Larry A. Samovar, Jack Mills

Speaking Across the Curriculum, 2004 Speaking Across the Curriculum gives teachers ready-made speaking and listening activities that can be infused into any curriculum. Over 50 activities help teachers encourage debate and discussion and teach students speaking and listening skills. Activities also help students analyze and evaluate arguments and sources, including web sites.

Public Speaking Basics Michael A. Griffin, 2009 Public Speaking Basics provides a semester's worth of information and exercises to help college students master public speaking. There is an emphasis on creating good thesis sentences and on using effective forms of outlining. A sample speech is provided with each of the six different speaking assignments.--BOOK JACKET.

The Competent Public Speaker Sherwyn P. Morreale, 2010 Based on the National Communication Association's conceptual model for teaching and evaluating undergraduate public speeches (as developed by the author and others), Sherwyn P. Morreale offers a highly accessible, easy-to-teach, easy-to-learn approach to public speaking. The approach adopted in the text includes eight public speaking competencies - four on speech preparation and four on speech delivery - which are enhanced by emphasizing the impact of technology, ethics, culture, and diversity on public speaking. A number of unique features designed to improve teaching and learning include: - Students used as examples in each chapter so that readers can follow them as they learn about public speaking; - Tables and boxed text to reinforce the most important learning points; - Checkpoint and self-assessment tools so that readers can determine their level of competence and find out whether they are ready to proceed to the next chapter; - Competence-building activities for students to apply chapter concepts and practice public speaking strategies in the classroom or as take-home assignments; - An accompanying website which is updated on a regular basis and offers a forum for students to contact the author. Designed for introductory-level public speaking courses taught at two- and four-year colleges and universities, this text offers a distinctively practical alternative for students and teachers to achieve consistency across multiple sections of the public speaking course. An instructor's manual is available on request.

Speech Preparation Osborn, Suzanne Osborn, 2006-06 This practical workbook presents a wealth of outline worksheets, guidelines, and checklists to help students navigate through the speech preparation process. The materials correspond with topics presented in the public speaking course, including the self-introductory speech, analyzing audience, selecting topics, conducting research, organizing supporting materials, and outlining speeches. A Survey of Human Communication Michael A. Griffin, 2015-12-14 This textbook provides a survey of the Speech and Communication Studies areas of Communication, focusing on human communication through the transactional model of communication. There is a unique money talk section in the Relationship Communication chapter, an in-depth problem-solving exercise with sample content information in the Small Group/Organizational Communication chapter, an overview of controversial Intercultural topics in the Intercultural Communication chapter that can be optional reading, and a step-by-step process for learning how to write thesis sentences in one of the Public Speaking chapters. In addition, instructions for and samples of seven different types of speeches are provided, as well as evaluation forms, to give instructors suitable choices.

New Sales Speak Terri L. Sjodin, 2001-05-10 A nationally recognized presentation coach offers her prescription for giving persuasive presentations This valuable primer was written for managers and selling professionals who give one-to-one presentations. Terri Sjodin pinpoints the nine biggest mistakes presenters make- including lack of preparation, providing too much information, being boring, an over reliance on visual aids, quirky body language, and inappropriate dress- and shows them how to avoid making them. More importantly, she provides priceless pointers on how to build a persuasive case and to deliver it with savvy, and how to find the energy, enthusiasm, and creativity needed to complete the sale. The book features a unique focus on how to develop and deliver persuasive messages. Plus, it provides step-by-step guidance on developing and employing the communications skills needed to be a successful presenter.
