wages in New York. She is desperate to keep the benefits of her former role and has arrived at Appalachia on the promise of being taken back if the company finds itself in credit again. While working under Mattie Wyatt at the Mountain Legal Aid Clinic, she soon learns what a tough world she has entered where coal miners have little to no rights, even riddled with disease solely attributable to their working environment. This novel by John Grisham beautifully captures both the stunning scenery that the story is set in, but of the colliding worlds of face paced New York and the slow but deadly Appalachia. Donovan Gray is the nephew of Mattie Wyatt and is on a mission to tackle the big bosses of the strip coal mining world. In doing so, John Grisham enlightens us to the dangers of this world and the damage it is doing to both the environment and the people working in it. Highlighting the extremity of the work, Donovan takes on a heartbreaking case where an upended boulder rolls down and flattens a worker's house, killing his two boys inside. The story then hones in on the proceeding court case and Donovan seeking justice asking for a settlement. Samantha meanwhile is involved in a love interest, and also abused by men in the town. * A highly researched book that was written with assistance from Mary Cromer, an attorney for Appalachian Citizen Law Center. *Written by the Mississippi born John Grisham who has seen many of his books become on-screen portrayals. *Worldwide best seller in the thriller field. *Takes an insightful look into the contrasts of city life, exploring the impact of the Great Recession and also the terrible working conditions of those working in coal mining. p.p1 {margin: 0.0px 0.0px 10.0px 0.0px; font: 15.0px Arial; color: #555555; -webkit-text-stroke: #555555} span.s1 {font-kerning: none; background-color: #ffffff} span.s2 {font-kerning: none}
