Wednesday's Child Rhea Côté Robbins, 1999 Wednesday's Child is the winner of the Maine Chapbook Award. It is in its fourth printing. It is taught in many university courses. This is a book about a female growing up, living in, trying to leave her cultural self behind, and then returning to the Franco-American cultural group which exists in the Northeast, and more specifically in Waterville, Maine. The book addresses what has been asked of me to be present to this cultural group of people. As a girl/woman who or how have I been asked to be? What has been asked of me? The book is written from the perspective of a contemporary woman who is also a historical person. The book is also as much about the conditions in which the Franco-American group exists as well as the writing about what it means to be Franco-American and female. This is a book about how we are our historical self while we are in the present. I am more of my past--than I am of the present moment--when it is in the present moment that I now exist. What is, or is not, reflected in my reality and the reality of other Franco-Americans? This book is about the female self and her formation through the many individuals and institutions around her. Through story and cultural filters, the book illustrates family, friends, religion, health, alcoholism, superstitions, art & craft, beliefs, values, song, recipe, story, coming-of-age, generations, motherhood, language, bilingualism, denials, sexuality and what constitutes a cultural individual in a society that will not always allow that person full access or realization to who she is. But she does it anyway.

Seven Days of Destiny Peter A. LaPorta, 2024-12-11 Love is new. Love is fresh. Love is young. Love is old. Love is sunshine and rain, darkness and rainbows, and every emotion in between. Love is eternal. Love is love. Seven Days of Destiny is a collection of seven short stories of love spanning generations and time. Each story is a unique approach to the world that intersects lives and blend hearts as one. Sunday Services, explores the chance encounter late in life's journey that warms the coldest of hearts at any age. Mondays at the Mall, gives us love as an escape from the responsibilities and burdens of the daily grind. Tolerant Tuesdays, will take you back in time to a dark chapter in history, imagining a love that could never be realized. Wednesday-Spaghetti Day explores the old world concept of arranged marriage and raises the question whether to marry for love or for the honor of the family name. Thursday Walks in the Garden, shows us that even in the beauty of nature lies the ugliness of the human spirit, where every rosebush has its share of thorns. Friday Night Musical Revue, is a love potion best drank through the power of music and the promise of the tomorrow. Saturday at the Shadowland Ranch, explores the road to romance as it is driven across the great plains of destiny. Peter A. LaPorta will take you on a journey of the heart, exploring human emotion as it transcends time and location. Like life, love can be messy. It may fail through self-destruction or by the product of outside influences. LaPorta reminds us that all love stories do not have fairy tale endings, but there is always hope in the eternal search for happiness.

Hoopi Shoopi Donna Suzanne Strempek Shea, 2010-06-15 Growing up in a small New England town, 14 year-old Donna Milewski had all she needed: a grandmother, Babci, whose fragrant cooking filled their home...her mother, Helen, who lovingly stitched outfits...and Adam, the most wonderful father a daughter could imagine, who dreamed she could one day lead an all-girl polka band. Then came Betty, a tiny and adorable five-year-old, sent from Poland by Adam's destitute brother. Bringing with her only a rubber doll's leg and her old-world charm, Betty became the little sister Donna never had -- and a threat to her father's love. During a long and painful rift, a dance of betrayal and hurt, Donna must look to her beloved polka music for the key to healing.

But this year, his new teacher isn't amused. And when Justin gets in trouble with Mr. Tripp over and over, the other kids turn on him, too. No one wants to be friends with the class troublemaker. But Justin Fisher isn't going down without a fight.

A Journey GW Staufenberg, 2016-08-22 The book is about a journey on four continents Europe, Africa, Asia and the Americas alongside sharing my personal life story. With the subtitle, Beyond Native Boundaries, I suggest more than leaving home but leaving behind personal realities I was born into. Moreover, in the second part, I reflect on my experiences; here I share my observations made along the way.
