(2) In books where there are images such as portraits, maps, sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images, so they represent accurately the original artefact. Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts, we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy.

An Exegesis of Jeremiah 31:31-34 James Clark Woods,1976

The Old Testament and the Significance of Jesus Fredrick Carlson Holmgren,1999 A perennial question throughout the history of the Christian faith has centered on the character of the Old Testament and its relationship to Jesus Christ. It is in this area that Christians and Jews have parted ways, creating a deep and enduring chasm between the two faith communities. With this new volume, Fredrick Holmgren aids in closing this hurtful breach by engaging with views on both sides of this important conversation. Holmgren dialogues with Christians from every point on the theological spectrum, urging the church to a new respect for the Jewish Bible, the enduring role of the Old Testament as Christian scripture, and the valuable contributions of Judaism to the Christian faith. Warning the church against either caricaturing the Old Testament and Judaism or romanticizing Christianity, Holmgren sensitively shows that the New Testament proclamation of newness in Christ carries forward the witness of the Old Testament without making obsolete its Jewish interpretation.

New Covenant with God Predicted in the Hebrew Bible by the Prophet Jeremiah Michael Dow,2020-07-27 The LORD declared through the prophet Jeremiah that he would establish a new covenant with the people of Israel. He said it would not be like the previous covenant when he led the Israelites out of the land of Egypt. He said the new covenant would involve Him writing his law on the hearts of His people. He said no longer will a man need to tell his fellow citizen to know the LORD, because all will know Him. He said this is because he will forgive Israel's sin and remember it no more. Jesus is the new covenant. His sacrificial death as a sin offering to God brought the forgiveness of sins once and for all. This book has 88 English translations of Jeremiah 31: 31-34. It also has 41 questions in the Appendix to help guide a bible study discussion.

The New Covenant William Henry Oxtoby, 2018-01-30 Excerpt from The New Covenant: Jeremiah 31; 31 34; Inaugural Address A strong argument in favor of the authenticity of the passage is its harmony, both in language and thought, with recognized Jeremianic prophecies. And it is also true that the passage forms an appropriate climax to the teaching of the prophet of Anathoth. Reward, Punishment, and Forgiveness Joze Krasovec, 2014-09-03 This book deals with central and universal issues of reward, punishment and forgiveness for the first time in a compact and comprehensive way. Until now these themes have received far too little attention in scholarly research both in their own right and in their interrelationship. The scope of this study is to present them in relation to the foundations of our culture. These and related issues are treated primarily within the Hebrew Bible, using the methods of literary analysis. The centrality of these themes in all religions and all cultures has resulted, however, in a comparative investigation, drawing attention to the problem of terminology, the importance of Greek culture for the European tradition, and the fusion of Greek and Jewish-Christian cultures in our modern philosophical and theological systems. This broad perspective shows that the biblical personalist understanding of divine authority and of human righteousness or guilt provides the personalist key to the search for reconciliation in a divided world.

In Your Mouth and In Your Heart Colin J. Smothers, 2022-08-12 Paul's use of Deuteronomy 30 in Romans 10 has puzzled interpreters and led to many divergent readings. In this book, Smothers argues that what Paul has found in Deuteronomy 30:11-14 is a prophetic promise of righteousness which he declares fulfilled in the gospel of the Lord Jesus, the message of the righteousness of faith. By quoting Deuteronomy 30:12-14 in Romans 10 as the content of the message of the righteousness of faith over against Leviticus 18:5 and the righteousness of the law in Romans 10:5-8, Paul proclaims a promise fulfilled in accord with the original meaning of the text written by Moses in Deuteronomy. More precisely, Paul reads Deuteronomy 30:11-14 as an extension of the reality foretold in Deuteronomy 30:1-10, which points forward to the new covenant experience of faith-empowered obedience, or heart circumcision, which includes the internalization of the word of God--the eschatological torah--by the Spirit of God.
