Christ, the "I Am" Ken Lenz, 2022-06-02 This book explores the seven "I Am" metaphors of Christ, as recorded in John's Gospel account. Additional insights from both the literary context of the surrounding passage, as well as the cultural/historical context in which Jesus taught, will help the reader to better understand and apply these teachings. More extensive commentaries on both the first and last statements are also offered since they have been widely misunderstood—including Christ as the "Bread of Life" (John 6) and as the "True Vine" (John 15). Whether you are a Christian believer or not, this book has much for everyone—to secure a relationship with the Savior and mature in fellowship with Him.

Who Jesus Is The Navigators, Jack Kuhatschek, 2022-09-06 Over 3 million LifeChange studies sold When you ask people today who they think Jesus is, you will get a variety of answers. Some will reply that Jesus was the greatest teacher who ever lived. Others will say he was a wonderful moral example, a prophet, or even the Son of God. But when you ask these same people whether they have ever read the first-century accounts about Jesus' life and ministry in the four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John), many will admit that they have not read them. So their views of Jesus often reflect who they want him to be, not who he really is. In this LifeChange topical Bible study we look at eight amazing "I Am" statements Jesus made about himself. Each one reveals that the Messiah and Savior is far greater and more powerful than anyone could have imagined. Jesus wants every Christian to know who he is and what he has done for us. This LifeChange topical Bible study helps you achieve that goal. The LifeChange Topical studies are optimized for small group use. Every study is broken down into 8-9 sessions of about 45 minutes. Each session includes: Questions, interpretation, and application of a passage to the topic Personally focused "Your Response" question "For Further Study" section that gives readers another passage to explore around the topic Callouts that include language study, historical context, and illuminating quotes from commentaries

The Great I Am Ronald J. Lavin, 1995 Who is Jesus Christ? These fourteen chapters answer that question in his own words: I AM the light of the world... I AM the way, the truth and the life... I AM the Good Shepherd... I AM the alpha and the omega... Why a book on the I AM sayings of Jesus? Because so much of our religious emphasis today focuses on feeling more fulfilled... or improving our relationships with others. While these are important and have their place in our discussions, this book puts the emphasis on the place of God in our lives. The questions are practical: What shall I believe? What shall I do? And so Lavin writes for the people in the pews as well as for their pastors. When Ron Lavin preaches it is close to the ground, relevant for the right now, absent of high-sounding theological verbiage, and reveals a big pastor's heart. Read the book for exhilarating ideas for your own preaching, digest the book one chapter at a time to gain a better understanding of what it means to be a follower of Christ in these turbulent, fast changing '90s. Prepare To Be Impressed. Jerry L. Schmalenberger, President Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary Ronald J. Lavin is senior pastor of King of Glory Lutheran Church in Fountain Valley, California: He is an active, dynamic preacher and public speaker, conducting workshops and seminars in the areas of church growth and small group development throughout the western United States. He has served on boards of directors for LCA and ELCA national committees and seminaries. He is well-known for pastoring two congregations that have increased between 1,000 and 2,000 in membership during his tenure. He is the author of ten books (seven published by CSS) and numerous articles.

The Power of The Word J A Russell, 2014-11-07 When we hear a second-hand account of an event or a conversation, its true content can be distorted. When we read a biography we gain an insight into, rather than a full impression of, a person's life. In the Gospels, Jesus as if gives us His autobiography, speaking in the first person saying I Am, giving His own testimony, His true account. Scripture tells us that 'In Him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell'; this book looks at some of the ways in which Jesus fearlessly describes Himself, giving His followers confidence to call upon Him, for when we seek so shall we find.

The I Am Statements of Jesus W. M. Henry, 2019-01-07 One popular aspect of Jesus' teaching is His description of Himself using the formula I am... Important lessons have been learned from studying the ways in which He is the light of the world, the good shepherd and so on. But what exactly did Jesus mean by the phrase I am? The words in Greek are ego eimi and when we examine the way Jesus uses this phrase, we discover that He is doing much more than making descriptive statements about Himself. This book explores how Jesus uses the expression ego eimi in John's Gospel and considers something of what it means.

The Eight I Am Statements in the Gospel of John James Thomas Lee, Jr., 2015-03-08 In his gospel, the Apostle John had recorded eight occasions when Jesus had made metaphorical statements about Himself. In chapter one of this text however, the evidence to show that he had actually written the gospel by his name will first be presented. One should note from that discussion that that gospel had not always had his name associated with it. Therefore, there had initially been room for some doubt. One should also note that not everyone agrees about when that gospel had been written. So that will also be a matter for discussion. Finally, chapter one will also consider some of the important reasons that that gospel had even been written. Following those discussions, chapter two will begin looking at each of the eight I AM statements. Jesus had initially said in John 6:35 that He is the bread of life. After that, He had said that He is the light of the world. He had said that He is the great I am. However, the point of note about those three statements is that they had all been made during the first half of the last year of His public ministry. That is known because of John 6:4, which says, And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh. That verse had referred to the third Passover of the four that Jesus had attended during His public ministry. It had also preceded His first I AM statement which as was just indicated above had been in John 6:35. After that, He had said that He is the door of the sheep. He had said that He is the good shepherd. Those statements had probably been in December. The final three of His I AM statements had been made either near the end of the final week or during the final week of His public ministry. In the matter with Lot and with his sisters, Jesus had said that He is the resurrection and the life. A few days later, He had told His disciples that He is the way, the truth, and the life. Then before going to the cross, He had said that He is the true vine. Those eight I AM statements only appear in the gospel of John. So that means that John has given to the world descriptions of Jesus that are not available from any of the other gospel writers. Therefore, those descriptions of Him are very important because they help individuals understand more about Jesus in much the same way as the names of God in the Old Testament help one better understand more about Him. In fact, based upon the whole of Scriptures, Jesus having said that He is the I AM during His discussion about Abraham with the Pharisees and with the Jewish people is probably the most important I AM statement of the eight. The reason is because it proves that He was not just born as a human being that had later become a god. That statement by Him literally shows that He had existed even before Abraham despite the fact that Abraham had lived about two thousand years before. Thus, that statement as much as any statement in the Scriptures shows that Jesus is eternal and that He is truly the Lord and the Son of God. As always, the hope in writing this book will be that the reader will be drawn into a closer relationship with the Lord. While it may not be terribly important to understand everything about Him, there is certainly nothing wrong with knowing a lot about Him. So in closing this introduction and just to be clear, Jesus is the Lord. He is the Savior. He offered Himself on the cross at Calvary to pay the sin debt for everyone that will come to Him by faith in the right spirit and with the right attitude. Therefore, He is truly worthy of everyone's consideration, acceptance, and worship.
