Contemporary Strategic Chinese American Business Negotiations and Market Entry Steven J. Clarke, 2023-01-01 This book is an effort to provide a “primary source”, a guide for Chinese/American cross-cultural negotiations, which has been constructed and amassed by professionals living and working in China. Research included personal interviews, surveys, case studies, face-to-face negotiations, and consulting, melded with a broad body of international business. This book that has two focuses, China market entry and negotiations, Both China and the United States are vast, complex markets, with different histories and cultures. China market entry requires extensive research and understanding, of the inextricably linked elements of (a) how business is managed in China, (b) understanding the China market, and (c) negotiating all elements of your China market entry and ongoing business. To be successful in China, your firm will face these elements in terms of explicable and solvable activities. Research into data, theory, and perceptual cultural differences between your firm and your Chinese counterparts adds magnitude to your China overall business strategy, and mandatory and essential negotiations.

Proceedings of the 2025 5th International Conference on Enterprise Management and Economic Development (ICEMED 2025) Prasad Siba Borah, Norhayati Zakuan, Nazimah Hussin, Azlina Binti Md Yassin, 2025-08-14 This is an open access book. 2025 5th International Conference on Enterprise Management and Economic Development (ICEMED 2025) will be held in Dali, China from May 30 to June 1, 2025. Enterprise management is the general term for a series of functions such as organizing, planning, commanding, supervising and regulating the production and operation activities of enterprises. Relative to economic growth, economic development is the core concept of development economics. Economic development refers to the high-quality development of the economy, including quality and quantity, rather than merely the growth of quantity. Enterprise management covers economics, management, business management, financial management, human resource management and other aspects, and is a comprehensive interdisciplinary science that spans natural science, engineering science, technical science and humanities and social science. Enterprise management comes into being with the development of modern socialized mass production. The use of modern management means and methods to manage enterprises, ensure the survival and development of enterprises, and play a positive role in promoting economic development ICEMED 2025 will bring together experts and scholars from relevant fields to discuss the relationship between enterprise management and economic development. Reasonable enterprise management is an important way to promote the economic development of enterprises. Scientific and reasonable use of industrial and commercial enterprise management knowledge can reasonably carry out effective macro-control on the enterprise economy and ensure the stable progress and development of the enterprise economy.

Global Corporate Strategy - Honda Case Study Alexander Berger, 2011-07 Research Paper (undergraduate) from the year 2011 in the subject Business economics - Trade and Distribution, grade: 70, University of Sunderland, course: Global Corporate Strategy, language: English, abstract: The report is divided into four parts. The first part will analyse the current situation of Honda, which gives the reader insight in the current state of Honda's business. The second part will present different dichotomies and analyse how Honda has dealt with them in the past. In the third part, the differences between the western management model and the Japanese management will be analysed and then related to Honda's management concept. In addition, cultural influences based on Hofstede will be presented. The last part deals with corporate social responsibility and Corporate Governance focussing on Honda, Nissan, and Chrysler. Within the automobile industry, there exists a high intensity of rivalry. Automobile manufacturers are seeking for innovative strategies in order to be successful in the long-term. In addition, the highly debated topic global warming also puts pressure on the automobile manufacturers forcing them to develop new low emission cars and be more responsible for the society. The Honda Motor Company is a shining example for setting up flexible innovative strategies, which fit into a fast changing environment.

The Importance of Small- and Medium-sized Enterprises in Russia in relation to the other BRIC countries

Mario Schuler,2014-05-21 Diploma Thesis from the year 2014 in the subject Economics - International Economic Relations, grade: 1, University of Linz (International Management), language: English, abstract: This diploma thesis provides an overview of the contemporary debate about the importance of small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) in the BRIC countries with a special focus on Russia. Conclusions are based on historical perspectives showing that there are huge country-specific divergences and concepts of supporting SMEs. In contrast to multi-national corporations (MNCs), which are not uncommonly supported by the government of the fast-developing country they stem from respectively they are entering and can continue their triumph easily, SMEs often face tremendous difficulties to establish themselves. While the engine of the economy of industrialized countries are SMEs, it seems as if BRICs, especially Russia, struggle to provide appropriate incentives for the foundation of domestic SMEs in order to boost the economic driving force which interviews.

E-Commerce in Times of Amazon. Chances and Risks for E-tailers Samuel Weihrauch,2021-07-26 Master's Thesis from the year 2018 in the subject Business economics - Trade and Distribution, grade: 1,00, Cologne University of Applied Sciences (Informatik), course: Web Science / E-Commerce, language: English, abstract: The internet has revolutionised the way people shop and electronic commerce has reshaped the retail landscape dramatically. It suddenly allowed small companies to reach out to millions of potential customers and lowered market entry barriers significantly in areas where once only big retail companies competed against each other. But the times when small companies could create online shops and compete with the big players are almost over yet again, and Amazon catalyses this change by seizing a growing share of the whole online retail market. Every second dollar spent online in the US is already spent on the Amazon.com marketplace and the trend in the German market is going in the same direction. The fact that a significant number of overall online sales are generated on the Amazon marketplace impacts other e-tailers. They must react to market concentration and consider whether or not they want to sell their products on Amazon. There are many opportunities and risks that can result from cooperation with Amazon but there is a lack of papers and books that consider both aspects at the same time, quantifying them, weighing each up against the other, and deriving conclusions from it. The aim of this thesis is to close the aforementioned gap in available literature by presenting the current market situation in the e-commerce and analysing the signs of a further market concentration, in order to provide evidence of the problematic situation small and medium-sized enterprises (SME) are in. The thesis then examines the option of cooperating with Amazon as a possible solution to react on this trend and therefore researches the possible chances and risks that could arise through such cooperation. Those insights are thereafter incorporated into a strategic recommendation for e-tailers who consider selling on Amazon. Furthermore, a selling guide which was evaluated in practice, depicts how a company could sell products successfully on the marketplace. In the end, this thesis should contribute to e-tailers' knowledge about the current and future market situation in e-commerce. In addition, the insights presented should support e-tailers' decision making process when they are confronted with the question of cooperating with the e-commerce giant or not.
