Patrick Kilby

Contemporary Politics in Australia Rodney Smith, Ariadne Vromen, Ian Cook, 2012-02-02 A diverse range of experts provide a comprehensive introduction to current theories, debates and research in Australian political science.

Australia's Human Rights Scrutiny Regime Adam Fletcher, 2018-09-17 In 2010 the Australian Government decided that it would not propose a Human Rights Act, despite the relevant recommendation of the 2008-09 National Human Rights Consultation. Instead, it introduced a Human Rights Framework comprising several measures to enhance human rights protection, including the Human Rights (Parliamentary Scrutiny) Act 2011. The scrutiny regime under that Act was designed to ensure rights would be given due consideration before Commonwealth legislation was passed. The Act created a unique 'bipartite dialogue' system, involving a formal interchange on rights compatibility between the executive and Parliament, while excluding the courts. This set the Commonwealth apart from jurisdictions such as the ACT, Victoria, New Zealand and the UK, which have statutory rights instruments administered by their courts. The book presents a detailed study of all aspects of the scrutiny regime, and compares the regime with its closest counterparts overseas. In assessing the regime's impact, it argues that a system in which the executive and Parliament are responsible both for protecting rights and for remedying rights breaches is neither more legitimate nor more effective than one involving all three branches of government. Accordingly, it calls for strengthening reforms.

Student Equity in Australian Higher Education Andrew Harvey, Catherine Burnheim, Matthew Brett, 2016-03-29 This book examines twenty-five years of the Australian framework for student equity in higher education, A Fair Chance for All. Divided into two sections, the book reflects on the legacy of equity policy in higher education, the effectiveness of current approaches, and the likely challenges facing future policymakers. The first section explores the creation of the framework, including the major elements of the policy, the political context of its development, and how it compares with international models developed during the same period. The performance of the six student equity groups identified within the framework is also examined. The second section of the book considers future trends and challenges. The Australian university sector has undergone seismic change in the past twenty-five years and faces further changes of equal magnitude. The twenty-fifth anniversary of A Fair Chance for All comes as Australian higher education is poised for another wave of transformation, with rising expansion, competition, and stratification. While the emerging landscape is new, the questions have changed little since A Fair Chance for All was first conceived: How should we define student equity, and what policies are likely to promote it?

Imperial Crime and Punishment Emma D. Watkins,Eleanor Bland,2025-10-06 Seeking to redress the traditional focus of historical criminology on the West and Global North, Imperial Crime and Punishment brings a fresh perspective to this burgeoning field by drawing instead on imperial contexts.

Australian Politics in the Twenty-First Century Stewart Jackson,Joff Lelliott,Shannon Brincat,Josephine Bourne,Nick Economou,2022-09-02 Australian Politics in the Twenty-First Century is an invaluable introduction to the Australian political system.

Social Inequality in Australia Daphne Habibis,Maggie Walter,2009 Social Inequality: Australia at the Crossroads provides comprehensive coverage of the key dimensions of the nature and extent of inequality and difference in Australian society. Incorporating debates about the effects of globalization on inequality and difference in Australia, it also considers the role of culture in the social reproduction of hierarchy and difference. Arguments about the nature of inequality are 'tested' against empirical evidence, and case studies in each chapter provide examples to aid understanding.

'For those who've come across the seas...' Andrew Jakubowicz, Christina Ho,2014-02-15

Confronting Racism in Australia, Canada, and New Zealand Jock Collins,1995

Australia's Rural and Remote Health Janie Dade Smith,2004 This examination of rural health services provision explains the concepts, questions the bureaucratic systems, and explores the opportunities for change. It paints real faces onto the rural health landscape using innovative storytelling techniques, historical accounts, and real life experience, supported by broad literature.

Citizenship and Citizenship Education in Australia Joan Geralyn DeJaeghere,2002

Making Social Policy in Australia Tony Dalton,1996 This work offers an introduction to the theory and practice of social policy making in Australia. Using detailed case studies, it discusses the ideas and values used by different groups to influence the policy process. It shows how social policy is made in different organizations.
