

Parole Pop Corn Sal

William A. Haskins, Joseph M. Staudacher

Report of the Superintendent, Treasurer and Parole Officer of the Industrial School of New Hampshire at Manchester for the ... Period Ending ... New Hampshire. Industrial School, 1885

Prison Ragout Pop, 2004-11 Prison Ragout describes Pop's experience as a first-timer, 58 year-old, Ph.D., white guy during seventeen months of incarceration. The book portrays the other inmates, the COs and the psychological impact of the penal system. From county jail Pop is transferred to a classification center. Controlling the tier TV and fear of HIV were the major cultural factors. A medical exam confirms Pop's hypertension and a recent back operation and results in a stipulation that he is to have a bottom bunk and be given a job requiring minimum use of arms and shoulders. Upon returning to the tier the COs tears up the medical stipulation. Pop is assigned to a prison where the medical system 'runs out' of hypertension medication. Pop is given a job on the kitchen cleanup crew; work requiring lots of use of arms and shoulders. Pop changes cellmates four times. One is a lifer who is a jailhouse lawyer. Another filched food from the officer's dining room (with the acquiescence of the COs) and sells it on the tier. A third played the stock market. The fourth was a racist and studying for a GED. Inmates get killed, OD, and commit suicide, but the greatest harm is caused by the inhumane environment. The book shows that violence and brutality can take subtle forms.

No Horse Wanted Shannon Kennedy, 2013-09-20 The only thing that Robin Gibson wants for her sixteenth birthday is a 1968 Presidential Blue Mustang. Following their family tradition, what her parents promise her is a horse of her own, one with four legs, not four wheels. Mom competes in endurance riding, Dad does calf roping, her older brother games and her older sister loves three-day eventing, but Robin proudly says that she doesn't do horses. She'll teach her controlling family a lesson by bringing home the worst horse she can find, a starved, abused two-year-old named Twaziem. Robin figures she'll nurse him back to health, sell him, and have the money for her car. Rescuing and rehabilitating the Morab gelding might be a bigger challenge than what she planned. He comes between her and her family. He upsets her friends when she looks after his needs first. Is he just an investment or is he part of her future? And if she lets him into her heart will she win or will she lose?

Burning Meredith Elizabeth Gunn, 2018-06-01 A local reporter discovers murder amid the debris of a Montana mountain fire in this thriller series debut by the author of the Sarah Burke Mysteries. In Clark's Fort, Montana, a fire on Meredith Mountain burns through Labor Day weekend. It is a terrifying sight, leaving a trail of havoc and destruction in its wake. Alice Adams, editor of the Clark's Fort Guardian, is determined to get the whole story with the help of her reporter nephew, Stuart Campbell. But when the fire is finally contained, the mop-up crew discover the burned body of a man under a fallen log. Suddenly Alice and Stuart have a new story to investigate. It appears that the man died in the fire. But with no ID, and nobody able to identify the body, Alice and Stuart are determined to find out who the man was and what he was doing on Meredith Mountain. Could the stranger have been connected to the town's growing opioid problem?

La promessa Rachel Eliza Griffiths, 2025-02-18 Estate, 1957. Le sorelle Kindred, Ezra e Cinthy sono cresciute in un ambiente pieno d'amore. L'amore dei genitori, che le hanno fatte sognare, convincendole che i desideri espressi guardando il cielo stellato possono diventare realtà. L'amore dei vicini, i Junkett, l'unica altra famiglia afroamericana in città, la cui casa profuma di costolette speziate e caldi abbracci. E, infine, l'amore di Salt Point, il loro villaggio adottivo nel New England, un piccolo gioiello arroccato sulle scogliere. Quando le ragazze raggiungono l'adolescenza, però, tutto cambia. Mentre i telegiornali nazionali danno sempre maggior risalto alle manifestazioni in favore di libertà, uguaglianza e giustizia per i neri d'America e il movimento per i diritti civili si diffonde a macchia d'olio, a Salt Point la comunità bianca comincia a vedere i Kindred e i Junkett non più come semplici vicini, ma come una possibile minaccia al loro mondo. In un'escalation di violenza, paura e pregiudizi, Ezra - tenace e coraggiosa - e Cinthy - riflessiva e vigile - devono attingere a tutto l'amore che la loro famiglia ha coltivato negli anni. Solo così possono affrontare le ingiustizie che iniziano a subire, come quando Ezra deve reagire al razzismo di un'amica o a uno sgarbo a scuola, e compiere gesti importanti, con cui mettono a rischio se stesse per proteggere i loro cari. Con una scrittura vibrante e poetica, La promessa racconta la resistenza di una famiglia contro ogni avversità. È una storia che spezza il cuore, per poi ricomporlo attraverso esempi di coraggio, speranza e amore.
